President Pinnell, on behalf of the Senate, congratulated President Pro Tempore Treat and handed him the gavel.

President Pro Tempore Treat delivered the following address:

Thank you for gathering here to celebrate USC's Bowl Loss. Seriously thank you for being here to kick off the new legislature.

Maressa, after 17 and a half years we're entering a new phase in our marriage, she's the candidate and I'm the spouse. I'm very much enjoying my new role! Maressa and I had our first real conversation in the rotunda in 2004 after I presented on behalf of Dr. Coburn's U.S. Senate campaign in the Oklahoma House Chamber. It'll come as a shock to all of you, but I was an idiot when she came up and gave me unsolicited advice. I may or may not have said "If I would have wanted your advice, I would have asked for it". Maressa, thank you for looking past my many flaws. Your advice was great then and it has been impeccable ever since. I can unequivocally say that I would not be standing here if it weren't for you. You are amazing and I am thankful for you with every fiber of my being. I'm excited to see what the next 17 years bring.

Mason, Cooper, Olivia, you all have grown up in this chamber. Mason was 3 years old when I got elected, Cooper was 6 months old and Olivia was yet to be born, and now she runs the place, or at least thinks she does. I love you all and I am proud of each one of you, you are smart, gifted and caring and truly a reflection of your mom.

My family in the gallery, thank you all for being here. I know my mom is not feeling well, hopefully she's seeing this online; I don't know if she's watching now or not but "Hi Mom" if you are. I see my dad, my brother and sister-in-law, my niece and nephew, it means the world to me that you are here. To my friends in the gallery, watching online, my family members, thank you for your love, support, and your confidence through these years.

Tomorrow my dad actually celebrates his birthday and my mom at least says that for 7 months that he's "a year older" than her. Happy birthday Dad a day early and in 30 days, mom and dad will be celebrating their 52nd wedding anniversary. I think that's an awesome thing. Thank you to the special guests in the gallery, Darren and Michelle Pilcher, it means the world to me that you all are here as well. They were our pastors when I was baptized by Darren, they dedicated our first two children, and they helped pray them into existence in many ways. I will never forget after Mason was born that we had a miscarriage and Maressa and I were devastated at that news and we went out to pray with Darren and Michelle. They had experienced a similar situation earlier in life and they gave us a book called "Hold You In Heaven" that we still give out to people who are suffering a loss. You pointed our lives, especially my not growing up in church. What I know about church and church leadership came from you all, you're amazing people, thank you for being here today and sharing this day.

Thank you to District 47 for your continued trust in me for sending me up here 4 times, once without a microphone but I still count it as a fourth time.

Thank you to the Senate Staff, some of which are up here today with me, others are behind the scenes. This place would not work without Senate Staff, LSB Staff, their dedication to the State is unparalleled, their intelligence, their work ethic, I appreciate each and every one of you.

To my personal Pro Tem staff, I will say this and not get all gushy right now. To Jeff, Christina, Jamie, Becky and Alex, we are a wonderful team, you all make me look good, even when I don't deserve to and I appreciate everything you all do.

To Senator McCortney and Senator Thompson, who meet with me on a regular basis and always complain when I'm a little bit late. Senator McCortney, I once served in your position, you know that. You are a planner's planner. You're thoughtful, you truly seek the input of the assistant floor leaders in an unprecedented level. You're doing a great job and I have confidence that you will see even more improvements in the process now that you have 4 sessions under your belt in one year, 3 specials and one regular, so you're four sessions in! Thank you, Senator McCortney, for your friendship and everything you do.

Senator Thompson, I once served as Vice Chair of Appropriations, and I saw up close and personal how demanding the job of the Chair of Appropriations is. I truly believe that we have the best appropriations chair in state history serving in that capacity now. He is a workhorse. He is tireless. You're a problem solver. Sometimes he solves a problem before I even know they exist! I trust you one hundred percent but most of all I appreciate your friendship to Maressa and I, you're an amazing person and I appreciate everything you do.

To Senator Kay Floyd, thank you. I don't know if everyone in this building, this chamber, the people listening, realize that what she did today, what we've done two times prior by seconding my nomination, is not some requirement, or tradition of the Senate, it's not necessarily always been the case, I don't take it for granted, my relationship with the democratic leader. You do a wonderful job leading your caucus and I appreciate your intellect, your honesty, your integrity, and your friendship. Thank you.

For Colleagues of both parties, especially those of you who were just elected. Welcome to the Oklahoma State Senate, Happy New Year, and welcome to the Fifty-ninth Legislature. It's an honor of a lifetime to serve in this capacity as President Pro Tempore. I love our State and I love the Oklahoma Senate. I'm only the forty-fourth person to hold this title and I don't take it for granted. Thank you for trusting me.

Recently we have accomplished much together:

We ended the Department of Human Services DDSD Waiting List by appropriating $32.5 million additional dollars last year to help the over 5100 Oklahoma Families awaiting services for their loved ones, sometimes for as long as 13 years! I am proud to report that this work is well underway both within DHS and the provider community. What we do here makes a difference.

When we received federal ARPA funds, we worked judiciously not just in the Senate, but across the rotunda with our colleagues in the House to make sure that the money was appropriated to the right projects, while implementing the safeguards to avoid any kind of future federal claw back.

Through the ARPA process, we put historic projects into motion that will have a generational impact on Oklahomans. I am proud to say it was one of the most inclusive and transparent processes I have been a part of since my time in the Senate. It truly will serve as a roadmap for us moving forward.

We made major strategic investments in improvements to our water infrastructure, behavioral health care, public health, workforce development and for broadband internet access across the state. These are all things that Oklahoman's needed. They told us what they needed and we delivered, so we worked together for the benefit of Oklahomans. I don't want it to be lost on people how much work these people that were on the joint committee had to go through, there were countless hours of studying, deliberation, and just analyzing. We had many more requests than we had money to give so I just want to take a moment to thank you all by name:

Senator Roger Thompson, Co-Chair
Senator Chuck Hall
Senator Kay Floyd
Senator John Haste
Senator Brent Howard
Senator Julia Kirt
Senator Greg McCortney
Senator John Michael Montgomery
Senator Casey Murdock
Senator Lonnie Paxton
Senator Adam Pugh
Senator Brenda Stanley

Thank you for your dedication over the interim to make sure these projects got chosen correctly and above the board and I appreciate all of you and what you put into this.

Thank you, Lt. Governor Matt Pinnell, for your friendship, it goes way beyond our time in our current offices. You do a tremendous job. Thank you for your friendship.

Our fiscal restraint, prudent leadership, and the ingenuity, creativity and work ethic of Oklahomans has led to a $3.2 billion dollar surplus. It wasn't that long ago when we were facing a $600 million dollar shortfall, an $800 million dollar shortfall and a $1.3 billion dollar shortfall. The accomplishments that I just mentioned, were just a handful of things that we've been able to do together. When our time in the Senate is done, we will remember the positive impact for our state for years to come.

Over this last interim we had many things going on, not to mention the so called "special" sessions, I want to highlight just a couple today:

Chairman Rader has been working with a strong group on tax reform. He and the working group have been studying and deliberating all summer, fall, and into this winter on crafting a proposal for long-term, meaningful tax reform for Oklahoma. Thank you, Chairman Rader, and to your working group.

I also want to thank Chairman Pugh for working over the interim, meeting with university presidents, over 200 superintendents, hundreds of teachers, and parents to listen to their concerns and ideas on how the legislature and these groups can work together to improve education. Oklahoma will undoubtedly benefit from your work.

We are also working diligently to address workforce development. The state continues its record of success in terms of getting companies to expand their footprint or relocate to Oklahoma. According to the Department of Commerce, through the first 3 quarters of 2022 there were 62 announcements made for new or expanding companies with roughly 3000 new jobs created. Our future is incredibly bright!

The amount of projects worked on over the interim by members of both parties are too numerous to mention individually but thank you all for your dedication to improving Oklahoma's future.

For a moment, if you will, I want to turn for a moment a bit more reflective:

We are only here for a short while in the whole scheme of things. For most of us that is 12 or fewer years or for some of us were elected in special elections so our sentences may be a bit longer. Last night, I went on the census bureau website and as of July of this year the estimate for Oklahoma's population is 4,019,800. That means that this body is comprised of 0.0012% of Oklahoma's population. We are a select few not because we are special but because we are normal enough to reflect the values and beliefs of our individual districts and abnormal enough to step forward for one of the most intense and grueling job interview processes known to mankind, a campaign. This place can feed your ego, people opening doors for us, calling us by our title (Senator, Chairman, Mr. President, Mr. Leader, etc), laughing at our subpar jokes, sitting us in front of rooms in our communities and ceding to us "experts" on topics we just recently learned about. But it can also eat you up the irate phone call, the email that begins with a slur and ends with a threat, the protestors following you down the hall yelling at you and trying to coax your kids into the argument, the social media keyboard warriors, the time away from family, the intensity, and the emotion of arguments within this building that oftentimes no one is talking about away from 23rd and Lincoln.

My charge to all of us is to remember we aren't nearly as special as some of us think or want to believe and we aren't nearly as bad as many believe us to be. We are average Oklahomans sent here to serve Oklahoma.

We are all-too-average, all-too-ordinary, with an extraordinary calling, a literal calling to put others ahead of ourselves, to listen to the citizens that sent us here, to plant the proverbial trees that we may very well never be able to enjoy the shade that they one day will produce.

Even as I speak these words, I am reminded of my favorite C.S. Lewis quote that there are no ordinary people, even though I just called us ordinary, “There are no ordinary people. You have never talked to a mere mortal. Nations, cultures, arts, civilizations - these are mortal, and their life is to ours as the life of a gnat. But it is immortals whom we joke with, work with, marry, snub and exploit - immortal horrors or everlasting splendors. This does not mean that we are to be perpetually solemn. We must play. But our merriment must be of that kind (and it is, in fact, the merriest kind) which exists between people who have, from the outset, taken each other seriously - no flippancy, no superiority, no presumption”. I ask your forgiveness, where I have fallen short of this reality and where I where I will fall in the future.

Thank you for the honor of serving as the Pro Tem for the last four years and for entrusting me for another two years to lead the Senate of the greatest state in the union.

Every productive meeting should have action items so I’m going to ask a few of you:

Come up and give unsolicited advice to my now candidate wife – things like “you should be campaigning not sitting here!”, things that you’ve told me a million times over. Being on this side is so much more fun.

My parent’s, I thought when I wrote this, that my mom would be here, now I’ll say my dad, is a bit introverted so please get him out of his comfort zone. Tell my dad happy birthday and wish him a happy anniversary. It’s extremely special him here today. I’ll end with two things about my parents:

First, about my mom, she poured her life into her three boys. She sacrificed for our future. She has a tremendous sense of humor and a heart for everyone. I don’t tell you often enough how appreciative I am and how much I love you. Thank you, Mom. I truly do love you.

Now to my dad. My dad worked his tail off, you still work your tail off, providing for our family. Growing up he told me and my brothers “I’m going to tell you something that I don’t want you to ever forget”...(he’d always have add a dramatic pause followed with) “I love you!”. I don’t recall a day he failed to say that me that and it meant the world to me. It still means the world to me. But he also taught me, while hunting and fishing, to always leave the place better that you found it and that’s my charge to us to leave the place better than we found it. To leave the Oklahoma Senate better than we found it and to leave Oklahoma better than we found it. That’s our mission plain and simple, leave the place better than we found it.

Thank you and God bless the great state of Oklahoma!

The President Pro Tempore may establish, and appoint the members of, as many ad hoc subcommittees of each standing committee as the President Pro Tempore deems appropriate. There shall be as many select committees as are created by the President Pro Tempore.

RULE 7-2. MEMBERSHIP. Membership on standing committees and on select committees shall be subject to the following:

RULE 7-6. AUTHORITY OF COMMITTEES. Any Senate committee is authorized to issue process, compel attendance of witnesses, and to administer oaths to any person appearing before the committee. Any Senate committee which considers legislation is empowered to consolidate bills or resolutions, to develop committee substitutes for such bills or resolutions, to amend such bills or resolutions and to develop a committee bill or resolution irrespective of any other legislation.

RULE 7-7. PROCEDURES. The following procedures shall be observed by all legislative committees of the Senate:

A. MEETING NOTICES. Subject to such exceptions as are provided hereinafter, committees of the Senate shall comply with provisions of the Oklahoma Open Meeting Act. A copy of all notices required by said Act shall be provided to the Chief Operating Officer, who shall designate the appropriate place for such notices to be posted. The Chief Operating Officer shall cause the notice to be posted on the Senate web site and shall take such other actions as may be deemed appropriate to provide adequate notice to the public.

B. MEETING TIMES. The Chair of a committee shall schedule meetings of the committee. Meetings at a time other than the regularly scheduled meeting time of a committee shall not conflict with any regularly scheduled meeting of any other committee, except with the consent of the President Pro Tempore.

C. AGENDA. The agenda for any meeting of a committee shall be set by the Chair and shall include the date, time and place of the meeting. A copy of the agenda shall be provided to members of the committee and to authors of legislation to be considered by the committee at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting unless otherwise approved by the President Pro Tempore. An agenda for a meeting scheduled to meet prior to or during the first three days of session may reflect a measure for which assignment to the committee is anticipated, and the committee may act upon the measure; provided, if the measure is not assigned to the committee during the first three days of session, any committee action on the measure taken prior to or during those days shall be of no force or effect.

D. QUORUM. A quorum shall be present when any committee votes on any matter. Any member of a committee may request a quorum call at any time the committee is meeting. A number equal to a majority of the appointed members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

E. PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair, or in the Chair's absence the Vice-Chair, of the committee, or a designee, shall preside at meetings of the committee. No person shall address the committee unless first recognized for that purpose. If the Chair selects a designee, the designee must be a member of the committee.

F. CONDUCT OF BUSINESS. When considering legislation or conducting other business, committees shall observe the following procedures:

1. When a legislative measure is taken up for consideration, the Senate author shall be recognized for explanation of the measure.
2. Upon prior approval given by the Chair of the committee and subject to time restraints established by the Chair, any testimony from non-members of the committee in favor and/or opposed to the measure may be given. Upon completion of the testimony, each member of the committee may put questions to those testifying before the committee. No testimony shall be given unless questions are made available to the members of the committee.
3. The Senate author shall be given the opportunity to answer questions put by members of the committee.

4. The Senate author or any member of the committee shall be provided the opportunity for presentation of amendments to the legislation. Amendments to any bill or resolution under consideration by a committee or subcommittee shall be germane to the subject of the introduced bill or resolution. Any amendment must be seconded to receive further consideration. A committee or subcommittee is prohibited from considering a committee substitute or committee amendment that has the same effect and covering the same specific or substantially similar subject matter found in a bill or resolution assigned to a different Senate committee. Provided, the Senate author or any member of the committee offering a committee substitute must submit the proposed committee substitute in writing or electronically to the Chair no later than noon on the legislative day before the meeting of the committee. The Chair may, at his or her discretion, waive the deadline set forth in this rule. When a committee substitute is submitted, the Chair may approve the substitute to be heard by the committee and the committee substitute shall be considered a public record from the time of such approval.

5. Amendments and motions may be adopted by a voice vote; provided, however, that the Senate author, or any member of the committee, may require a roll call vote.

6. Amendments shall be considered in the order they appear in the legislation, or in the order they are presented to the clerk of the committee; provided, an amendment to restore the title or enacting clause shall be considered after disposition of all other amendments. The Chair or other member presiding shall resolve any conflict resulting from claimed priority of presentation.

7. The author of an amendment shall explain the amendment and be afforded the opportunity to answer questions about the amendment put by members of the committee or the author of the legislation.

8. Any member may be recognized for debate or comment on the proposed legislation or amendments thereto. Debate may be limited at the discretion of the Chair or other member presiding, provided that equal time must be given to both proponent and opponent sides of debate.

9. The legislation may be laid on the table at the request of the author or at his or her discretion without a vote of the committee to do so at any time prior to the question being put for committee recommendation on the legislation. The legislation may be brought back up later in the same or subsequent meetings of the committee provided it is listed on the agenda in compliance with this rule. If the legislation is brought up at a subsequent meeting, consideration of the legislation will recommence with explanation of the measure.

10. The vote on a recommendation by the committee to the Senate concerning a legislative measure shall be by recorded roll call and shall require a majority vote of the members of the committee present and voting, which shall not be less than a quorum, for passage. The only permitted recommendations to the Senate on a legislative measure are "DO PASS" or "DO PASS, AS AMENDED". During any roll call, only a Senator present in the committee room may vote, and every Senator present shall vote. The chair shall request every Senator in the committee room who is a member of the committee and who has not voted to vote. Any Senator choosing to pass upon initial roll call, shall be called on to vote prior to the Vice Chair, then Chair being called on to vote, in advance of closing the committee roll call vote. If any Senator so requested fails to vote, other than as provided in Section 24 of Article V of the Oklahoma Constitution, the chair shall, upon declaring the roll, order that said Senator be shown as voting “NO” on the question. Said “NO” vote shall be included in the determination of the passage or failure of the question. If a Senator is present but not voting as provided in Section 24 of Article V of the Oklahoma Constitution, the Senator shall so inform the chair. In such event, the Senator shall be deemed to be present but not voting, and that Senator's vote shall not be included in the determination of the passage or failure of the question. A tie vote in a committee on the motion of “DO PASS” or “DO PASS, AS AMENDED” shall result in failure of the motion. All committee votes reflecting the votes of each member present and voting on the motion of “DO PASS” or “DO PASS, AS AMENDED”, and a notation of any member not voting as provided in Section 24 of Article V of the Oklahoma Constitution, shall be entered in the Journal.

G. LEGISLATION REQUIREMENTS. Except for legislation containing appropriations, all legislation originating in the Senate which is considered by a Senate committee shall contain an Enacting or Resolving Clause, and a House author at the discretion of the Chair.

H. SUBCOMMITTEES. The Chair may assign to any subcommittee any legislation, proposal or inquiry; provided, however, no subcommittee shall be permitted to report directly to the Senate, but rather shall report to the parent committee.

I. DISTRIBUTION OF MATERIALS. No person shall cause materials to be distributed at any committee meeting without first having obtained approval of the Chair. The person causing the materials to be distributed shall be identified in writing on the face of such materials. Any document or other material distributed to all members of a committee of the Senate during a meeting which is open to the public shall be considered a public record from the time of such distribution.

RULE 7-8. CONFERENCE COMMITTEES. The President Pro Tempore shall appoint members of the Senate to serve on conference committees with members of the House of Representatives at such times and in such numbers as the President Pro Tempore deems appropriate.

RULE 7-9. WITHDRAWAL FROM COMMITTEE. Any bill or resolution may be withdrawn from any committee of the Senate upon a two-thirds vote of the members of the Senate. Any bill or resolution so withdrawn shall be on General Order. The provisions of this rule shall not prevent a bill or resolution from being reassigned from one committee to another, from being assigned directly to the calendar, or from being double-assigned as provided in Rule 8-21.
