First Regular Session of the Fifty-eighth Legislature of the State of Oklahoma

First Legislative Day, Tuesday, January 5, 2021

COMMUNICATION

November 23, 2020

The Honorable J. Kevin Stitt
Governor, State of Oklahoma
2300 N. Lincoln Boulevard
Oklahoma City, OK 73105

Dear Governor Stitt,

Over the last six years, it has been my sincere honor to serve and represent the constituents of Senate District 22. I have done my best to be a voice for voters in Piedmont, Yukon, NW Oklahoma City and Edmond, and they believed in me enough to elect me twice to this senate seat.

I'm pleased to have been a part of so many positive changes during my tenure. In 2016, voters passed State Question 792, supporting alcohol modernization which opened the door for new businesses and opportunities across Oklahoma, resulting in nearly 5,000 new jobs. With the passage of State Question 788 and the successful enactment of HB 1269, of which I was the Senate author, Oklahoma is working to reduce our mass incarceration rates and the related fiscal and social costs that go with it. I'd be remiss if I did not mention supporting the largest increase in public education funding in the history of our state in 2018 totaling almost half a billion dollars, and the subsequent passage of an additional $120M in 2019 which you championed.

But more important than these, are the families who have been impacted by legislation I carried. Two bills in particular, one which standardized investigations following the sudden, unexplained death of infants in Oklahoma, and the second which delayed the release of autopsy reports to the media so next of kin would be given time to process the information contained in the reports, are some of my proudest moments of service.

On November 3, 2020, voters of Congressional District Five elected me to serve the State of Oklahoma in the United States House of Representatives. As such, pursuant to 26 O.S. § 12-119, I hereby irrevocably tender my resignation from the elected position of State Senator for District 22. Such resignation shall not become effective immediately, but shall become effective at 11:59 p.m. on Thursday, December 31st, 2020.

Thank you for your service to our state and for the service of your family. I look forward to our continued work together to move Oklahoma forward.

Blessings,
/s/ Stephanie Bice

The motion was declared adopted and the President appointed Senators Allen and Simpson as the committee.

Lieutenant Governor Pinnell, on behalf of the Senate, congratulated President Pro Tempore Treat and handed the gavel to the President Pro Tempore.

President Pro Tempore Treat delivered the following address:

Being Pro Tempore of the Senate is one of the greatest honors of my life, but the greatest title I have is of husband and a father. Today is emotional, I'm joined today by Maressa, the love of my life. Thank you for encouraging me, thank you for supporting me and thank you for being an excellent wife and excellent mother to our 3 children, Mason, Cooper and Olivia. They have grown up in this chamber and they don't know life outside this chamber. They all consider you friends, family and that is not just the members, that's the staff of the Oklahoma State Senate and all the people that call this their office. Thank you for loving and supporting my family through this journey. I want to thank my family members who are in the gallery, my mother in law Kathie McCarroll and her husband Jeff, my wife's aunt Jeannie Boozer who has been there along the way with her husband Mark, and Chris Amason, Maressa's uncle, who is the newly elected sheriff in Cleveland County and we've got many friends and many more watching online who I consider family. Thank you for all your love and support, thank you for being here.

Pastor Josh Kouri who is an awesome leader at Frontline Church. I'm blessed to be a part of the Frontline family. Maressa and I started going there in 2013 and found our church home immediately when we heard you sharing God's word in a more clear, straightforward way, than we'd ever heard preached before. Thank you for being a part of the Senate family as well. It means a lot that you're always here. It means a lot that you're my pastor and shepherd our family. Thank you to Frontline Church and to Josh Kouri. Thank you to the Senate staff, you all have been handed many challenges over the last few years that I was both Floor Leader and as Pro Tempore and you've handled it professionally, you've handled it with an expedited manner and we've had to change the whole world last year and you all did so beautifully. So, thank the Senate staff, and thank you to the Pro Tempore staff who makes a disorganized person, such as myself, appear organized from time to time, and keeps me in line. Thank you to my staff. It means a great deal to me that you serve the state in the way that you do. Thank you to you all my colleagues, my friends and my fellow senators. I appreciate and love each one of you and love serving the state of Oklahoma alongside of you all. Thank you to Senator Floyd. The Democratic leader and I get along extremely well, talk regularly and I think she really models great leadership for her caucus and for the State of Oklahoma, so thank you.

Before I get into the meat of what I want to talk about today we've lost several people since the last time we joined or part of the same family I just want to take a moment to recognize them before I get into my remarks. We lost Senator Brooks Douglass, who was here with us last session with his son who was able to page. He served the Senate from 1991 to 2002. We lost Senator Mark Snyder, who I worked with closely when I was on staff. From 1988 to 2004, he served the Oklahoma State Senate. We lost Senator J. Berry Harrison who served from 1991 to 2006, and we lost Senator Bill Branch who served from 1981 to 1988. We also lost another member of the family that I want to focus on a little bit more before I get into my remarks and that's Dorothy Jenkins, who used to sit behind the chamber here, operated the switchboard and served the Oklahoma Senate with great honor. The last conversation I had with her, she was on the 2nd floor outside the new committee room and she said: "Greg, I can't wait to see the light again, I want to get back on the 4th floor to see the light." She has seen the light, she's in heaven now and she was a tremendously gifted individual, who used her talents here in the Senate well. As I was at her funeral, I couldn't help as they were going through her obituary thinking how awesome a place this is. She was a Union Leader. I was a right to work guy. She was a Democrat Party chair for Cleveland County. I've been a lifelong Republican. But this building and this chamber brought people together that just wanted to serve their fellow man and Dorothy did it beautifully. This is such a special place and let us not ever forget that. I appreciate her service, I appreciate all those people who served in the Senate who lost their lives this session, let us remember them and act toward each other with kindness and with love.

Today, I want to talk about three things and then we'll get on with business. I want to talk about service, respect and curiosity. To serve as a senator is a distinct honor, it's one that very few Oklahomans have ever had a chance to do, it's one very few Oklahomans will ever have the chance to do. So never take your seat here for granted. You know, success is not guaranteed. We're all just in this position for a short while. Sometimes we use the word service, or public service, or public servant, to avoid calling ourselves politicians. None of us want to call ourselves politicians, so we say "No, we're in public service" or "We are in service to our fellow man." But I want to look at how scripture talks about service and Jesus when he was talking to his disciples in Mark 10:42-45. Right before this James and John had been somewhat quarreling over setting at the right and left hand of Jesus. And Jesus gathered the disciples and he called them and said, "You know that those who are considered rulers of the gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. But it shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many." Let our service look like that.

I pray that this body, myself included, become true servants of our communities, of our people and of each other. Let us not lord it over each other, the title that we've been granted.

Respect. One of my favorite authors of all time is CS Lewis and the favorite quote that I have probably recited in this chamber, but I will recite it again because I think it needs to be heard again, "There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal. Nations cultures, arts, civilizations - these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat. But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with. Marry, snub, and exploit - immortal horrors or everlasting splendors. This does not mean that we are to be perpetually solemn. We must play. But our merriment must be of that kind which exists between people who have, from the outset, taken each other seriously - no flippancy, no superiority and no presumption." Let us live our lives in that way in this chamber. I challenge each of us to treat each other with the knowledge that we are not dealing with mere mortals, but people who have immortal souls.

Curiosity. "Be curious not judgmental." Some of you, who are more well-read than me, may know that's a quote from Walt Whitman - I did not know that, until I was watching a sitcom called Ted Lasso. So, I learned it from Ted Lasso, I didn't learn it from Walt Whitman. If you haven't watched Ted Lasso you should, although there is some cursing and inappropriate things. Just fast forward through that. But it's an American football coach who gets recruited to coach soccer in Europe and he ends up in London. My favorite scene of the first season comes at the very end. He's playing darts with a very wealthy man who believes he's superior to him. He's taking Ted Lasso for granted and thinks Ted Lasso is an idiot. He's bets with Ted Lasso on a game of darts, and as Lasso is starting to finish darts it becomes readily apparent that he's much better than his opponent thought he was going to be and as he's beating the man, he goes onto a monologue. He quotes the aforementioned quote be curious not judgmental. If the man had been curious, he would have asked the right questions: Where did you grow up? Do you know anything about darts? But he didn't, he looked at the package. He looked at the exterior and judged a man on the outside. He was not curious. Let us be curious. I challenge you to be curious, not judgmental. We can learn about each other and from each other. We can love each other, and yes, even when we adamantly disagree, let's do it in love. In committees, ask real questions. Don't be afraid of real questions. Get to understand the issue. None of us are experts in every issue we have to deal with in this chamber. In your communities, people don't need to hear how great you are, you need to be reinvigorated by feeling how great the people that you serve are. Get to know that, really know them, not just lip service.

The challenges that we face are real, the disagreements that we have are many. But going into my second term as President Pro Tempore with the Oklahoma Senate, I want to lay down those three challenges. Success, as I will define it, will be: are we following Jesus example of leadership – becoming true servants – are we realizing that we're never dealing with mere mortals – in committee, on the floor, in the community, when we're interacting with Oklahomans – do we realize that they have an immortal soul and deserve to be treated with respect.

In heeding the words of Ted Lasso, or Walt Whitman, if you prefer, “Be curious, not judgmental.” We're only informed as our best questions. Iron truly sharpens iron.” May God bless you, your families, the State of Oklahoma and the United States of America.

RULE 8-21. SECOND READING. The Second Reading of a bill or resolution shall occur the next legislative day following the First Reading. Upon or after Second Reading of a bill or resolution, the same shall be assigned for committee consideration or assigned directly to the calendar. 2. When a committee report is filed, the clerk shall indicate on the face of the report the date and time the report was filed.
3. A bill or resolution reported from committee shall be placed on General Order at the beginning of the second legislative day following the legislative day that a committee report is filed.
4. Bills and resolutions referred directly to the calendar shall be placed on General Order at the beginning of the legislative day following the day of such referral.
5. A list of bills and resolutions on General Order, including a copy of the text of such bills and resolutions and the date such bills and resolutions were placed on General Order, shall be published electronically and made available each legislative day to all members of the Senate.
6. To allow opportunity for amendment under Rule 8-23, no bill may be heard until it has been on General Order for a period of at least one (1) legislative day.
7. No bill or joint resolution shall be considered on the Senate floor without a House author.

B. ORDER OF CONSIDERATION OF LEGISLATION. The Majority Floor Leader, or a designee, shall determine the order in which legislation is considered by the Senate. Nothing in this section nor these rules shall be construed as to guarantee a right to a hearing on any legislation.

C. CONSIDERATION OF MEASURES ON GENERAL ORDER. On General Order, the following procedure shall be observed:

1. Explanation of the bill or resolution by the Senate author;
2. Questions;
3. Consideration of amendments; and
4. Advancement from General Order to Engrossment and Third Reading.

RULE 8-23. AMENDMENTS.

A. Amendments to bills or resolutions shall be in writing and shall be considered only if submitted at least one (1) legislative day prior to consideration on General Order.

B. The Senate shall not consider any proposed amendment not germane to the subject of the bill or resolution. A secondary amendment must be germane to both the primary amendment and the measure which it purports to amend.

~~C. If an amendment to strike the title or enacting clause is approved, the emergency clause, if any, shall also be stricken. If an amendment to restore the title or enacting clause is approved, the emergency clause, if any, shall also be restored unless otherwise directed by the author of the amendment.~~

DC. If any amendment to a bill or resolution is filed as provided in this subsection, a copy of the text of such amendment shall be provided or made available electronically to each member of the Senate.

ED. The provisions of subsection A of this rule shall not apply to an amendment offered by the author of a bill or resolution:

1. To strike the title or enacting or resolving clause; or
2. For any other purpose, subject to the approval of the Majority Floor Leader.

FE. 1. Amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are submitted unless otherwise directed by the Majority Floor Leader; provided, a floor substitute offered by the author of the measure shall be considered first, and an amendment to restore a title or enacting or resolving clause shall be considered after disposition of all other amendments. If a floor substitute is adopted, the Secretary of the Senate shall conform previously submitted amendments to the measure to the floor substitute, if practicable.

2. Once an amendment is read, it shall be explained by its author, who may then answer questions concerning the amendment. If the author of the amendment is not in attendance at the time an amendment is read, the amendment shall be considered withdrawn unless another member of the Senate coauthors the amendment and provides an explanation.

3. An amendment shall be considered a public record from the time it is placed upon the clerk's desk.

GF. After the final vote on third reading of any bill or joint resolution, no amendment to the measure shall be considered, by unanimous consent or otherwise, unless the final vote and advancement of the measure are properly reconsidered according to the Senate Rules.

HG. For any bill which has been recommended to the full Senate by a Senate committee with a stricken title or enacting clause, the title or enacting clause shall not be restored as part of any other amendment, but an amendment to restore the title or enacting clause may be considered separately. ~~In the event a Floor Substitute adds an emergency, not previously found in the bill, such emergency clause shall be reflected as stricken in the Floor Substitute until the title and proposed emergency clause may be restored in a separate floor amendment.~~

RULE 8-24. ADVANCEMENT. Once a motion to advance has been adopted, the bill or resolution shall be considered engrossed and on Third Reading.

RULE 8-25. THIRD READING. Upon Third Reading of a bill or resolution, the Senate shall not consider amendments, but shall debate passage of the bill or resolution and then vote upon passage.

RULE 8-26. HOUSE AMENDMENTS. Upon receipt of House amendments to Senate bills or resolutions, the Senate author shall make a motion either to accept the amendments, in which case a successful vote on the motion shall automatically advance the bill to Fourth Reading and final passage, or to reject the amendments and request a conference with the House.

If a motion to adopt House amendments to Senate bills or resolutions fails, the Senate author should serve notice before any other business is considered by the Senate, to reject the amendments and request a conference with the House. If notice to reject House amendments is not made, then the legislation is considered to have received final action pursuant to Rule 6-7.

RULE 8-27. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

A. Any Conference Committee Report shall be considered by the Senate only when a majority of the Senate conferees and a majority of the House conferees have signed the report and only when the report is limited to matters germane to the bill or resolution.

If the Senate adopts a Conference Committee Report, the bill or resolution shall be before the Senate for Fourth Reading and final passage. If the Senate rejects a Conference Committee Report or a motion to adopt the report fails, the bill or resolution shall be returned to the conference committee. Upon a report by the Senate conferees that the conferees cannot agree, the bill or resolution reverts to its former status of consideration of House Amendments to Senate bills or resolutions.

B. The conference committee report proposed by the Senate author of a measure considered by the General Conference Committee on Appropriations may not be amended during the committee meeting at which the measure is considered.

RULE 8-28. FOURTH READING. Upon Fourth Reading of a bill or resolution, debate shall be in order on final passage of the bill or resolution, after which the vote shall occur on final passage. After final passage of a bill or resolution, it shall be signed by the Presiding Officer in open session.

No Senator shall interrupt another Senator in debate without his or her consent, and to obtain such consent shall first address the Presiding Officer, and no Senator shall speak more than twice upon any one question in debate on the same legislative day without leave of the Senate, which shall be determined without debate.

B. No Senator in debate shall, directly or indirectly, by any form of words impute to another Senator or to other Senators any conduct or motive unworthy or unbecoming a Senator.

C. No Senator shall introduce to or bring to the attention of the Senate during its sessions any occupant in the galleries of the Senate other than those allowed pursuant to Rule 8-6. No motion to suspend this rule shall be in order, nor may the Presiding Officer entertain any request to suspend it by unanimous consent.

D. If any Senator, in speaking or otherwise, in the opinion of the Presiding Officer transgresses the rules of the Senate, the Presiding Officer shall, either on his or her own motion or at the request of any other Senator, call him or her to order; and when a Senator shall be called to order he or she shall take his or her seat, and may not proceed without leave of the Senate, which, if granted, shall be upon motion that he or she be allowed to proceed in order, which motion shall be determined without debate. Any Senator directed by the Presiding Officer to take his or her seat, and any Senator requesting the Presiding Officer to require a Senator to take his or her seat, may offer a substitute ruling as provided in Rule 9-14.

RULE 8-31. MANNER OF VOTING. All votes of the Senate shall be by voice vote, division or roll call vote subject to the following:

A. The voting machine shall be used to record the vote whenever a roll call vote is taken on any question. The machine shall also be used to determine the presence or absence of a quorum. In the event the machine is not operating properly, all roll call votes and determinations of quorums may be taken by calling the roll. The voting machine shall be under the control of the Presiding Officer and shall be operated by a clerk designated by the Presiding Officer.

B. ~~During~~ Except as may be provided in subsection D of Rule 8-2, during any roll call, only a Senator present on the Senate floor may vote, and every Senator present shall vote, except when the President Pro Tempore is not present on the Senate floor but recorded as present pursuant to Rule 3-3 and physically present in the State Capitol, the President Pro Tempore may direct the Presiding Officer to activate the President Pro Tempore's roll call switch in the manner requested by the President Pro Tempore on any question for which a roll call vote is required. During a roll call, the Presiding Officer shall request every Senator in the chamber who has not voted to vote. If any Senator so requested fails to vote, the Presiding Officer shall, upon declaring the roll, order that said Senator be shown as voting "NO" on the question. Said order shall be printed in the Journal directly following the printing of the results of the roll call as reflected by the voting machine, and said "NO" vote shall be included in the determination of the passage or failure of the question. In all other cases, a Senator who fails to vote shall be shown as "excused" in the Journal, except as provided in Section 24 of Article V of the Oklahoma Constitution.

C. On any question for which a roll call vote is not required, a roll call vote shall be in order only if requested before the question is put. Once the question has been put and a voice vote taken, the Presiding Officer shall state the side that appears to the Presiding Officer to have prevailed, and any member then may request a division, but shall not be entitled to request a roll call vote. The declaration of the vote by the Presiding Officer shall be final.

D. No Senator shall be permitted to vote or change a vote after the result has been announced by the Presiding Officer.

E. If a member's voting machine is inoperative, the member shall rise and advise the Presiding Officer of the malfunction; and the Senator will be permitted to verbally vote on the question; and the vote will then be recorded by the clerk.

F. When a division is called for, those voting in the affirmative shall rise at their seats and remain standing until counted; then those voting in the negative shall rise and stand until they are counted, whereupon the Presiding Officer shall declare the result.

RULE 8-32. RECONSIDERATION OF VOTES. The final vote on Third Reading or Fourth Reading of any bill or joint resolution or on the emergency clause or special election feature or other special feature of any bill or joint resolution may be reconsidered only if a member of the Senate serves notice before any other business is considered by the Senate. Once such notice is served, the following procedures shall be observed:

1. In anticipation of the closing days of a regular session or a deadline for third reading and final passage of a measure in the Senate, a majority of the members of the Senate may vote that all motions to reconsider made thereafter shall be disposed of no later than the day of such deadline or the day set for sine die adjournment.

2. Except as heretofore provided, the member serving notice for reconsideration shall have the exclusive right to make such a motion on the day notice is served and the next two succeeding legislative days; provided, that on the third succeeding legislative day, any member of the Senate shall have the right to make such a motion. If no such motion is made on the third succeeding legislative day, then no reconsideration shall be permitted.

3. If the Senate refuses to reconsider or if, upon reconsideration, affirms the first decision, no further consideration shall be in order.

4. For adoption, a motion to reconsider the final vote on a bill or resolution or on the emergency clause or special election feature or other special feature must be approved by a majority of the members of the Senate.

5. A motion to reconsider any other action by the Senate must be made by a Senator who voted on the prevailing side before any other business is considered by the Senate and shall be disposed of on the same day it is lodged. The motion to reconsider shall be decided by a majority of those voting on the question.

6. It shall not be in order for the Senate, by suspension of the Rules or by any other means, to reconsider in the Second Regular Session of a Legislature the vote by which any bill or joint resolution was defeated in the First Regular Session.

Chapter 4: Executive Nominations

When Executive Nominations shall be made by the Governor or other appointing authority to the Senate, said nominations shall be referred for consideration to the standing committee which has in its jurisdiction the entity to which the nomination relates. Nominations shall be made by the Governor or other appointing authority to the Senate no later than May 1 of any year in order to be considered by the full Senate that year.

RULE 8-41. REJECTION. No person whose nomination has been rejected by the Senate shall be eligible to be later confirmed by the Senate during the same session for appointment to the same position. If an executive nomination is not approved during the regular session in which it is submitted, it shall be deemed rejected. If an interim executive nomination is not approved during the first regular session following its submission it shall be deemed rejected. The President Pro Tempore shall notify the appointing authority of the rejection of an executive nomination by the Senate, and shall likewise notify the chief executive of the entity to which the nomination relates.

RULE 8-42. COMMITTEE REPORTS ON EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS.

Committee reports on Executive Nominations may be combined by the Majority Floor Leader for consideration by the Senate. At the request of any member, however, a nominee shall be separated from the combined report and considered individually by the Senate. A majority vote of the members of the Senate shall be required for adoption of a combined report.

Chapter 5: Committee of the Whole

RULE 8-50. COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. Without prior notice, the Senate may, by motion approved by a majority of the members of the Senate, declare itself a Committee of the Whole, at which time the President Pro Tempore or a member designated by the President Pro Tempore shall chair the Committee of the Whole. Rules applicable to other Senate committees shall be applied to the Committee of the Whole, except those rules relating to notice.

RULE 8-51. REPORTS. Once the Committee of the Whole has reported a bill or resolution “DO PASS“ or “DO PASS, AS AMENDED“, to the Senate, that bill or resolution shall be considered on Third Reading and shall be voted upon without consideration of amendments or debate.

RULE 8-60. OVERRIDES OF VETOES. When a bill or resolution is returned to the Senate because of veto by the Governor, a motion that the vetoed legislation become law the Governor’s objections notwithstanding shall be in order ~~at any time~~, pursuant to Rule 8-5.

RULE 8-61. OTHER COMMITTEE REPORTS. Committee reports on matters other than legislation or Executive Nominations shall be filed with the Secretary of the Senate and explained by the Chair of the committee making the report, whereupon the Senate may consider any action called for in the report.

A. The Title of a bill or resolution shall be made to conform to the text, unless the same has been ordered stricken. A stricken title shall be shown in brackets. The ballot title of a bill or resolution proposing a state question shall be made to conform to the text. The Enacting Clause shall be a part of every bill unless the same shall have been ordered stricken. A stricken Enacting Clause shall be shown by striking through the words of the Enacting Clause. ~~If the title or enacting clause has been stricken, the emergency clause, if any, shall also be stricken as provided in Rules 7-7 and 8-23.~~

3. Modify sections of such measures which provide for a measure to become effective on July 1 or a date earlier than ninety days after the date of expected sine die adjournment to read to reflect an effective date of ninety days after the date of sine die adjournment, or to delete such sections, if the emergency clause has failed to receive the required number of votes for passage;
