MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

Attached herewith are the Articles of Impeachment and on behalf of the House of Representatives, through its Board of Managers, we the Board the Managers do hereby request that the Articles of Impeachment be laid before the Honorable Senate and presented therewith.

Board of Managers
By Frank Davis, Chairman

Respectfully,
Larry Warden, Chief Clerk

ARTICLES OF IMPEACHMENT

Carroll Fisher was elected to the Office of Insurance Commissioner for the State of Oklahoma in 1998 and again in 2002, and he took the following oath of office required by Section 1 of Article XV of the Oklahoma Constitution:

"I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support, obey, and defend the Constitution of the United States, and the Constitution of the State of Oklahoma, and that I will not, knowingly, receive, directly or indirectly, any money or other valuable thing, for the performance or nonperformance of any act or duty pertaining to my office, other than the compensation allowed by law; I further swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully discharge my duties as _____ to the best of my ability."

While in office as Insurance Commissioner of the State of Oklahoma, Carroll Fisher, unmindful of his oath of office, and in violation of the Constitution and the laws of this state, has been guilty of willful neglect of duty, incompetency, and corruption in office. The House of Representatives hereby exhibits and presents to the Honorable Senate of the State of Oklahoma, Articles of Impeachment against Carroll Fisher, Insurance Commissioner, for cause, and upon grounds, and in particular as follows, to wit:

ARTICLE I

That Carroll Fisher, while acting in his official capacity as Insurance Commissioner, initiated and coordinated an official program of his office called "Continuing Education Day" a/k/a "C.E. Day" in which monies were solicited and collected from so-called sponsors and persons desiring to attend such program. No receipts were given for the monies collected pursuant to the C.E. Day program. Instead of depositing the monies collected with the State Treasurer, as required by state law, the monies were deposited into multiple personal bank accounts. The deposit of such monies into personal bank accounts is in violation of state law. Specifically, Section 7.1 of Title 62 of the Oklahoma Statutes provides in part:

“There is hereby created in the official depository in the State Treasury an agency clearing account for each state officer, department, board, commission, institution or agency of the state...It shall be the duty of each state agency, officer or employee, to deposit in the agency clearing account...all monies of every kind...”

In addition, at the time of the events set forth in this allegation, Section 341 of Title 21 of the Oklahoma Statutes provided in part as follows:

“Every public officer of the state...receiving any money or other thing of value on behalf of or for account of this state or any department of the government of this state...who...willfully omits or refuses to pay over to the state...any money or interest, profit or perquisites arising therefrom, received by him under any duty imposed by law so to pay over the same shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a felony...”

The actions and conduct of Insurance Commissioner Carroll Fisher in the mishandling of the C.E. Day program monies demonstrate his inability to manage the duties of the office of State Insurance Commissioner and therefore constitute the impeachable offenses of willful neglect of duty and incompetency.

ARTICLE II

That Carroll Fisher, while acting in his official capacity as Insurance Commissioner, improperly solicited monies for a charity he established from entities he regulates. This conduct exhibits a continuing pattern of activity which constitutes the impeachable offenses of incompetency and corruption in office.

ARTICLE III

That Carroll Fisher, while acting in his official capacity as Insurance Commissioner, obtained and then disseminated to the public the confidential employment application and accompanying documents of a political opponent. At the time of the request and at the time of the release of such information by the Commissioner, he was under a statutory duty not to disclose such confidential information.

By obtaining this confidential information and then releasing it to the public, Carroll Fisher gained a political advantage to the detriment of his political opponent. Insurance Commissioner Carroll Fisher's use of his official office and position to obtain and publicly disseminate confidential information to acquire an advantage and gain a benefit over his political opponent constitutes the impeachable offenses of willful neglect of duty and corruption in office.

ARTICLE IV

That a “Form A” application by an entity controlled by the Gene Phillips Group of Texas to acquire American Reserve Life Insurance Company, an Oklahoma domestic insurer, was denied by the Oklahoma Insurance Department in 1996 on the grounds that the applicant lacked capacity and integrity. After Carroll Fisher was elected Insurance Commissioner, the Gene Phillips Group refiled the Form A application. The staff of the Oklahoma Insurance Department recommended that the Form A application be denied on the grounds last stated. The Chief Examiner of the Oklahoma Insurance Department conveyed the recommendation to Carroll Fisher. Carroll Fisher told the Chief Examiner that the Form A application would be approved regardless of such grounds. When told that the independent hearing examiner would likely not approve the application, Carroll Fisher removed the independent hearing examiner and acted as the hearing examiner and subsequently approved the application. At or about the same period of time, Carroll Fisher solicited and thereafter accepted approximately Twenty Thousand Dollars ($20,000.00) of furnishings and furniture from the Gene Phillips Group, for Carroll Fisher’s office within the Insurance Department. Thereafter, Carroll Fisher acted as the hearing examiner whenever an entity controlled by the Gene Phillips Group filed an application to acquire control of other insurers. Carroll Fisher never sat as the hearing examiner on any application filed by anyone other than an entity controlled by the Gene Phillips Group. Further, the foregoing represents a pattern and practice of and by Carroll Fisher in the solicitation and acceptance of furnishings and furniture from entities regulated by the Insurance Commissioner. The solicitation and acceptance of items of substantial value in exchange for favorable rulings constitutes an impeachable offense of corruption in office.

ARTICLE V

That Carroll Fisher, while acting in his official capacity as Insurance Commissioner, received a one-thousand-dollar check from an individual which was clearly intended as a campaign contribution for Carroll Fisher. On May 22, 2003, Carroll Fisher deposited the check into his personal bank account and subsequently drew on such balance. Carroll Fisher failed to report the campaign contribution to the Oklahoma Ethics Commission as required by law. State law and the rules of the Oklahoma Ethics Commission also prohibit the conversion of campaign funds for personal use. Insurance Commissioner Carroll Fisher’s use of campaign funds for his personal benefit and failing to report such contribution constitute the impeachable offense of corruption in office.

SECTION 23. The Presiding Officer, either by his or her own motion or upon request of the Board of Managers or the defendant, may make such orders as are necessary to prevent witnesses from hearing the testimony of other witnesses in the manner provided in Section 2615 of Title 12 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

SECTION 24. Witnesses shall be examined by one person on behalf of the party introducing them, and then cross-examined by one person on the other side, unless the Presiding Officer of the Court shall otherwise order.

SECTION 25. No Member of the Court of Impeachment shall be called as a witness by either party.

SECTION 26. In the trial of impeachment charges, the rules governing the admissibility of evidence, and the order of trial, commencing with the opening statement of counsel, shall be the same as is prescribed and recognized by the courts in the trial of criminal proceedings in this State, except as may be otherwise provided by these Rules or by order of the Court. The Court may, by specific ruling, receive as evidence any matter considered by the Court to be germane and material to the proceedings. Provided, testimony of all witnesses shall be given in the Senate Chamber in the presence of the Senate sitting as a Court of Impeachment. The rules of evidence prohibiting the admission of hearsay evidence shall prevail and shall be interpreted in accordance with the rules of evidence applicable to judicial proceedings in the State of Oklahoma.

SECTION 27. If a Member of the Court wishes a question to be put to a witness, or to offer a motion or order (except a motion to adjourn), it shall be reduced to writing and put by the Presiding Officer.

SECTION 28. Any motions which would go to the merits of the case or would have the effect of terminating the case shall be ruled upon by a vote of the Members of the Court. Except as otherwise provided in these rules, the Presiding Officer shall decide all other motions, questions of evidence, or other incidental matters arising during such proceedings.

Provided, however, that any Member of the Court, any Member of the Board of Managers, or the Accused or the attorney for the Accused, may take exception to any ruling of the Presiding Officer, and if any such exception is accompanied by a request for ruling by the entire membership of the Court, the question shall be put to the Court for ruling thereon if the exception and request for ruling is supported by ten (10) or more Members of the Court. In the event the question on any controverted ruling is put to the Court, the same shall be by roll call vote. It is further provided that the Presiding Officer may allow an equal amount of time to the Board of Managers and the Accused or the attorney for the Accused, for argument thereon.

SECTION 29. All questions and all motions shall be argued for not exceeding five (5) minutes on each side, unless the Presiding Officer shall, by order, extend the time.

SECTION 30. All orders and decisions of the Presiding Officer shall be made without debate by any Member of the Court of Impeachment except when the doors shall be closed and, in that case, no Member shall speak more than once on any one question, and for not more than ten (10) minutes on any question unless by unanimous consent. Upon motion in writing presented by any Member of the Court to close the doors and exclude all persons from the presence of the Court, the same shall be considered by the Court and adopted upon a majority vote of those Members of the Court present and voting, or upon the order of the Presiding Officer.

SECTION 31. The case, on each side, shall be opened by one person, as in criminal trials. The final argument on the merits may be made by three persons on each side, unless otherwise ordered by the Presiding Officer, upon application for that purpose, and the argument shall be opened and closed on the part of the House of Representatives by the Board of Managers.

SECTION 32. No Member of the Court of Impeachment shall vote upon any separate Article of Impeachment who has been absent from the trial during the taking of all the testimony of any one witness upon such Article. The question of whether or not any Member of the Court shall be entitled to vote upon any Article of Impeachment may be raised by a Member of the Court only. The Member in question shall be allowed to vote on an Article of Impeachment unless two-thirds of the Members of the Court present shall vote to prohibit the Member from voting on such Article of Impeachment. The decision of the question by a two-thirds majority of the Members of the Court present shall be a final determination of the matter.

SECTION 33. After submission of the case for final determination, the doors shall be closed for deliberation and the Presiding Officer shall preside over the deliberations of the Members of the Court of Impeachment.

SECTION 34. Except on the final question whether the impeachment is sustained or as otherwise provided in these rules, all votes by the membership of the Court shall be determined by a majority of those present and may be by voice vote, unless, prior to the vote, a roll call vote shall have been requested by a member of the court. Once a voice vote has been taken, the Presiding Officer shall state the side that appears to the Presiding Officer to have prevailed, and any member then may request a division, but shall not be entitled to request a roll call vote.

SECTION 35. On the final question whether the impeachment is sustained, the yeas and nays shall be taken on each Article of Impeachment separately; and, if the impeachment shall not, upon any separate count or charge contained in the Articles, be sustained by the votes of two-thirds of the Members present, a judgment of not guilty shall be entered as to such count; but if the person accused in such Articles of Impeachment shall be convicted upon any separate count or charge of said Articles by the votes of two-thirds of the Members present, the Court shall proceed to pronounce judgment upon such count.

SECTION 36. When the Senate is sitting as a Court of Impeachment, the Senators shall be on oath, or affirmation, impartially to try the party impeached, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the Senators present and voting in open session.
