Judges and Court Reporters:

The Court currently has four full time Judges who were appointed by the Governor. The Judges travel at times between Oklahoma City and Tulsa according to their docket setting. The Court utilizes and pays for Active Retired Judges registered with the Supreme Court as necessary to cover matters where full time Judges may have conflicts in hearing certain matters. Each Judge has a full time Court Reporter paid for by the Court per Title 20 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

Docket Division:

Responsible for scheduling case setting, notifying parties of Trials and hearings and setting appellate dockets.
