Amendments shall be considered first in the order in which they appear in the bill or resolution; second, according to the largest sum, greatest number or most distant day for amendments appearing in the same place; and third, in the order in which they are submitted. An amendment can be withdrawn at any time before it is voted upon by the author of the amendment. Once an amendment is read, it shall be explained by its author, who shall then answer questions concerning the amendment. If the author of the amendment is not in attendance at the time an amendment is read, the amendment shall be considered withdrawn unless another member of the Senate has or immediately takes coauthorship of the amendment and provides an explanation.

B. After the final vote on third or fourth reading of any bill or joint resolution, no amendment to the measure shall be considered, by unanimous consent or otherwise, unless the final vote and advancement of the measure are properly reconsidered according to the Senate Rules.

RULE 12-5. SUBSTITUTE AMENDMENTS. Only one substitute amendment shall be considered for any amendment to any bill or resolution. Once the substitute amendment is read, the same provisions applicable to the original amendment shall apply to the substitute amendment. If the substitute amendment is successful, the original amendment shall be rendered moot. If the substitute amendment is unsuccessful, RULE 12-8. HOUSE AMENDMENTS. Upon receipt of House amendments to Senate bills or resolutions, the Senate author shall make a motion either to accept the amendments, in which case a successful vote on the motion shall automatically advance the bill to Fourth Reading and final passage, or to reject the amendments and request a conference with the House.

RULE 12-9. CONFERENCE COMMITTEES. The President Pro Tempore shall appoint members of the Senate to serve on conference committees with members of the House of Representatives at such times and in such numbers as the President Pro Tempore deems appropriate.

RULE 12-10. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS. Any Conference Committee Report shall be considered by the Senate only when a majority of the Senate conferees and a majority of the House conferees have signed the report and only when the report is limited to matters germane to the bill or resolution. If the Senate adopts a Conference Committee Report, the bill or resolution is before the Senate for Fourth Reading and final passage. If the Senate rejects a Conference Committee Report or a motion to adopt the report fails, the bill or resolution shall be returned to the conference committee. RULE 12-11. FOURTH READING. Upon Fourth Reading of a bill or resolution, debate shall be in order on final passage of the bill or resolution, after which the vote shall occur on final passage. After final passage of a bill or resolution, it shall be signed by the Presiding Officer in open session.

RULE 12-14. OTHER COMMITTEE REPORTS. Committee reports neither on legislation nor on Executive Nominations shall be filed with the Secretary of the Senate and explained by the chair of the committee making the report, whereupon the Senate may consider any action called for in the report.

RULE 12-15. FIRST READING. A bill or resolution shall be considered introduced upon First Reading and shall automatically be advanced to Second Reading.

RULE 12-16. SECOND READING.

A. The Second Reading of a bill or resolution shall occur the next legislative day following the First Reading. Upon Second Reading of a bill or resolution, the same shall be assigned for committee consideration. All bills carrying appropriations which are referred to any committee other than the Appropriations Committee shall, immediately upon a report by the committee to which referred, be referred to the Appropriations Committee.

B. All "shell bills", except for appropriation bills as defined in Rule 5-7, and except for a bill which is exempt from Joint Rule 17 or Senate Rule 16-1, shall be assigned to the Rules Committee. For purposes of this rule a "shell bill" shall mean a measure which does not make a substantive change in the law.

C. After preparation of a committee substitute which proposes a substantive change in the law, a shell bill which has been assigned to the Rules Committee may be withdrawn from the Rules Committee and assigned to some other committee. No shell bill, except for appropriation bills as defined in Rule 5-7, and except for a bill which is exempt from Joint Rule 17 or Senate Rule 16-1, shall be reported out of a committee until it has been amended to include a substantive change in the law.

RULE 12-20. SINE DIE ADJOURNMENT. The date and time of sine die adjournment of the Senate shall be fixed by motion or resolution; provided, that once the date and time of such sine die adjournment has arrived, no further business shall be conducted by the Senate, and the Presiding Officer shall declare the Senate adjourned sine die.

RULE 12-21. CORRECTION OF LANGUAGE. The Secretary of the Senate shall, at the direction of the President Pro Tempore and with the approval of the Senate author, have the authority to correct nonsubstantive errors in the language of any bill or resolution at the time the same is engrossed or enrolled. A detailed record of all such corrections shall be maintained by the Secretary and printed in the Journal. The Title of a bill or resolution shall be made to conform to the text, unless the same has been ordered crippled. The Enacting Clause shall be a part of every bill unless the same shall have been ordered stricken.

RULE 12-22. WITHDRAWAL FROM COMMITTEE. Any bill or resolution may be withdrawn from any committee of the Senate upon a two-thirds vote of the members of the Senate. Any bill or resolution so withdrawn shall be on General Order.

RULE 12-23. RECONSIDERATION. The final vote on Third Reading or Fourth Reading of any bill or joint resolution or on the emergency clause or special election feature or other special feature of any bill or joint resolution may be reconsidered only if a member of the Senate serves notice on the same day the vote to be reconsidered is taken. Once such notice is served, the following procedures shall be observed:

A. In anticipation of the closing days of a regular session, a majority of the members of the Senate may vote that all motions to reconsider made thereafter shall be disposed of on the same day such notice is served.

B. Except as heretofore provided, the member serving notice for reconsideration shall not be permitted to make the motion to reconsider on the day notice is served, but shall have the exclusive right to make such a motion on the next two succeeding legislative days; provided, that on the third succeeding legislative day, any member of the Senate shall have the right to make such a motion. If no such motion is made on the third succeeding legislative day, then no reconsideration shall be permitted.

C. If the Senate refuses to reconsider or if, upon reconsideration, affirms the first decision, no further consideration shall be in order.

D. For adoption, a motion to reconsider the final vote on a bill or resolution or on the emergency clause or special election feature or other special feature must be approved by a majority of the members of the Senate.

E. A motion to reconsider any other action by the Senate must be made by a Senator who voted in the majority and shall be disposed of on the same day it is lodged. The motion to reconsider shall be decided by a majority of those voting on the question.

MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR FRANK KEATING

Thank You. Thank you, very much. That was wholesome.

Mr. Speaker, Mr. President, Leader Morgan, Leader Dunlap, Members of the House and Senate, Members of Judiciary, Members of the Cabinet, my fellow Oklahomans, this is the final time that we will have this conversation together.

Over the course of the last seven years, we have fussed and fought and debated and argued and agreed and disagreed and compromised and reconciled in the ways that we believe are best for Oklahoma. Because I truly believe, as the only governor in the history of the state who has served in both the House and the Senate, that all of you, all of us, do what we feel in our own hearts is best to lift up our state and advance the interest of this wonderful home of ours, our Oklahoma.

Not too many years ago I spoke to some of my young staffers, and I say to them, This job does not pay a great deal of money and about after the first month the big black car wears off, so why are we here? We are here to make Oklahoma better. We are here to make Oklahoma richer and smarter. We're here together to lift up our state and make it a prosperity center.

Later I shared with you the chiding that, then Governor, now President Bush, gave me once he said, Frank, I can beat you every time. You don't have right to work. You have an expensive Workers' Comp system and you tax everything. And we debated those issues and argued over those issues. Everyone in his own unique way, attempting to advance the interest of our state, and that is good.

Much later I showed you the infamous chart. The chart showing that over 30 of the border counties of Oklahoma, compared to the border counties of our neighbor states, in Missouri and Kansas, New Mexico, Arkansas, Colorado, and Texas, the vast majority of our border county, rural to rural, experienced a lower per-capita income than the corresponding border county across the border.

And I said to you then, and I say to you here, same language, same sun, same sky, same moon, same star, same people, same food, same culture, what is the difference? Government. And from day one I have advanced the same incorrigible agenda. Reduce the size of government so that our people can have more. Reduce taxes so that those who earn their money can keep more of their money. Remove artificial barriers to growth, so that anything that holds us back and keeps us down, will be eliminated. And we, all of us -- black, white, red, yellow, Protestant, Catholic, Jew, believer, unbeliever, rural, urban, can be lifted up together.

I told you last year the agenda for last session, and I repeat it again for this session. To you my friends, Members of the House and Senate, independently elected by people who care as much as you and I about this state, the agenda must be to get our congressman back.

We cannot permit to happen in 10 years what happened this past year, and you know and I know that people move to a place in fewer numbers because they view that place is not alive from an economic development and prosperity standpoint, and they move away from a place in greater numbers if they think there is better opportunity elsewhere. This grand land of ours, this extraordinary people of ours, the history of our forefathers, those wise men and women who sat in your seats, simply could not, would not, must not, permit that to recur. And we, here today in this session, must not permit that to recur.

We have to think about our children. We have to think about your grandchildren and how can we best make Oklahoma the prosperity center for them. And, yes, Cathy and I in July, for your ears only, will be grandparents for the first time. Ryan and Carrie are here, and I would say that all of us who are parents and all of us who are grandparents, believe the same thing. We want to leave a legacy. We want to leave a state that merits, that deserves our children and grandchildren. We believe that in our hearts.

We have in a bipartisan way worked hard together to make this a better place. We have made Oklahoma safer. As a result of the leadership of this legislature, we passed truth in sentencing. For the first time ever, we used private prisons. We distinguished between ordinary criminals and the violent and the chronic, and we said the violent and the chronic will not get out. No great surprise. As a result today, crime is down four years in a row. And what does that say? That says that Oklahoma is safe for business. That says Oklahoma is safe for our families, our wives, our children, and grandchildren. That says that we can focus on things that matter and not attempting to protect ourselves against those who would prey on us.

That says a lot.

Several years ago there was a metropolitan writer who predicted that if the administration succeeded in focusing on the violent and the chronic, we would have to build a thousand-bed prison every year as far as the eye could see. And what has occurred? We built no public prisons. The few private prisons that have been constructed are now disputing and debating and competing each with the other to see who can get in-state and out-of-state inmates.

The crime rate is down four years in a row. Oklahoma is a safer place.

Oklahoma is cleaner. The courage of this legislature to pass the first in the nation poultry regulation bill, and the toughest in the nation swine regulation bill makes a statement that, what is important, even to those of us who love chicken and who love bacon, but what is important is quality of life. There is simply no way you can sell your town. We can't sell our state. We can't sell our cities if the water and the air are fouled. So

Oklahoma, one of the first states of the Union, stepped across the line, and said yes to economic development but said no to the unbridled economic development that would destroy the quality of water in our state.

We also for the first time in many years focused on what is our most significant environmental challenge and that's the Tar Creek Super Fund site. That is the most serious Super Fund site in the United States. Here is an area of the state that should be second to none in terms of economic development and tourism condemned as a result of the link and lead mining of many years ago, in many cases long before we became a state.

And I want to compliment the legislature for your willingness to invest in that cleanup, your willingness to consider that as a grand water-fouled wetland for the sake of future tourism and recreation development in Oklahoma. And I am particularly happy, as a result of Secretary Griffin's leadership that we have the federal government's attention, and I hope that the members of the House and Senate delegation, the federal members from Oklahoma will focus on that site as the final site that we need to address in Oklahoma in order for us to be able to say with a straight face and a smile that, north, south, east, and west, our air and water quality are second to none. Oklahoma is cleaner.

Oklahoma is friendly to business. We passed tort reform. We limited punitive damages to double actual damages, and we said to business in Oklahoma and to workers in Oklahoma, you will be fairly treated. No one group has an advantage over the other. And business is not frightened away from Oklahoma. Business comes here and will come here because of this extraordinary effort that many of you passed.

We also embarked on the largest road construction project ever in the history of Oklahoma, ever. And the method and the madness was to connect every single community of 10,000 and more by a four-lane highway to the interstate highway system. What does that suggest? That every community is important; that no community should be left out; that all of Oklahoma should be stitched together; and that all of our people should have an equal chance at the good life. That's what you said. That's what we said. And with no tax increase and no scandal, we've embarked on the largest road construction program ever.

Recently, as a result of the leadership of two of the men behind me, the Speaker and the Pro Tem, we committed ourselves, and all of you Republicans and Democrats alike did, to the Garvee Program, to do what? To build our Oklahoma's infrastructure. You build it; they will come.

When you consider, for example, from Altus to Lawton it took 10 years to build that four-lane highway, if we built four-lane highways, interstate highways, to connect our communities to the interstate system, to provide an opportunity for economic development, after what you have done in the past and you will do in the future, business will come, but they will not come without an infrastructure. And you had the courage to pass the legislation to build the infrastructure and I commend you.

Welfare reform, we reduced our welfare roles by over seventy percent, some say nearly eighty percent. That's an extraordinary achievement.And what we said was that every life is precious. Every person is unique. We are a rich enough state that if an individual is elderly and frail, a poor, a defenseless, mentally or physically deficient person, we are a rich enough state to take care of that person. But if you can take care of yourself to be truly human, to participate in this glorious event we call "life," you have to take care of yourself. And as a result of the reduction of your welfare roles, we have many men and women who have never worked that are actively members of the Oklahoma economy. That's very good news.

We together passed Workers' Compensation reform twice. A step in the right direction, not a step all the way. That's always a movable target, but we went from 42nd in cost to about 30th in cost as a result of your reforms in October. I would hope that this legislative session you would take another look and another look at what's necessary to reduce cost because this is a tax. And a small business in Oklahoma, we want to make sure that the worker is properly compensated, but at the same time small business in our state can hire the worker. And that's a balance that we must achieve and can achieve if we're to lift up Oklahoma.

And lastly, on the economic development front we passed "Right to Work" on September 25th. Eight times is a charm. We're open for business.

Oklahoma is also smarter. As a result of the legislature's leadership, we now have four years of English, three years of math, science, and social studies expected of every child in Oklahoma, because we know in order to attract more business and more industry, higher paying jobs to our state, we have to be able to say we have a better educated work force. We also passed charter school and choice legislation. A preliminary step not nearly as far as we should go, but what was the reason for that? What was the method in that? To provide competition to education and in education. If you only have one restaurant in town, the food would be pretty mediocre, and to provide competition to all aspects of education is precisely what this legislature should do, must do, and I would hope that you would examine additional efforts to expand the number of charter school and choice opportunities in Oklahoma.

Oklahoma is smarter, and Oklahoma is also better. We cleaned up the health department scandal. To imagine that individuals were paid for no work in a limited budget state like ours -- we cleaned it up. We've also adopted a number of initiatives together to try to hold families together, to reduce the incidents of divorce, and out-of-wedlock births, and violence against the young and violence against the old and drug abuse. And why is that? What was the method in that? OU and OSU's economics department said, In addition to those things I've mentioned, some of which we have addressed that holds us back, and holds us down, those social indicators are as responsible as anything for the poverty of some of our people. And we together have addressed those issues. I would hope in this legislative session you would readdress them as well.

Never be satisfied with what you have done thus far, but jam on the accelerator and take the next step to continue to make our state a better place. These initiatives -- making us cleaner, smarter, better, richer, all of these initiatives took effort, took bipartisanship, took thought. You've done it. We've done it. We'll continue to do it together, because the people expect it. The people demand it. For us to be truly a successful first world state, we can ask no less of ourselves, and we could do no less for the public.

Today I would like to focus on two pieces of unfinished business. First is tax reform, the need to provide a tax system that will not chill investment, savings, and income; and secondly, to vote on education reform so that we can address the needs for a much better educated work force, a much more highly gifted and educated populous.

Some years ago in this chamber you debated or your predecessors debated, Senator Stipe debated, the issue of changing the motto on our license plate, remember it was "Oklahoma is Okay." And then Representative Kevin Easley stood up in this chamber and he said, "Oklahoma isn't just okay. Oklahoma is great."

That's the kind of vim and vinegar and focus and attention and excellence that I would like to see out of this session of the legislature.

Tax reform, we all know we have to have tax revenue. The fact is to have a highly gifted cadre of teachers at the common education level and the higher education level, we have to pay them good wages. The fact is to have an infrastructure to move product to market we have to have a highly significant and sophisticated infrastructure system, and that costs money. The fact is to be protected, we have to have a correction system, and we have to have a law enforcement system of educated and professional individuals so that we can ensure public peace and safety. That costs money.

All of us know that we have to have a tax regimen that will assure that we could do the things that the public expects us to do. But this session of the legislature is an opportunity piece for you to examine the tax code of Oklahoma and to determine what in that tax code chills investment, savings, and income.

I want to thank the leadership, the Republican leadership as well as the majority leadership, for its willingness to establish a commission. To report back on April 12th, consisting of members of the legislature and private sector individuals, how best to create this tax system, this tax structure, so that Oklahoma can become rich.

But let me say something before you consider that recommendation and even before that committee meets. Nibbling at the edges is unsatisfactory. Treading water is not a public policy. Thinking about change will not bring change. We need to have it. As a result of our having a seven-percent income tax rate in Oklahoma today, we are the 12th highest taxed state in the Union with respect to income taxes.

As a result of that initiative today, we are the highest taxed income taxed state in the region. If we were to do it right, we would move from an income savings and investment system to a consumption system. When you consume, you pay. If we were today to design a system that was fairest and actually was best to ordinary taxpayers, that would be it. Think of it. If we were to abolish the income tax, every teacher in Oklahoma would have a seven-percent salary increase every farm worker, every manufacturing employee, yes, every union employee, everyone in the state who works would have an immediate seven-percent salary increase.

What this system would propose in abolishing the income tax would be to move the tax system from individuals to business. That would be the tax system, to move the tax system from individuals, saving investment, and income to business where the taxes can be passed on. If we were to do it right, we need to recognize and we need to do something very dramatic. We do not have mountains. We do not have a sea coast. This is not a ski capital. We have to do something very different in order for us to attract headquarters, companies to come here and to bring jobs here, to keep headquarters companies here and particularly to keep our retirees from leaving.

Think about that. Seven percent, a couple hundred dollars a month to the average retiree means no night out, no bass boat payment, no gifts for the grandkids. Two hundred dollars a month is a lot of money. And think if we did that. If this legislature sent to a vote of the people an initiative, a referendum, to repeal in its entirety the income tax, the franchise tax, the nuisance tax, the estate tax confiscates family farms and business, the sales tax on groceries is a nuisance to the average person.

If we can address those things, think, that this plan which will bring every Oklahoma family a significant raise in take-home pay, more purchasing power at the check-out stand, and the freedom to spend their money where and when and how they choose would make Oklahoma fundamentally different.

This next month Oklahoma is going to reopen on Broadway. We pick up the newspaper, and we see stories about our athletic prowess and we expect no less to make a national championship or be a national champion in whatever we're in. We expect no less. We'll read when Oklahoma reopens about this grand state and its bountiful natural resources, and we'll take great pride. But how often do we see an article in any newspaper that says, Invest here. Invest in Oklahoma. Move your business to Oklahoma. We don't see that very frequently, but we did last we week. Investors Business Daily last week and let me quote to you a couple of pieces of this Investors Business Daily article. Think of these kinds of articles and what impact they would have on our ability to grow the state if we could do these kinds of things in the area of tax reform.

The article is Investors Business Daily says as follows: "Investors, business owners, and those in the political and policy arenas would do well to pay attention to what's happening in Oklahoma right now. If Governor Frank Keating has his way, the Sooner state will make historic pro-growth improvements in its tax bill." And the writer continues: "A seven-percent rate on personal income, capital gains, dividends, and interest, exceeds the average of most states and serves as a real disincentive for living, working, investing, and risk taking, in the state." The writer continues: "From a supply side perspective, it is always preferable to tax consumption, the end point of the economic process, then to tax the returns on working, saving, investing, and risk taking. Indeed" he writes, "Most studies show that the economies in states without income taxes perform far better than states with income taxes."

And the writer concludes: "If the Keating tax plan does pass the state legislature, it almost certainly will win approval by the voters and that would mark a dramatic improvement for Oklahoma's economy, and competitive position among the states." And listen to this: "Making it a magnet for individuals, businesses, entrepreneurs, and capital."

Think of it.

That is an extraordinary opportunity for us, and I want to particularly thank the President Pro Tempore of the Senate. I want to thank Representative (Clay) Pope, and others, certainly, in the Republican ranks, particularly who are in this debate, that recognize the importance of doing something fundamental to the tax code so that we can have a more prosperous society

The second issue, real school reform. We have put in the money. In the last seven years, we have increased common education spending by thirty percent. We have increased higher education spending by fifty percent. I want to thank Sandy Garrett for her leadership role in making this possible. And also, Senator Kathleen Wilcoxson for her role as well in making education reform a reality.

But reform is not just about money. It's about learning too. Bear with me. Twelve years ago our ACT scores were half a point behind the national average. Today after billions and new school spending, our ACT scores are still a half a point behind the national average. On the national assessment of education progress test, less than one Oklahoma fourth grader in four is rated as proficient in science. Thirty-eight percent of our eighth graders were below basic in science. Just three percent of African-American fourth graders rated proficient in math. Our state criterion reference test that measures knowledge of basic course materials, more than a third of our eighth graders failed history, and just forty-seven percent can pass geography.

As many of you know, we've talked about it before, nearly forty percent of our college graduates, the best and brightest we have, have to be remediated in at least on core subject in college. That is unacceptable. That simply cannot drive forward a prosperity economy.

Now this is in a world when the most basics of jobs increasingly called for greater -- increasingly called for greater knowledge and skills. Seventy percent of the fastest growing jobs in the next decade will require an education beyond high school. Forty percent of all new jobs will require an associates degree. In 1950, eighty percent of the jobs that were available for our people were unskilled. Eighty-five percent are described as skilled. The chairman of IBM said recently that there are 780,000 technology jobs open across America that cannot be filled.

Let's talk about money. An Oklahoma high school graduate can expect to earn an average of $20,000 a year. Add two years of college, it's 23; add a total of four years of college, it's 36, nearly double the income of a high school graduate.

The real world demands more skills, more knowledge, more learning than ever before, and our young people know this. Almost eighty-seven percent of our youngsters plan on some form of advanced education. In the year 2000 a national survey asked students, parents, and teachers about what kids want out of life. This is interesting. Seventy-one percent of the children, the high school students, said they expected to go to college. Parents were less optimistic. Only about fifty percent of parents felt that their children should go to college, but teachers and counselors were even less optimistic. Only a third of them felt that their students should go on to college. Why do our children have a more hopeful view of their future than their parents and their teachers do? Why do we continue to expect less of them than they expect of themselves?

By what right do some critics of learning-based education reform sit here and say, You kids are not capable of excellence.

Now, we made progress in recent years. I'm very proud of what the legislature did in 1999. The four years of English and three years of math, science, and social studies, a charter in choice. This last year's federal education bill will require us, this legislature, to test in grades three to eight, and as I requested of you last year, the federal government will provide funds for us to make sure that summer school and after school tutorials are available so children are not advanced beyond grade level when they're not ready.

Now if the congress and the President, if members of both parties in Washington can work together to address this issue to try to reform the education system, I would hope that we Oklahomans, Democrats and Republicans alike could do no less. In this legislative session we must do it.

The goals of our public education system should be very simple. First, that every child should know how to read and to enjoy reading. Secondly, that every child should have a solid foundation in literature, the social sciences, the biological and physical sciences, history and the arts. That every child should be able to use and to understand math; that every child should know about other cultures and be able to speak a foreign language.

Imagine, if talking to a prospective employer, I was able to say to that prospective employer, every single high school graduate in Oklahoma, every single college graduate in Oklahoma is the best educated in the country. Every one of these criteria apply to those high school and college graduates in Oklahoma. I guarantee you I could make the sale.

The 2002 education agenda is in four parts.

First, we must create a strong testing system in grades three through eight to assure that every child advances only when he or she has mastered basic reading and math skills.

Secondly, we must put in place a stronger remedial education program to help those who lag behind, catch up and succeed.

Third, we must expand the core high school curriculum to four years each of the four core subjects -- English, science, math, and social studies, plus two years of fine arts and foreign language, Four By Four Flex.

Fourth, we must strengthen our outstanding Career Tech system by making it a full partner in public education. Now Four By Four is not instead of Career Tech. It can make Career Tech an equal partner in helping every student learn in every grade. Career Tech -- and we know this, you know this. You worked at this. It has the classrooms, the facilities, the teachers, and the will to ensure core subject education throughout high school. By mirroring Career Tech courses and applied math and science and other fields in the courses already offered by public schools, we'll make both systems stronger by improving learning.

Let me once and for all dispel some myths about Four By Four.

First, does Four By Four mean every individual student has to take advanced calculus. No. It says that every student in every school in Oklahoma has to take four years in each of the four core subjects, which can include applied math and science classes.

Two, is Four By Four a one-size-fits-all curriculum? No. It says four core subject areas, not four specific classes. Schools and students should have the maximum flexibility to create and choose core courses.

Three, will Four By Four destroy Career Tech? No. Absolutely the reverse is the truth. We need Career Tech to make Four By Four succeed. It is time to make our fine Career Tech System an equal partner in education in the public schools.

Four, does each and every child have to take a full load of core subjects every year regardless of ability. I would ask that this Four By Four Flex proposal have a safety valve in it; that if the child, the parent, the principal, the teacher, and the superintendent think a child cannot handle this work, and hopefully this will be very rare, then that individual can opt out, otherwise, every child will opt in to Four By Four Plus.

You know, this January when the new Governor of Oklahoma takes office, I would hope that the new Governor would be able to say this, Welcome to Oklahoma. We're a state with safe communities and clean water. We have clean air and a modern transportation system. We have a state that welcomes business and investment, a state with the best educated work force in the land, and the most people friendly tax system anywhere. We're a state of the future.

It is up to you to give that Governor the tools. It's up to you to give me the tools. Last year when we talked, I asked you to think about legacy. I said that every one of us is term limited, and we are. God will get us. The voters will get us, or the law will. Every one of us is term limited, which means that every single one of you should think legacy. How can we make a dramatic and a dynamic contribution to Oklahoma? We simply cannot breath in oxygen and breath out carbon dioxide. We have to make a commitment as a legislature, as an administration.

Every day that we are here this is not a routine day. This is the day that counts for the future of Oklahoma. This is the week that is crucial to the future of Oklahoma. This is the month that will determine whether or not my grandchildren and your children and your grandchildren stay in Oklahoma.

These are extraordinary, precious, and important days. These things will not happen but for you. The Career Tech System did not happen but for this legislature. The changes we've made in corrections and tax policy and welfare, all of these things happened because of you. They will not happen by accident. They will happen because of you.

And I would encourage every single member, when you look at yourself in the morning in the mirror, you will say, Today I'm going to make a dramatic difference for the better for Oklahoma. This is not a routine day. This is not a routine month. This is not a routine session. This is an opportunity for all of us term limited, some sooner than others, to say to our children and our grandchildren, We turned Oklahoma into the wind. We turned Oklahoma around. Oklahoma is the place people want to go to. We're picking up two congresses. We're not losing one. That's what we want. That's what we need. That's what our children want. That's what our children need. That's what our grandchildren demand.

Seven years ago, I made reference to the friends I had in the House and Senate, and they're still my friends. And seven years later after our service together, I want to conclude with the same words that I used in 1995, to conclude my first State of the State.

I said then "With faith in our people, with trust in our heritage, with hope for a bright and vigorous future, we cannot fail."

Ladies and gentlemen, we cannot fail. This is our moment in the sun. This is our opportunity. This is our unique slice of life that we can make a big difference for the sake of our state, for the sake of our children and our children's children. Let us not fail them.

Let's get to work. Thank you very much.

EDUCATION REFORM ACT - HB 1017

Schedule 1-A

Section 41.29a of Title 62 subsection A states: "In order that the Legislature may guarantee that the increased revenue generated as a result of the tax changes contained in this act shall be appropriated to fund the education reforms provided for in this act, the Office of State Finance shall present as part of the official certification process for each fiscal year an estimate of all revenues which shall accrue to the General Revenue Fund as a result of the tax changes contained in this act. The estimate shall show the increased revenue from personal income taxes, corporate income taxes and sales and use taxes as a result of the provisions of this act separately. The estimate shall further account for changes to such revenue which result from growth or decline in said tax sources due to economic circumstances."

The method of determining the percentage of each source attributable to HB 1017 was set by the State Board of Equalization at its April 26, 1990 meeting. The ratios were established originally by dividing the estimate of revenue to be raised as a result of HB 1017 by the total estimate of revenue of each source at the time of passage of HB 1017. These ratios were updated at the February 19, 1991 meeting to reflect the annualization of what were partial year estimates at the April 26, 1990 meeting of the State Board of Equalization.

SB 826 of the Second Regular Session of the Forty-Fifth Legislature amended Section 41.29a of Title 62 to require that the Office of Accountability to account for and report monthly revenues which accrue to the Education Reform Revolving Fund. The Education Reform Revolving Fund on June 1, 1996 began receiving revenue attributable to the revenue provisions of HB 1017 rather than these revenues first being apportioned to the General Revenue Fund.

Section 40-102. A. 1. Every law enforcement officer who, in the regular course of duty, investigates or receives a report of a traffic accident resulting in injury to or death of a person or total property damage to an apparent extent of Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or more shall prepare a written report of the accident on the standard accident report form supplied by the Department. Such reports shall be forwarded forthwith by the Police Department or other agency to the Department of Public Safety. Reports of accidents that occur after the effective date of this act that reveal the identity, home or employment telephone number or address or other personal information concerning the parties involved in the crash will be confidential for a period of sixty (60) days after the date the report is filed. However, such reports shall be made immediately available to the parties involved in the accident, their legal representatives, their licensed insurance agents, their insurers or insurers to which they have applied for coverage, persons under contract with the insurers to provide claims or underwriting information, prosecutorial authorities, legal newspapers as defined in Section 106 of Title 25 of the Oklahoma Statutes or a radio or television broadcaster.

2. Any person who knowingly violates this section and obtains information made confidential by this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined no more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). Second and subsequent offenses shall carry a penalty of imprisonment in the county jail for not more than thirty (30) days.

B. 1. No public employee or officer shall allow a person to examine or reproduce an accident report or any related investigation report if examination or reproduction of the report is sought for the purpose of making a commercial solicitation. Any person requesting an accident report may be required to state, in writing, under penalty of perjury, that the report will not be examined, reproduced, or otherwise used for commercial solicitation purposes. It shall be unlawful and constitute a misdemeanor for any person to obtain or use information from an accident report or a copy thereof for the purpose of making a commercial solicitation.

2. As used in this subsection:

a. "commercial solicitation" means any attempt to use, or offer for use, information contained in an accident report to solicit any person named in the report, or a relative of such person, or to solicit a professional, business, or commercial relationship. "Commercial solicitation" does not include publication in a legal newspaper, as defined in Section 106 of Title 25 of the Oklahoma Statutes, or broadcast of information by news media for news purposes, or obtaining information for the purpose of verification or settlement of claims by insurance companies, and officer on a form prescribed or used by the Department of Public Safety or local police department.

Because publication by a legal newspaper, broadcast by news media for news purposes, or obtaining information of verification or settlement of claims by insurance companies is not a resale or use of data for commercial purposes, an affidavit shall not be required as a condition for allowing a member of a legal newspaper or broadcast news media, or allowing an agent, or business serving as an agent, to insurance companies, to examine or obtain a copy of an accident report. Any agent or business obtaining information for verification or settlement of claims involving persons named in a report shall secure an affidavit annually from each client stating the information provided to the client shall not be used for commercial solicitation purposes under penalty of law.

4. The Department of Public Safety and local police departments shall include the following or a similar notice upon any copy of an accident report furnished to others: "Warning - State Law. Use of contents for commercial solicitation is unlawful."

C. 1. In addition to any other penalties or remedies provided by law:

a. a violation of this section by a health care professional or health care provider shall be grounds for disciplinary action by the state agency licensing, certifying or registering such professional or provider, and

b. the state agency licensing, certifying or registering such professional or provider may institute an action to enjoin violation or potential violation of this section.

2. As used in this subsection:

a. "health care professional" means any person who offers or provides health care services under a license, certification or registration issued pursuant to Title 59 of the Oklahoma Statutes;, and Reserve force deputy sheriffs may perform duties which encompass a particular act or a series of acts. A sheriff or salaried deputy sheriff shall accompany a reserve force deputy sheriff in the performance of all duties assigned to such reserve force deputy sheriff unless such reserve deputy has completed the required one-hundred-sixty-hour basic police course. Reserve force deputies may receive compensation for their services. The sheriff may pay reserve force deputies for travel expenses pursuant to the State Travel Reimbursement Act. Such reserve deputy sheriffs shall complete a one-hundred-sixty-hour basic police course within twelve (12) months after they have been commissioned to be paid by the county as an individual reserve deputy. The sheriff may pay for additional training courses attended by reserve force deputies.

~~C.~~ D. 1. For counties with a population of two hundred thousand (200,000) or more persons, according to the latest Federal Decennial Census, reserve force deputy sheriffs with at least one hundred sixty (160) hours of training pursuant to Section 3311 of Title 70 of the Oklahoma Statutes shall not serve more than one hundred forty (140) hours per calendar month.

Liability for the conduct of any municipal police officers deputized under the terms and conditions of an interlocal governmental agreement shall remain the responsibility of their municipal employer.

~~E.~~ F. The sheriff may enter into mutual aid agreements pursuant to the Interlocal Cooperation Act, Section 1002 et seq. of Title 74 of the Oklahoma Statutes, to assist or provide law enforcement services to any town, city, and county within this state and the sheriff and deputies shall have law enforcement authority within the jurisdiction making the request. The employing governmental unit shall remain responsible for their officers or deputies pursuant to any mutual aid agreement.

~~F.~~ G. A sheriff of the county may respond to any request from any other jurisdiction within the state for law enforcement assistance in cases of emergency. Salaries, insurance and other benefits shall be provided in the regular manner by the county in which the sheriff, deputy sheriffs and

As used in this subsection, "emergency" means a sudden and unforeseeable occurrence or condition, either as to its onset or its extent, of such severity or magnitude that immediate response or action is necessary to assist law enforcement agencies having jurisdiction at the scene of the emergency to carry out their functions.

MEMORIAL SERVICE IN HONOR OF SENATOR LARRY DICKERSON

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: If you would, I ask for our guests and our members on the floor to stand while the Honor Guard proceeds.

(Honor Guard Proceeds)

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: You may be seated. On behalf of the Senate, we want to welcome the family of Senator Dickerson, our former members of the Senate who served with Senator Dickerson, former Governors, other members of the Executive Branch, and friends of Senator Larry Dickerson to this memorial service. We want this memorial to be an upbeat, joyous occasion because that's how Senator Dickerson would have wanted it and we want it to be a celebration of his life. I'm going to deviate just a little bit from the program and I'm going to ask Senator Ben Brown, former Senator Ben Brown, who served with Senator Dickerson, to offer a prayer. And then we'll have a musical presentation of "Amazing Grace" by Donna Cox.

FORMER SENATOR BROWN: Please bow. Yea though we walk through the valley of the shadow of death, we fear no evil. Thou art with us. This day of death and sorrow, Dear God, we must look outside of ourselves, seeking comfort and peace from each other and from you. We, friends and family, are thankful for Larry Dickerson. We thank you for his life. We are grateful for the example he set. We know it was your gift to us that we were privileged to see and participate with Larry as he served with passion, honor, and integrity as a member of this august body. Sacrificially he gave himself in service to the people of Oklahoma. He loved being a Senator. Through your strength, Oh Lord, and the support of those who loved him and were loved by him, with dignity through the day of his death, he endured his pain and suffering, doing what made him happy, being an effective Senator. Now we pray especially for Senator Larry Dickerson, for his wife, Dee Ann, and their son, John. For his mother Nan and for his father Lawrence, and for his sister and brother-in-law, Nan Lee and Walt, and all the rest of his family, and we pray for members of the Oklahoma Senate and the House of Representatives and for the Governor. And we pray for all the rest of us. May we individually and collectively seek your divine guidance. We ask for knowledge of your will for our lives and the power to carry that out. Please comfort our sorrow. Now we pray that we end our lives in faith and hope without suffering and without reproach. Amen.

(Ms. Donna Cox, Oklahoma Arts Council Artist, sings "Amazing Grace")

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Senator Billy Mickle, the Majority Floor Leader of the Oklahoma State Senate, will now deliver the official eulogy on behalf of the Senate.

SENATOR MICKLE: The essence of a man is like the seasons of our years. There is a beginning and an ending. What a man does between these two seasons define and describe him as he is here on earth and the legacy that he leaves as he departs from his earthly home. Today, as we begin the process of saying goodbye to our friend and colleague, I would ask for a moment of personal privilege to reflect on the times of Senator Larry Dickerson. The first time I remember meeting Larry was the Congressional race of 1976. He came to Durant. He was working for Charly Ward. I was working with Gary Payne. And when it was all over, we had proved two things. Wes, we couldn't pick Congressmen very well. And I knew for darn sure this kid from Poteau was headed straight for a political career. Hopefully, we became a bit wiser in our selection process. And sure enough, Larry, in 1986, began his political career. As we tried to define his political career, what was the one thing, the one group, the one focus he had, it was public employees. For each of you that is a public employee, I can assure you he began his career, he maintained his career, and he ended his career as the champion for the public employees. If it dealt with OPEA, you had two choices. Either talk to him or get ready for a fight. That was the only two choices.

On a personal note, Larry and I accumulated a lot of stories during our fourteen years here in the Senate. Some I will share and some I believe I'll just privately cherish. I think Larry would understand. With Larry Dickerson, you heard phrases like "I won't be back". And some of these are phrases that the members will understand and perhaps others may not, but "I won't be back" -- That meant he didn't get enough tax credits for the coal industry. "I have tickets" -- That means baseball season and you were invited to a baseball game with good seats and good friends. "Let's do the deal" -- That meant Stratton had agreed to a good deal for Larry Dickerson in his district. "Let's rock and roll" -- That meant the deal was better than Stratton knew it was. "A cold and frosty" -- That meant we were going to celebrate the deal that night. "Like a brother" -- Kenneth, that meant you, Kenneth Corn. "The General" -- That meant his friend, Ged Wright. "My friends" -- That meant all those who helped in Houston in those darkest of days. And you know who you are. It meant Brooks Douglass and Mark Snyder, his friends on the Republican side, and there were many. Kelly Haney, for the guy who helped when he really needed help last year.Kelly, You were a great friend to Larry. Dave Herbert, after a long ballgame and I remember you and Senator Dickerson, he in the wheelchair and you were both trying to push that wheelchair up the chairs at Tapwerks. That must have been a long, long ballgame before you got over there. Someone finally went outside and said "the wheelchair access is to the right". "Telling a story" -- When Larry started with telling a story, that meant Glen Johnson was getting ready to squirm, because that was going back to the days of OU fraternity days at Alpha Tau Omega. And where is Mr. President? I will tell you that we have written most of those stories down and will expect your continued cooperation. "They are good people" -- He meant he was referring to his constituents. He was referring to the people in southeast Oklahoma. He was a Senator for the people. Larry Dickerson knew his days would be limited and he compressed as much living into that forty-five years as anyone I've ever met. And in these last three years, that was helped and made possible by the best executive assistant any state Senator could ever ask for, Susan Cochran. The Senate thanks you, Susan, for all that you did for our friend. To his family, Dee Ann, his mom, his dad, and all the others, I can tell you he loved you. And John, your dad loved you dearly and he was so proud of you. To those who would serve as his replacement, and that will happen. That is government. He left a legacy of service where at the end of the day, doing good and doing what's right were the cornerstones of his legacy. The legacy of Larry Dickerson. A good father, a good friend to all, a respecter of people, a believer in doing what's right, a believer in doing the right thing, making a difference, and being a Senator. These are the cornerstones of his legacy. But today as his season of the winter of his life draws to an end, it's time for us to say goodbye to Larry. So today we say goodbye to a husband, a father, and a son. Today we say goodbye to a colleague. Today we say goodbye to a statesman, and today I say goodbye to my friend. Today we say goodbye to Senator Lawrence "Larry" Dickerson, State Senator, March 7th, 2002.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: The Dean of our State Senate, Senator Gene Stipe. Senator Stipe will now make remarks followed by other current colleagues of Senator Dickerson, who desire to do so.

SENATOR STIPE: President, I would like to speak from my desk. Larry Dickerson came on the scene like a meteor or a rocket. And you know, as the days drug on and the recent struggle, he inspired all of us with his courage, his steadfastness, and the realization that he was going to serve until the very end. Imagine he passed five bills the last day he served. It's appropriate that we have this memorial service in keeping with what Shakespeare said, "praising what is lost makes the remembrance dear". It's in that spirit that we gather today to recognize and memorialize the standards that Larry raised the bar on. There's never been a greater demonstration of courage than his constant efforts day after day after day to make sure that he did his job in the way that he would want it done. And those of us who saw him put forth such valiant efforts, setting new standards for courage and valor, that all of us can emulate and all of us can remember the rest of our days. You know, this memory, this memorial service is important because it is a way of having a closure and a healing. And, you know, it's appropriate that we all here let the family know we share their loss, because it's truly our loss, also. It's the State of Oklahoma's loss, because he set a new standard for public service that hopefully we'll emulate from now on. And, you know, valor and courage will always be a standard that will be compared with the demonstration of Larry Dickerson on this floor. I would like to read to you for the benefit of his family a hope I end in prayer that goes like this. Larry had heard this given several times and he especially like it. "When I'm dead, cry for me a little. Think of me sometimes, but not too much. It's not good for you or your family or your children to allow your thoughts to dwell too long on the dead. Think of me now and again as I was in life, at some moment when it's pleasant to recall, but not for long. Leave me in peace as I shall leave you, too, in peace. When you live, let your thoughts be with the living." I think Robert Frost, America's poet laureate, summed up death more appropriately than anything I've seen. He said it's best described in three words. And those are "life goes on". And so it is, as we conclude this service, life will go on. And the public service and the devotion of Larry Dickerson will be one that sets a new standard for Oklahoma to aspire to and to remember. Rest in peace.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Other colleagues? Senator Dunlap representing the Republican Caucus.

SENATOR DUNLAP: Mr. President and members, Dee Ann, John, I want to reflect a few moments personally on Senator Dickerson and probably the best day I had in the past year was when he was on a trip in St. Louis last summer and needed tickets to a Cardinal baseball game. And somehow, through three different cell phone calls, they got to me and said, "We heard you had a fraternity brother that has tickets.". And I said, "Who are they for?". And they said, "Larry Dickerson.". And I said, "Hang on a second, I'll get on the phone." He got back and as he walked down the hall on the fifth floor, which is a great privilege for us to have Larry up there with us, he said, "Jim, I can't thank you enough. That was one of the best days this summer.". I said, "Larry, I'd do that for any friend, and you're a friend.". And it was a great moment for me to be there with Larry and to know him and to get to know him. This past weekend, thanks to Jari Askins over there, we sat in the Kemper Arena and watched the Sooners win both the men's and women's Big XII Championship. And I'll bet anything right now, Senator Dickerson said, if Heaven was this good, I didn't know it was better than the Senate, but it must be. On behalf of our Caucus, you know Larry, Senator Mickle and Senator Dickerson said "Let's roll" and went to the chair. We knew in this Caucus we were about to get our hat handed to us. When Senator Dickerson climbed up there, we knew it was time to get our boots on and get ready for a fight. It was appropriate that the last night that he was here, the last bill he debated was a Republican bill. His desk was the exact opposite of the Republican Floor Leader's desk on the floor. Somebody also said, well, this calls for a more quiet time this session, more non-partisan. "Heck, no," I said "For Larry, we've got to have a couple of fights now.". He's not here, so we'll have to pick a few. And we might just do that for Senator Larry Dickerson. He also said to me one time as I was up there asking some parliamentary procedure and I'll end with this. He said, "Dunlap, I know you all are optimists over there on that isle and you dream big dreams, but I'll tell you this. The Cubs will win the World Series before you ever sit in this chair.". Well, on behalf of my Caucus, Senator Dickerson, go Cubbies.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Further remarks by our colleagues? Senator Keith Leftwich.

SENATOR LEFTWICH: Thank you, Mr. President. It was about thirty years ago that I met Larry Dickerson. He was seventeen and I was nineteen and he was a senior in high school and I was, I think, a freshman in college. And what was amazing to me was how sophisticated that high school senior was. See, he'd already worked for Speaker Albert. And this was about 1973 and he was telling me what a good speaker Tip O'Neal was going to be when Speaker Albert retired. And, of course, I'm sitting there thinking, who is Tip O'Neal and how did he get a name like Tip? This was before CNN and 24-hour news, you know. And what was amazing to me was how far along he already was and those crinkly smiling eyes that befriended you and at the same time checked you out very thoroughly. We had contacts over the years, of course. We came here about the same time, me to the House and him to the Senate. And, of course, then came the time that this last year that I joined him in being diagnosed with what you don't want. And every contact I had with him, despite what he was going through, was his question, how can I help you, Keith? How can I help you? There were dozens of those contacts in the two months that we shared that particular diagnosis. On his last day here, while he was passing all those bills and giving our friends, the Republican side, a little good natured grief, I'll never forget that I had just gotten through with chemo and must have looked a little green that day, was sitting here kind of minding my own business, being very quiet, and he knew something was wrong, of course, then. And he got up from that desk and came over here step-by-step to check on me. But the next day, I had to wonder how much he invested in each of those steps. So to the family, I want to thank you for your sustaining of him and there were so many people just like me that he reached out to. There were so many people in the small group of people that have gone through this and his was so much longer and so sustained. Even when I knew him when he was seventeen, it wasn't long before he first faced this. You know, when you drive on your highways, there is no one in this state more responsible for that huge long overdue highway package than Larry Dickerson. None of us in this room, no Governor, no nobody is more responsible for that. When you think about Larry Dickerson, you know that he not only cared, but he had courage. He had the courage of his convictions. He had the courage to fight, when that was appropriate. He had the grace to reach out when that was appropriate. It was once said of Harry Truman that a ship in harbor is safe, but that's not what ships are for. That's what we should think about Larry Dickerson. He never kept his ship in the harbor.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Further comments? Further comments? Senator Robinson.

SENATOR ROBINSON: Thank you, Mr. President. members, family and friends, well, Larry was a great friend and I miss him. I was sitting up here thinking, I don't have the courage to say anything, but I sort of don't have the courage not to. I'm going to miss him. There is not a brighter mind in this building, and I hate to lose him. I remember going to his house not too long after John Lawrence was around and John Lawrence thought I was Santa Clause, in fact. A pretty good compliment, huh, what a guy. I went to him one day while he was still over here, after he was feeling particularly bad and he looked bad that day and I said "Are you all right, son?", because he's actually the age of my daughter, just slightly older than my daughter. And he said, "Well, Bulldog, I was fixing to feel bad for myself, feel sorry for myself, but I'm about to get over it right now. That's the wrong thing to do.". And for those of you that have been around here, you know, he just did not do that. He did not feel sorry for himself. He locked and loaded every day, came out here with all kinds of courage. I'm going to give you a poem. It's only from me. My mother wrote it.

It's called "Comfort", based on the third chapter of Ecclesiastes. It says, "When any of our loved ones die, we look to Heaven and cry. Why, dear Father, tell me why should my loved one be taken tenderly. Comes his reply, there comes a time to laugh, to cry, a time to live, a time to die, let not your faith be shaken. I overcame the grave so you through Me might overcome it too and light and gladness will shine through all clouds in God's tomorrow." Thank you.

PRESIDENT PRE TEMPORE TAYLOR: Senator Herb Rozell.

SENATOR ROZELL: Thank you. I wasn't going to say anything, but Dee Ann, I feel like I owe it to the family because of the long relationship that we've had. The few things I want to tell you that you probably don't know, most appreciative thing that I can think about is when I had my surgery a couple of years ago. Larry called me two or three times when I was unable to leave the house and he said I'm willing to come up, even though he was not well, he said I'm ready to come up and I'll campaign for you, because I had a campaign going at that same time. Now, what can I do? He called several times, wanting to come up even though he wasn't able and campaign for me, which I appreciated. But our friendship was much deeper than that. I want to tell you something that you probably don't know. His favorite subject was John. He would come in and he would say I want to tell you some more about John. I had to go see the teacher this last week and this is what transpired. He loved the young man but the tale he loved to tell the most, I think the first time that John was playing t-ball. Now, I'm not sure about that, but he was playing ball and he'd been telling him how he was supposed to hit it and how he was supposed to do this, because he was coaching him all the time in how to play ball. Well, John gets up and he takes that home run swing and hits the ball. And he stands there and he tells him, John, run. Well, John did. Only he went to third base instead of first. Remember that, John? You went the wrong way. He doesn't remember it. I don't remember going that way, either. But to the family, we want to say that the years have been wonderful. We will miss him. And thanks for all the friendship and our friendship will continue.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Senator Penny Williams.

SENATOR WILLIAMS: Thank you, Mr. President. John, Dee Ann, Nan, Billy, Kelly, so many of you who understood what it meant to be Larry's friend, I don't really want to speak as a friend today, though I appreciate the fierce friendship Larry Dickerson offered more than any of you could know. Because that friendship didn't just mean words, how are you, thank you very much. It meant fierce loyalty. When he came to my district to campaign and help me get elected to this great Body that he loved so much, he didn't just come alone. He came like Gene Stipe said, like lightening. And he brought with him countless young people, countless friends of his who helped me get back here to you, to this place he loved so well. And Dee Ann, I would understand why you would feel ambivalent about this place, because if he had a wish that he could have expressed, it might have been to die right here in this place. He loved his work. He loved representing his constituents and in no way did I experience that more than when in 1990 and 1989, we tried to pass HB 1017. Remember that? The Education Reform Bill. And it wasn't just education reform, it wasn't just pretty words. It was money. It meant a tax increase to invest in education reform. And so I speak to you today as someone who represents education and caring about education and taking him on or having him take us on as a tough foe, because he was representing his constituents and he did not want to see taxes raised that would pose a hardship for his constituents, unless we were going to get something so great for education. And even then, even after we convinced him this would be value added, we still could not move him to be for the bill until we put in a provision that gave a sales tax on food exemption for people under $20,000 income. And because we did that, he could bring his obstinacy and his toughness of spirit and the people he cared about together with the rest of the people he cared about, so that he did represent his district and all the people in his district, when he helped us pass that bill. And if he hadn't helped us, Senator Shurden, you will remember, because you were one of these. If we had not done that and not given a provision on sales tax on food, we might never to this day have passed that bill. So it is with that that I say farewell to my Senator, Larry Dickerson, and thank you for him.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Further comments? Senator Rabon.

SENATOR RABON: Thank you, Mr. President. members of the Legislature, Dee Ann, John, family members, as Larry's neighbor to the south in Senate District Number 5, I used to often tease him that he better be nice to me, I was the only thing that stood between him and Texas. And you know Larry well enough to know that didn't buy me much. But I recall the first days, the first session as I hit I-40 one Sunday afternoon, come upon a small car in the right lane and there's a guy driving the car that has a "Dickerson for State Senate" on the back of it and some guy's got some food he's eating, he has a bowl of something and eating. And I thought to myself, that's against the law. I don't know who this guy is but he probably shouldn't be eating while he's driving. I pull up and it's Larry Dickerson. So I honk and wave and we had a good conversation that week after that. Larry and I are both the sons of florists, even though I've been called worse from a different variation from that. But it was a great honor to serve with him and he will certainly be missed around here. I had the opportunity Friday night to speak to a large group of honor students in McCurtain County and it was kind of a last minute thing. The Governor was supposed to be there, couldn't, and I got about a forty minute lead time that I was going to be keynote speaker. But after leaving the family on Thursday afternoon and having a large dose of reality, that speech was pretty easy. One of the things that past speakers had always incorporated into their speech, because I had been so often, was what their idea of true leadership was. And we all have our own interpretation of that, but the central theme is to inspire others, is really what leadership is about in some fashion or another. And I told the students there that night and their families and there were about five hundred people, I said, I had a lot of different thinking, opinions about leadership until this past Thursday and then it hit me like a ton of bricks. I interpreted true leadership as having watch my friend struggle out here for three years, come every day, being at work, fighting it. And he never once complained. Never once. And if that can't inspire you, nothing ever will. Larry Dickerson will inspire members who serve in this Body and in this building for years to come. God bless you, Dee Ann and your family.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Senator Robert Kerr.

SENATOR KERR: Dee Ann, John, fellow members, it was in 1976 that I got acquainted with Larry Dickerson. We were delegates to the National Democratic Convention together that year and then later on in life, his early life and much later time in mine, we came to this Body in the same class. He was a great friend. I'm a cancer survivor, also, and when he found out on this floor he was one of the first two or three to my office to give me moral support. He had three passions in life and I told Dee Ann this on the phone the other day. One of them was her, one was John, and the other was being a Democratic Senator in this Body.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Senator Brooks Douglass.

SENATOR DOUGLASS: Thank you, Mr. President, Dee Ann and John. It was always a kind of love/hate relationship sitting over here on this side with Larry. He was one of the first Senators that I got to know when I came to this Body in 1990 and he befriended me. Senator Mickle and Senator Haney and Senator Dickerson and I used to run together quite a bit and that was pretty dangerous. But I tell you what was amazing. One of the amazing things to me and one of the lessons that I learned with him was that I could sit on this side of the aisle and it would – you would literally feel terror when you saw him get up there to preside. And I'd go and I'd sit next to him up there and we'd be swapping stories and we would travel on trips together and swap a lot of stories and have a great time. Yet, every time he got in that chair, I knew that the train was coming. And you just had to watch it. You just had to make sure it didn't run you down. But he was a true friend. I feel like I was one of the members that got to know him very well and really had a close friendship with Larry through the years. I never will forget the night again. It was Senators Mickle, Haney and myself and Larry sitting over at Flips the night before he went down to start his chemo. I remember feeling that night, he was the first one to get up and leave, the three of us sat there and one of us said "I think that was goodbye.". And we really didn't expect him to come back. He was bad. And yet that was three years ago. We've all been through things in our life. We've all had struggles and we've all had things to overcome, but we sat here and watched him for three years even when he had to be tied into his chair so he wouldn't fall out of it, sit there and vote and represent his constituents and I will never, ever forget that about that man. He was amazing. He never, ever gave up. His last day, virtually his last day on earth he spent sitting in that chair over there, still out here doing what he loved. Boy, I hope we can all say that. Thank you.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Senator Charles Ford.

SENATOR FORD: When Larry first came to the Senate, he didn't look upon me as one of the older Senators like he did some of the others in this group. He and my daughter, Karen, were good friends at O.U. since the three musketeers of Nafe, of Dickerson, and the Speaker. So he looked at me as kind of the father of a friend and I was more of a father image rather than a Senator. So he was a little easier on me than he was on some of the others on this side of the aisle for a while. It was Mr. Ford or Senator Ford. But it didn't take him long to settle in. I just wanted President Boren to know that we've not mentioned it, he was also a fan of O.U. And it was so terrible because in front of his office door is my office door and that's where the cutout of Pistol Pete sits during game days. And that bothered him considerably and I believe one day that he and Senator Coffee moved together and kidnapped Pistol Pete. And it was gone for several days. Unfortunately, they must have taken him down to O.U., because he came back and he looked like he had been drinking all weekend, Senator Boren. He had an O.U. scarf on and several other things that indicated he had been cavorting with the other side. But I just wanted you to know, President Boren, that it had not been mentioned here, but maybe outside of baseball and this Senate that O.U. was his next love.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Further comments? Senator Frank Shurden.

SENATOR SHURDEN: Briefly, members, Dee Ann, family, Larry was a friend. We didn't just like Larry, we loved him. I think everybody that knew him loved him. We're going to miss him, his sense of humor, just like they said, when he was tied in that chair, Governor, he still had a joke to tell you. And we all, really, I think everybody was amazed how Larry came these last few years under the stress that he was under and I know he couldn't have done it without your support, Dee Ann. The family is what makes us all, is our backing. Larry lived his life such that I read an article one time about a tombstone somewhere back in the northeast and on that tombstone it says, "Pause, strangers, you walk by as you are now, so once was I. As I am now, you, too, shall be so prepare for death and follow me". Larry lived life to the fullest and it would be great for all of us to live life just like Larry did. He was my friend and I'll miss him.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Further comments? Senator Maxine Horner.

SENATOR HORNER: Thank you, Mr. President, members, and the family. Dee Ann, Senator Dickerson and I shared a great deal, actually before John came, we used to have a great time talking about movies, what were the greatest movies to go and see and we really had a great time talking about movies. Finally, he told me one day after John came and got a little older, he said well, my interest has changed now because I have to concentrate on movies that John and I can go and attend. And what I would like to say to you, never, ever, we thought we were the greatest class to hit the Senate when we came in 1986 until Senator Rozell kind of tempered us down in that meeting that everybody goes to. But Senator Dickerson was very, very passionate about his love for his family and for his son and for this Senate Body. And last, for this Party, Democrat to the bone. So he was very, very strong and very, very positive, very effective, and we are just all blessed and fortunate to even have the opportunity to share a friendship, a relationship, and a working relationship with one of the greatest Senators here in the State of Oklahoma. And I think this Body is blessed, all of us who have had the opportunity to know him and to love him and to respect him. And God bless you and I do share the feelings. I am in your shoes and I know how that feels.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: Further comments? If Senator Kelly Haney would come forward, I'm going to make some brief comments before Senator Haney delivers our closing prayer. Senator Joseph Lieberman recently wrote a book called "In Praise of Public Life". And that's what we've heard today, is praise for a very, very public life, that of Senator Larry Dickerson. His public life was that of a politician. When I say politician, I mean it in the most glorious definition. You've heard that quote from Teddy Roosevelt, "The credit belongs to the man that is actually in the arena, who strives valiantly, who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spends himself in worthy causes. Who at best knows the triumph of high achievement and who, at worst, if he fails, fails while daring greatly so that his place never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory or defeat.". Larry Dickerson was in that arena. Senator Williams alluded to it, but I still remember his House Bill 1017 speech as he and Senator Kerr, Senator Wilkerson, Senator Shurden voted for the emergency clause to put that landmark legislation in the law. He was so eloquent, quoting Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and imagine that. A son of the south, but of the new south, quoting Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on the floor of the Senate. But imagine even more so that twelve years later the speech given on this Senate floor is remembered. Larry Dickerson's life was a public life worthy of praise. Others have alluded to it, but Dee Ann, I'm going to call it straight on. He was complex. There is no getting around it. He could be very stubborn. How's that for understatement? But he was also loyal. And if you hadn't had a confrontation with Larry Dickerson at one time or the other on the floor of this Senate, you weren't here very often. I remember one time after he and I had one of our periodic disagreements, almost the very next day he was defending the Office of President Pro Tempore. But he was one that I could count on to carry out tough assignments and help take to task those outside this Chamber who would threaten its integrity. Just recently he and Senator Easley and Senator Williams sat in on just such a session to defend the integrity of this institution. And it's already been said, but I think it's important that we say it one more time. He loved his family and he loved to tell stories about how he and John were in the doghouse with you, which was often. But in that complexity of Senator Dickerson's, he had many friends and they've been alluded to. You've heard many of them speak today. But no man ever had two greater friends than Senator Mickle and Senator Haney. From the time that Senator Mickle and Senator Haney had called me aside to give me advance notice to prepare me for what Senator Dickerson was going to do, to tell me when I first learned of his illness, to the day that Senator Dickerson went to the hospital, Senator Douglass alluded to when he went to Texas, and then on his last day when they arrived almost simultaneously, Senator Mickle and Senator Haney, between all of that was chauffeuring him around, camaraderie, counseling, and the kind of friendship that is so rare in these days. Senator Mickle and Senator Haney displayed that greatest gift to another person than I have ever known. And on behalf of the family and our colleagues, I want to thank you two. The New Yorker Magazine recently ran a profile of man named Rick Rescorla. He was a war veteran and is featured in the movie that's recently been released, "We Were Solders". Rick Rescorla was a victim in the September 11th World Trade Center tragedy six months ago today. The article profiles how in his last hours alive, he was helping other people get out of one of the towers. And he did this knowing that he was going to die. But he spent his last hours doing what he had done and what he did as a person, so too did Larry Dickerson. It's been alluded to by others, but Larry Dickerson stayed a State Senator until the end knowing that he was dying but doing what he did as a person. His last day alive he was debating on this floor. And in describing Rick Rescorla, one of his friends said, you see, for Rick Rescorla, this was a natural death. They don't die old men. They aren't destined for that, it isn't right for them to do so. It isn't just right for them to become feeble, old and helpless. And that's the way it was for Senator Dickerson. This was his way to go. He wasn't supposed to go any other way. He was supposed to go doing what he loved and doing what he did. Bruce Springsteen wrote a song when one of his lifelong friends left his band to go out on his own. The song was to tell his friend that they would always be friends, that his friend would always be thought of. Springsteen wrote, "Maybe you'll be out there on that bus or train or in some hotel room with the radio on, and you'll hear this song and think of me and all the miles in between". Well, Senator Dickerson didn't write songs, he wrote legislation. But if you live in LeFlore or Sequoyah County, when you drive by Carl Albert's campuses, and you drive on their highways, that used to be two-lane deathtraps, when you see smaller class sizes in the public schools or jobs in the coal mining industry, or for help for state employees or for the elderly services, if you live there, you'll think of Larry Dickerson and you'll think of all the miles in between and what he meant for this state. Senator Kelly Haney will now deliver the closing prayer, at which point I will then introduce the music and the rest of our memorial service today.

SENATOR HANEY: Dee Ann, John, Senator Dickerson was truly one of my very, very best friends and it is a great honor to participate in this memorial. We each have very special and unique memories of Senator Dickerson, sometimes a smile will appear on faces when we remember his humor. When we face difficulties, personal or political challenges, we can reflect on his life and be encouraged to not give up. Senator Dickerson taught us an important lesson about courage and responsibility. The work of the Legislature is often difficult. However, Larry faced that challenge, but his greatest challenge he faced with extraordinary courage and patience. Because of his illness, he could have stayed at home and we would have understood. Instead, he chose to come to the chambers to fulfill his responsibilities to his constituents and ultimately to all Oklahomans. His legislative achievements are significant and there are many, particularly on behalf of Oklahoma working families. He set a great example for his son John, whom he loved very much. In fact, he set a great example for all of us. The author of the book of Ecclesiastes in the Old Testament was a man of great insight. Throughout the centuries, his wisdom speaks to us in a very most appropriate way. I take selected readings, "To everything there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven, a time to be born and a time to die.", "I know that there is no good in them but for a man to rejoice and to do good in his life.". Senator Larry Dickerson. A man of extraordinary courage did good in his life. We express our sincere appreciation to the Dickerson family for sharing Larry with the people of Oklahoma. Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the life of Senator Larry Dickerson. We are mindful of the lessons of love, courage, and responsibility you have taught us through his life. He shall be missed. As colleagues and friends, we unite our prayers to offer love and care to his wonderful family. May your grace and love continue to be with us now and forever. In His holy name we pray, Amen.

PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE TAYLOR: We started this out by saying it was going to be joyous and we wanted it to be the way Senator Dickerson would want to be remembered. I'm going to ask everyone to stand and join in with the musical tribute to Senator Dickerson, with songs that he loved.

(Singing of "Oklahoma" and "Take Me Out to the Ballgame")

If you would be seated, please. We're going to have the final roll call for our colleague, which would be done by his son, John. The Clerk will activate the roll. The Honor Guard will now take our colleague from the Chamber. If you would stand, please.

Every corporation, joint stock company, limited copartnership, partnership or other person now or hereafter claiming or exercising the right to produce natural gas within the limits of this state, as owner, lessee, licensee, or by virtue of any other right or claim is hereby prohibited from producing from any gas well an amount in excess of that prescribed by the ~~Oklahoma~~ Corporation Commission.

B. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Corporation Commission shall ~~have the power and authority~~ be authorized to promulgate ~~production~~ rules ~~from time to time~~ for all natural gas wells producing within this state, or for such categories of natural gas wells producing within this state as the Commission may deem appropriate, establishing levels of production upon a finding that the levels of production so established will be sufficient to prevent waste as the same is defined in Section 86.3 of this title and will protect the interests of the public against production of the natural gas reserves underlying this state in amounts in excess of the reasonable market demand therefor.

C. For ~~thirty (30) months~~ thirty-six (36) months from the date of first production, a discovery gas well, as defined in this subsection, subject to the provisions of this section, shall have a production allowable which shall be the greater of one thousand three hundred (1,300) MCFD or ~~sixty-five percent (65%)~~ fifty-five percent (55%)of the absolute open flow (AOF) as specified by the Corporation Commission. Such discovery well allowable shall not be available for any discovery gas well wherein two (2) or more separate common sources of supply are commingled and one (1) common source of supply would not qualify a new gas well as a discovery gas well, as defined in this section.

Drilling and spacing units which are downspaced after June 1, 1997, shall not qualify for the discovery gas well allowable.

For purposes of this subsection, "discovery gas well" shall mean a new gas well, which is not an off-pattern well, which is the first well completed in a common source of supply within a drilling and spacing unit and is at least one (1) mile from all existing gas wells which are completed in the same common source of supply. In the absence of spacing, a discovery well shall be the first well in the governmental section completed in a common source of supply, provided that the discovery gas well shall not be drilled closer than one thousand three hundred twenty (1,320) feet from the boundaries of the governmental section and is at least one (1) mile from all existing gas wells which are completed in the same common source of supply.

D. The authority granted to the Corporation Commission by this section is in addition to that provided for in Section 239 of this title.

E. The Corporation Commission may, for good cause shown under the exigencies of a particular case and after appropriate notice and hearing, establish a production level different from the levels provided by this section ~~or established by rule promulgated by the Corporation Commission~~.

F. Production rules promulgated by the Corporation Commission pursuant to the authority granted in subsection B of this section shall be promulgated pursuant to Article I of the Administrative Procedures Act, Sections 250.3 through 308.2 of Title 75 of the Oklahoma Statutes, including the provisions contained therein prescribing the required notice and hearing for rulemaking.

G. The provisions of subsection A of this section and production rules promulgated by the Corporation Commission pursuant to subsection B of this section shall not supersede or invalidate the provisions of any rule or order of the Corporation Commission establishing production levels for natural gas from a well which has been expressly authorized by Corporation Commission order to produce at a specified rate applicable only to that well where the basis for the rate established is based upon a determination by the Corporation Commission that reasonable cause exists to expect that production below the rate would damage the well and cause waste, a so-called "hardship well", or establishing field rules under Section 239 of this title governing the taking of gas from a specified common source of supply or field.

"SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 74 O.S. 2001, Section 918, is amended to read as follows:

Section 918.

(1) Except as otherwise provided for in this section and Section 42 of this act, a member may elect to have the retirement benefit paid under one of the options provided in this section in lieu of having it paid in the form stated in Section 915 of this title. The election of an option must be made at any time prior to retirement or prior to termination of service with a vested benefit. A specific person must be designated as joint annuitant at the time of election of Option A or B. Election of an option is available with respect to the vested benefit. All retirement benefits of a married member shall be paid pursuant to the Option A plan as provided for in this section unless the spouse of a member consents in writing for the benefits to be paid as provided for in Section 915 of this title or pursuant to Option B or Option C as provided for in this section.

(2) The amount of retirement benefit payable under an option shall be based on the age and sex of the member and the age and sex of the joint annuitant, and shall be such amount as to be the actuarial equivalent of the retirement benefit otherwise payable under Section 915 of this title.

(3) The retirement options are:

Option A. Joint and one-half to joint annuitant survivor. A reduced retirement benefit is payable to the retirant during his or her lifetime with one-half of that amount continued to the joint annuitant during such joint annuitant's remaining lifetime, if any, after the death of the retirant. If the named joint annuitant dies at any time after the member's retirement date, but before the death of the retirant, the retirant shall return to the retirement benefit, including any post retirement benefit increases the member would have received had the member not selected Option A. The benefit shall be determined at the date of death of the named joint annuitant or July 1, 1994, whichever is later. This increase shall become effective the first day of the month following the date of death of the named joint annuitant or July 1, 1994, whichever is later, and shall be payable for the retirant's remaining lifetime. The retirant shall notify the Oklahoma Public Employees Retirement System of the death of the named joint annuitant in writing. In the absence of the written notice being filed by the member notifying the Oklahoma Public Employees Retirement System of the death of the named joint annuitant within six (6) months of the date of death, nothing in this subsection shall require the Oklahoma Public Employees Retirement System to pay more than six (6) months of retrospective benefits increase.

Option B. Joint and survivor. A reduced retirement benefit is payable to the retirant during his or her lifetime with that amount continued to the joint annuitant during the joint annuitant's remaining lifetime, if any, after the death of the retirant. If the named joint annuitant dies at any time after the member's retirement date, but before the death of the retirant, the retirant shall return to the retirement benefit, including any post retirement benefit increases the member would have received had the member not selected Option B. The benefit shall be determined at the date of death of the named joint annuitant or July 1, 1994, whichever is later. This increase shall become effective the first day of the month following the date of death of the named joint annuitant or July 1, 1994, whichever is later, and shall be payable for the retirant's remaining lifetime. The retirant shall notify the Oklahoma Public Employees Retirement System of the death of the named joint annuitant in writing. In the absence of such written notice being filed by the member notifying the Oklahoma Public Employees Retirement System of the death of the named joint annuitant within six (6) months of the date of death, nothing in this subsection shall require the Oklahoma Public Employees Retirement System to pay more than six (6) months of retrospective benefits increase.

Option C. Life with ten (10) years certain. A reduced retirement benefit is payable to the retirant during his or her lifetime and if the retirant dies within the ten-year certain period, measured from the commencement of retirement benefits payments, such payments will be continued to the beneficiary during the balance of the ten-year certain period.

(4) If the selection of a joint annuitant would violate the distribution requirements contained in Section 42 of this act, such selection will not be permitted.

(5) If a member who is eligible to retire in accordance with the provisions of Section 914 of this title but is not actually retired or is eligible to vest or has elected a vested benefit dies, the member's spouse, ~~if the spouse is beneficiary for the member's accumulated contributions,~~ may elect to receive benefits as a joint annuitant under Option B calculated as if the member retired on the date of death, in lieu of receiving the member's accumulated contributions. However, no benefits shall be payable before the date the deceased member would have met the requirements for a normal or early retirement. ~~Provided further, that if an active member has elected an option under this section prior to the member's death, the member's spouse, if the spouse is the member's beneficiary, may elect to receive benefits as a joint annuitant under the elected option.~~ The provisions of this paragraph shall be applicable to a surviving spouse of a deceased member who died prior to the effective date of this act, but only if no benefits or distributions have been previously paid.

(6) Benefits payable to a joint annuitant shall accrue from the first day of the month following the death of a member or retirant and, in the case of Option A and Option B, shall end on the last day of the month in which the joint annuitant dies." and by renumbering subsequent sections, which amendment was declared adopted.

STATE OF OKLAHOMA
OFFICE OF STATE FINANCE

February 19, 2002

State Board of Equalization
State Capitol Building
Oklahoma City, OK 73105

Members of the Board:

The Constitution of the State of Oklahoma, Article X, Section 23, as last amended April 30, 1985, provides in pertinent part:

...Not more than forty-five (45) days or less than thirty-five (35) days prior to the convening of each regular session of the Legislature, the State Board of Equalization shall certify the total amount of revenue which accrued during the last preceding fiscal year to the General Revenue Fund and to each special Revenue Fund appropriated directly by the Legislature, and further certify amounts available for appropriation which shall be based on a determination, in accordance with the procedure hereinafter provided, of the revenues to be received by the state under the laws in effect at the time such determination is made, for the next ensuing fiscal year, showing separately the revenue to accrue to the credit of each such fund, appropriated directly by the Legislature.

Amounts certified as available for appropriation from each fund, as herein before provided shall be ninety-five percent (95%) of an itemized estimate made by the State Board of Equalization, which shall include all sources of revenue to each fund for the next ensuing fiscal year, provided, however, appropriated federal funds shall be certified for the full amount of the estimate. Said estimate shall consider any increase or decline in revenues that would result from predictable changes in the economy...

The following report has been prepared in accordance with the procedures set forth above, and is respectfully, submitted for your consideration.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Tom Daxon
Director of State Finance

EDUCATION REFORM ACT - HB 1017

Schedule 1-A

Section 41.29a of Title 62 subsection A states: "In order that the Legislature may guarantee that the increased revenue generated as a result of the tax changes contained in this act shall be appropriated to fund the education reforms provided for in this act, the Office of State Finance shall present as part of the official certification process for each fiscal year an estimate of all revenues which shall accrue to the General Revenue Fund as a result of the tax changes contained in this act. The estimate shall show the increased revenue from personal income taxes, corporate income taxes and sales and use taxes as a result of the provisions of this act separately. The estimate shall further account for changes to such revenue which result from growth or decline in said tax sources due to economic circumstances."

The method of determining the percentage of each source attributable to HB 1017 was set by the State Board of Equalization at its April 26, 1990 meeting. The ratios were established originally by dividing the estimate of revenue to be raised as a result of HB 1017 by the total estimate of revenue of each source at the time of passage of HB 1017. These ratios were updated at the February 19, 1991 meeting to reflect the annualization of what were partial year estimates at the April 26, 1990 meeting of the State Board of Equalization.

SB 826 of the Second Regular Session of the Forty-Fifth Legislature amended Section 41.29a of Title 62 to require that the Office of Accountability to account for and report monthly revenues which accrue to the Education Reform Revolving Fund. The Education Reform Revolving Fund on June 1, 1996 began receiving revenue attributable to the revenue provisions of HB 1017 rather than these revenues first being apportioned to the General Revenue Fund.

SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 68 O.S. 2001, Section 2823, is amended to read as follows:

Section 2823.

A. For each fiscal year, the cost of the comprehensive program of visual inspections for real property and the cost of physical inspections of personal property shall be paid by appropriate warrants from those who receive the revenues of the mill rates levied on the property of the county as prescribed by this section. School districts are hereby authorized to pay such costs from revenues accruing to their building funds. The county assessor shall prepare a budget for the comprehensive program of visual inspections for real property and the cost of physical inspections of personal property and file such budget with the county excise board or county budget board.

B. The county excise board or county budget board shall apportion such cost among the various recipients of revenues from the mill rates levied, including the county, all cities and towns, all school districts, all sinking funds of such recipients, and all jurisdictions specified in subsection D of this section, in the ratio which each recipient's total tax collection authorized from its mill rates levied for the preceding year bears to the total tax collection authorized of all recipients from all their mill rates levied for the preceding year. The cost shall include only those expenses directly attributable to the visual inspection program and those expenses directly attributable to physical inspections of personal property and shall not include any expenses of the office of the county assessor which, in the judgment of the county excise board or county budget board, are expenses of county assessor's office which would exist in the absence of such program or in the absence of physical inspection of personal property. Expenses that are attributable both to the visual inspection program and physical inspection of personal property, and which would exist in the absence of such program or inspection, including but not limited to salaries, employee benefits, office supplies and equipment, may be prorated; provided, no portion of the salary of the county assessor shall be included in such costs.

C. Upon receipt of the billing statement provided for in subsections D and E of this section by each such recipient, the mill rates to be established by the board for each such recipient for the current year shall include and be based upon such amounts and shall constitute an appropriation of such amounts to the county assessor for expenditure for the expenses of administering the visual inspection program each year. In the case of a sinking fund of a recipient, if, after approving its budget, the governing body of a recipient notifies the board in writing that there are no funds appropriated to pay the amount of the billing statement for such sinking fund, such notice shall constitute conclusive evidence of a financial obligation of the recipient as it relates to such sinking fund. The board may seek a judgment for the amount of such obligation and court costs in the district court of the county in which the board is located.

D. The county assessor shall render a statement to each of the jurisdictions within the county which receive revenue from an ad valorem mill rate. Such statement shall include the following information:

1. The current fiscal year in which the charge has been incorporated in the jurisdiction's budget;

2. All jurisdictions receiving statements from the county assessor, the mill rate for each in the previous year, and the proportion of each to the combined mill rates of all jurisdictions within the county for the previous year. The proportions specified in this paragraph should equal a total of one hundred percent (100%);

3. The charge for the entity receiving the statement as well as the charge for each jurisdiction of the county based upon the proportions specified in paragraph 2 of this subsection. The total of all current year charges for all county jurisdictions should equal the total visual inspection program budget for the current fiscal year;

4. The amount of the total budget for the office of the county assessor and the percentage that visual inspection program expenses are of such total budget; and

5. A copy of the County Budget Visual Inspection Account and a brief description of the areas to be visually inspected for the current fiscal year, consistent with the plan on file with the Oklahoma Tax Commission pursuant to Section 2820 of this title.

E. In any county wherein any jurisdiction's budget and mill rates are not subject to review and approval by the county excise board, the county assessor shall nevertheless include any such jurisdiction in the calculations required under subsection A of this section. The county assessor shall also render a billing statement to any such jurisdiction showing the charge for the current fiscal year due from the jurisdiction. Such billing statement shall also show all the information specified in subsection D of this section. Such billing statement shall clearly indicate that the charge payable by the jurisdiction is due and payable by December 31 of the current fiscal year." and by renumbering subsequent sections, which amendment was declared adopted.

SECTION 25. AMENDATORY 36 O.S. 2001, Section 2007, is amended to read as follows:

Section 2007.

A. The Association shall:

1. Be obligated to pay the covered claims existing prior to the determination of insolvency if the claims arise within thirty (30) days after the determination of insolvency, or before the policy expiration date if less than thirty (30) days after the determination, or before the insured replaces the policy or causes its cancellation, if he does so within thirty (30) days of the determination. Such obligation shall be satisfied by paying to the claimant an amount as follows:

a. the full amount of a covered claim for benefits under a workers' compensation insurance coverage,

b. an amount not exceeding Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) per policy for a covered claim for the return of unearned premium, and

c. an amount not exceeding One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000.00) per claimant for all other covered claims.

In no event shall the Association be obligated to pay a claimant an amount in excess of the obligation of the insolvent insurer under the policy or coverage from which the claim arises or in excess of the limits of the Association's obligation existing on the date on which the order of liquidation is filed with the court clerk;

2. Be deemed the insurer to the extent of the obligations on covered claims and to that extent shall have all rights, duties and obligations of the insolvent insurer as if the insurer had not become insolvent;

3. Allocate claims paid and expenses incurred among the three accounts set out in Section 2005 of this title separately, and assess member insurers separately for each account amounts necessary to pay the obligations of the Association under this section subsequent to a member insurer becoming an insolvent insurer, the expenses of handling covered claims subsequent to an insolvency, the cost of examinations under Section 2013 of this title, and other expenses authorized by the Oklahoma Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association Act, Sections 2001 et seq. of this title. The assessments of each member insurer shall be in the proportion that the net direct written premiums of the member insurer for the calendar year preceding the assessment on the kinds of insurance in the account bear to the net direct written premiums of all participating insurers for the calendar year preceding the assessment on the kinds of insurance in the account. Each member insurer shall be notified in writing of the assessment not later than thirty (30) days before it is due. No member insurer may be assessed in any year an amount greater than two percent (2%) of the net direct written premiums of that member or one percent (1%) of that member insurer's surplus as regards policyholders for the calendar year preceding the assessment on the kinds of insurance in the account, whichever is less. If the maximum assessment, together with the other assets of the Association, does not provide in any one (1) year in any account an amount sufficient to make all necessary payments from that account, the funds available may be prorated and the unpaid portion shall be paid as soon thereafter as funds become available. The Association shall pay claims in any order which it deems reasonable, including the payment of claims as the claims are received from the claimants or in groups or categories of claims. The Association may exempt or defer, in whole or in part, the assessment of any member insurer, if the assessment would cause the member insurer's financial statement to reflect amounts of capital or surplus less than the minimum amounts required for a certificate of authority by any jurisdiction in which the member insurer is authorized to transact insurance. During the period of deferment, no dividends shall be paid to shareholders or policyholders. Deferred assessments shall be paid when such payments will not reduce capital or surplus below required minimums. Such payments may be refunded to those companies receiving larger assessments by virtue of such deferment, or, at the election of any such company credited against future assessments. Each member insurer serving as a servicing facility may set off against any assessment authorized payments made on covered claims and expenses incurred in the payment of such covered claims by such member insurer if they are chargeable to the account for which the assessment is made. An insurer whose gross annual property and casualty premiums written in this state, according to its most recent annual statement filed with the Oklahoma Insurance Department, exceed twenty-five percent (25%) of such insurer's total gross annual property and casualty premiums written, according to its most recent annual statement filed with the Oklahoma Insurance Department, shall be exempt from any and all assessments pursuant to the Oklahoma Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association Act;

4. Investigate claims brought against the Association and adjust, compromise, settle and pay covered claims to the extent of the obligation of the Association and deny all other claims and may review settlements, releases and judgments on covered claims to which the insolvent insurer or its insureds were parties to determine the extent to which such settlements, releases and judgments may be properly contested;

5. Notify such persons as the Commissioner directs as provided for in Section 2009 of this title;

6. Handle claims through employees or through one or more insurers or other persons incorporated and resident in the State of Oklahoma designated as servicing facilities. Designation of a servicing facility is subject to approval of the Commissioner, but such designation may be declined by a member insurer;

7. Reimburse each servicing facility for obligations of the Association paid by the facility and for reasonable expenses incurred by the facility while handling claims on behalf of the Association and pay the other expenses of the Association authorized by the Oklahoma Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association Act; and

8. Have standing to appear before any court of this state which has jurisdiction over an impaired or insolvent insurer for whom the Association is or may become obligated pursuant to the provisions of the Oklahoma Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association Act. Such standing shall extend to all matters germane to the powers and duties of the Association including, but not limited to, proposals for rehabilitation, acquisition, merger, reinsuring, or guaranteeing the covered policies of the impaired or insolvent insurer, and the determination of covered policies and contractual obligations of the impaired or insolvent insurer.

B. The Association may:

1. Employ or retain such persons as are necessary to handle claims and perform other duties of the Association;

2. Borrow funds necessary to effect the purposes of the Oklahoma Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association Act in accordance with the plan of operation;

3. Sue or be sued;

4. Negotiate and become a party to such contracts as are necessary to carry out the purpose of the Oklahoma Property and Casually Insurance Guaranty Association Act;

5. BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. The Secretary of State shall refer to the people for their approval or rejection, as and in the manner provided by law, the following proposed amendment to Section 9 of Article X of the Constitution of the State of Oklahoma to read as follows:

~~(a)~~ A. Except as herein otherwise provided, the total taxes for all purposes on an ad valorem basis shall not exceed, in any taxable year, fifteen (15) mills on the dollar, no less than five (5) mills of which is hereby apportioned for school district purposes, the remainder to be apportioned between county, city, town and school district, by the County Excise Board, until such time as a regular apportionment thereof is otherwise provided for by the Legislature.

~~No~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection H of this section, no ad valorem tax shall be levied for State purposes, nor shall any part of the proceeds of any ad valorem tax levy upon any kind of property in this State be used for State purposes.

~~(b)~~ B. A tax of four (4) mills on the dollar valuation of all taxable property in the county shall be levied annually in each county of the State for school purposes and, until otherwise provided by law, the proceeds thereof shall be apportioned to the school districts of the county by the County Treasurer on the basis of the legal average daily attendance for the preceding school year as certified by the State Board of Education. Provided that in case a school district lies in more than one county, such district shall be deemed a school district of the county having the greater part of the area comprising such district, unless otherwise provided by law, and shall be entitled to participate in the proceeds of such tax on the same basis as districts lying wholly within such county but revenue from such tax on the assessed valuation of the district in other counties shall, when collected, be transmitted to the County Treasurer of such county having the greater part of the area comprising the district, unless otherwise provided by law, and be apportioned as hereinbefore provided for the proceeds of such tax on the assessed valuation of such county. Not to exceed seventy-five per centum (75%) of the amount received by a school district from the proceeds of such county levy in any year shall be required to finance the State guaranteed program of such district.

~~(c)~~ C. Upon certification of a need therefor by the board of education of any school district an additional tax of not to exceed fifteen (15) mills on the dollar valuation of all taxable property in the district shall be levied for the benefit of the schools of such district.

~~(d)~~ D. In addition to the levies hereinbefore authorized, any school district may make an emergency levy for the benefit of the schools of such district, in an amount not to exceed five (5) mills on the dollar valuation of the taxable property in such district when approved by a majority of the electors of the district voting on the question at an election called for such purpose. This emergency levy shall provide only sufficient additional revenue to meet the needs of the district each fiscal year as determined by the board of such district and must be approved by a majority of the electors voting on ~~said~~ the question at such an election for each fiscal year.

~~(d-1)~~ E. In addition to the levies hereinbefore authorized, any school district may make a local support levy for the benefit of the schools of such district, in an amount not to exceed ten (10) mills on the dollar valuation of the taxable property in such district, when approved by a majority of the ad valorem taxpaying voters voting on ~~said~~ the question at an election for each fiscal year called for such purposes. If the question is approved, the levies, in the amount approved as required by this section, shall be made each fiscal year thereafter until such time as a majority of the electors of the district voting on the question rescind the making of the levy permanent. An election on such question shall be held at such time as a petition is signed by ten percent (10%) of the school district electors or a recommendation by the board of education of the school district is made asking that the levies be made each fiscal year.

~~(e)~~ G. The amount of revenue from school district ad valorem taxes levied under ~~(a)~~ subsections A and ~~(c)~~ C of this ~~Section~~ section which any school district may be required to use to finance its State guaranteed program shall not be in excess of its share, based upon its

No part of the proceeds from any ad valorem levy for emergency levy and local support levy under ~~(d)~~ subsections D and ~~(d-1)~~ E of this ~~Section~~ section shall be required to finance the State guaranteed program of such district.

Nothing in the amendments to the Constitution incorporated herein shall be construed to amend, alter or supersede the present application of Sections 1 and 2 of Article XII-A~~,~~ ~~Sections 1 and 2~~ of the Oklahoma Constitution.

H. April 24, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 1270 by Herbert of the Senate and Corn of the House

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 1270 which places a county commissioner appointed by the Association of County Commissioners, or designee, on the Oklahoma Tourism Promotion Advisory Committee. This Committee is currently comprised of individuals associated with the tourism industry, primarily from the private sector or those public members with a state-wide perspective. Absent a compelling need to extend Committee membership to county government, the addition of a public employee member whose interests are wholly parochial is inappropriate.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

Advising his approval May 6, 2002, of Enrolled SBs 840, 879, 897, 952, 963, 991, 995, 1232, 1243, 1265, 1299, 1314, 1355, 1371, 1407, 1434, 1453, 1623, and 1649 and veto of SB 1359.

The veto message reads as follows:

May 6, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 1359 by Dickerson and Herbert of the Senate and Miller (Ray) of the House

By the Governor of the State of Oklahoma
/s/ Frank Keating

May 8, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 1379 by Dickerson and Herbert of the Senate and Askins and Davis of the House

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 1379, which creates the State Classification Task Force to review both agency proposals to add unclassified positions and positions currently in the unclassified service. This Task Force is unnecessary as agencies must already undergo review in seeking to add unclassified positions. Furthermore, it would be an impediment to the flexibility which agencies now enjoy, which is particularly important in these tight budget times.

The veto messages read as follows:

May 30, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 412 by Dunlap of the Senate and Erwin et al of the House

By the Governor of the State of Oklahoma
/s/ Frank Keating

May 30, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 1230 by Ford of the Senate and Vaughn of the House

By the Governor of the State of Oklahoma
/s/ Frank Keating

May 30, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 1364 by Monson of the Senate and Askins, Cox and Hefner of the House

By the Governor of the State of Oklahoma
/s/ Frank Keating

June 4, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 873 by Monson and Williams of the Senate and Pope (Clay) of the House

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 873 because the operative language in this bill is duplicated in Senate Bill 1368 which I have signed today.

By the Governor of the State of Oklahoma
/s/ Frank Keating

June 4, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 1323 by Easley and Littlefield of the Senate and Hutchison of the House

By the Governor of the State of Oklahoma
/s/ Frank Keating

June 5, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 701 by Leftwich and Wilcoxson of the Senate and McCarter, Roberts and Braddock of the House

By the Governor of the State of Oklahoma
/s/ Frank Keating

June 5, 2002

To the Honorable President Pro Tempore
and Members of the Oklahoma Senate
Second Session, Forty-eighth Oklahoma Legislature

Enrolled SB 987 by Shurden of the Senate and Erwin, Perry and Sullivan of the House

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 987, which provides for both chemical and surgical castration of those who commit rape or forcible sodomy with certain aggravating circumstances present. This bill provides an unnecessary and arguably unconstitutional punishment of surgical castration for second offenses of the type covered by this bill. A more effective way of dealing with these offenders is to make certain they remain incarcerated. For this reason, I have today signed Senate Bill 1425 which provides for life without parole for the second offense for rape, molestation and certain other sexual offenses.

Enrolled SB 1236 by Morgan of the Senate and Roberts and Nance of the House

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 1236, which would allow a member of the Oklahoma Law Enforcement Retirement System who agrees to terminate employment and retire as a member of the System and make an election to receive distributions from the System to then return to employment as an agency director of a participating agency. This return to employment is contrary to the intent of the retirement plan that allows members to receive retirement in exchange for an agreement to retire at the end of the five year term of the Plan.

Enrolled SB 1378 by Morgan of the Senate and Ingmire, Wells and Nance of the House

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 1378, which exempts the Board of Regents for the Oklahoma Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges from the Bond Oversight process. Eliminating this oversight invites excessive fees and may lead to abusive transactions. It would also be a step backwards in Oklahoma's efforts to convince the bond markets that we have control of our borrowing processes.

Enrolled SB 914 by Capps of the Senate and Covey of the House

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 914, which authorizes the Oklahoma Space Industry Development Authority to hire an attorney. The Attorney General's Office is required by law to represent state agencies, boards and commissions. Without a showing that that Office is incapable of providing legal service, agencies, particularly of this size, should not be given authority to hire private counsel.

Enrolled SB 1583 by Wilkerson and Smith of the Senate and Askins and Ingmire of the House

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 1583, which gives the Criminal Justice Resource Center the authority to create a pilot project designed to integrate criminal justice entities within several jurisdictions statewide. The Criminal Justice Information Systems Task Force has been working on this issue for many years and has developed a workable plan. Allowing the Criminal Justice Resource Center to develop a demonstration program outside the state plan is not an effective way to use precious management information system resources.
