A majority vote of the members of the Senate shall be required for adoption of a combined report.

RULE 12-14. OTHER COMMITTEE REPORTS. Committee reports neither on legislation nor on Executive Nominations shall be filed with the Secretary of the Senate and explained by the chair of the committee making the report, whereupon the Senate may consider any action called for in the report.

RULE 12-15. FIRST READING. A bill or resolution shall be considered introduced upon First Reading and shall automatically be advanced to Second Reading.

RULE 12-16. SECOND READING.

A. The Second Reading of a bill or resolution shall occur the next legislative day following the First Reading. Upon Second Reading of a bill or resolution, the same shall be assigned for committee consideration. All bills carrying appropriations which are referred to any committee other than the Appropriations Committee shall, immediately upon a report by the committee to which referred, be referred to the Appropriations Committee.

B. All “shell bills”, except for appropriation bills as defined in Rule 5-7, and except for a bill which is exempt from Senate Rule 16-1, shall be assigned to the Rules Committee. For purposes of this rule a “shell bill” shall mean a measure which does not make a substantive change in the law.

C. After preparation of a committee substitute which proposes a substantive change in the law, a shell bill which has been assigned to the Rules Committee may be withdrawn from the Rules Committee and assigned to some other committee. No shell bill, except for appropriation bills as defined in Rule 5-7, and except for a bill which is exempt from Senate Rule 16-1, shall be reported out of a committee until it has been amended to include a substantive change in the law.

RULE 12-17. DEBATE. When a question subject to debate is before the Senate, a motion to limit the time for debate shall be in order, even if debate already has begun. The motion shall fix the time limits to be allowed for and against the motion, provided that in no case shall the total debate allotted to each side be less than one-half hour. If such motion is successful, the Presiding Officer shall cause the time limits to be enforced and shall divide the time equally for each side of the question. If the motion is once rejected on a question being debated, it can only be adopted with the approval of two-thirds of those voting.

RULE 12-18. ADJOURNMENT. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order except when the motion shall have been the last voted on and no business is transacted thereafter.

RULE 12-19. AFTER ADOPTION OF MOTION TO ADJOURN. Once a motion to adjourn when the desk is clear has been adopted, no motion shall be considered from the floor of the Senate, whether by unanimous consent or otherwise.

RULE 12-20. SINE DIE ADJOURNMENT. The date and time of sine die adjournment of the Senate shall be fixed by motion or resolution; provided, that once the date and time of such sine die adjournment has arrived, no further business shall be conducted by the Senate, and the Presiding Officer shall declare the Senate adjourned sine die.

RULE 12-21. CORRECTION OF LANGUAGE. A. The Secretary of the Senate shall, at the direction of the President Pro Tempore and with the approval of the Senate author, have the authority to correct nonsubstantive errors in the language of any bill or resolution at the time the same is engrossed or enrolled. A detailed record of all such corrections shall be maintained by the Secretary and printed in the Journal.

B. The Title of a bill or resolution shall be made to conform to the text, unless the same has been ordered ~~crippled~~ stricken. A stricken title shall be shown in brackets. The ballot title of a bill or resolution proposing a state question shall be made to conform to the text. The Enacting Clause shall be a part of every bill unless the same shall have been ordered stricken. A stricken Enacting Clause shall be shown by striking through the words of the Enacting Clause.

RULE 12-22. WITHDRAWAL FROM COMMITTEE. Any bill or resolution may be withdrawn from any committee of the Senate upon a two-thirds vote of the members of the Senate. Any bill or resolution so withdrawn shall be on General Order.

RULE 12-23. RECONSIDERATION. The final vote on Third Reading or Fourth Reading of any bill or joint resolution or on the emergency clause or special election feature or other special feature of any bill or joint resolution may be reconsidered only if a member of the Senate serves notice on the same day the vote to be reconsidered is taken. Once such notice is served, the following procedures shall be observed:

A. In anticipation of the closing days of a regular session, a majority of the members of the Senate may vote that all motions to reconsider made thereafter shall be disposed of on the same day such notice is served.

B. Except as heretofore provided, the member serving notice for reconsideration shall not be permitted to make the motion to reconsider on the day notice is served, but shall have the exclusive right to make such a motion on the next two succeeding legislative days; provided, that on the third succeeding legislative day, any member of the Senate shall have the right to make such a motion. If no such motion is made on the third succeeding legislative day, then no reconsideration shall be permitted.

C. If the Senate refuses to reconsider or if, upon reconsideration, affirms the first decision, no further consideration shall be in order.

D. For adoption, a motion to reconsider the final vote on a bill or resolution or on the emergency clause or special election feature or other special feature must be approved by a majority of the members of the Senate.

E. A motion to reconsider any other action by the Senate must be made by a Senator who voted in the majority and shall be disposed of on the same day it is lodged. The motion to reconsider shall be decided by a majority of those voting on the question.

F. It shall not be in order for the Senate, by suspension of the Rules or by any other means, to reconsider in the Second Regular Session of a Legislature the vote by which any bill or joint resolution was defeated in the First Regular Session.

RULE 12-24. OVERRIDES OF VETOES. When a bill or resolution is returned to the Senate because of veto by the Governor, a motion to vote to override the veto shall be in order at any time.

RULE 12-25. CORRECTION OF INACCURACIES. The Senate Service Staff is authorized to correct misspelled words, incorrect citations, typographical errors, repeated words and other similar errors when engrossing or enrolling Senate bills or joint resolutions, or Senate amendments to engrossed House bills or joint resolutions and when preparing committee reports and floor versions of Senate bills or joint resolutions.

RULE 12-26. CORRECTION OF FORM OF BILLS

A. When engrossing or enrolling Senate bills or joint resolutions, or Senate amendments to engrossed House bills or joint resolutions and when preparing committee reports and floor versions of Senate bills or joint resolutions, the Senate Service Staff is authorized to remove sections from a bill or joint resolution labeled as amendatory sections but which consist entirely of existing law and contain no amendments to the existing law.

B. When engrossing or enrolling Senate bills or joint resolutions, or Senate amendments to engrossed House bills or joint resolutions and when preparing committee reports and floor versions of Senate bills or joint resolutions, the Senate Service Staff is authorized to incorporate amendments to sections of law in the bill or joint resolution which are contained in measures enacted previously during the same legislative session and amending the same sections of law and repeal such previous versions of the section at issue if, in the opinion of the General Counsel, or a staff attorney designated by the Chief of Staff, the incorporation of such amendments and repeal of the previous version would clearly not conflict with the amendments contained in the measure at issue.

C. When engrossing or enrolling Senate bills or joint resolutions, or Senate amendments to engrossed House bills or joint resolutions, the Senate Service Staff is authorized to modify sections of such measures which provide for a measure to become effective on July 1 to read to reflect an effective date of ninety days after the date of sine die adjournment, or to delete such sections, if the emergency clause has failed to receive the required number of votes for passage.

RULE 13-4. PRECEDENCE. Motions to table shall take precedence over the original motion. If successful, a motion to table shall constitute a final disposition of the original motion.

RULE 13-5. PRIORITY OF MOTIONS NOT ENUMERATED. Except for those motions otherwise enumerated by priority, all motions shall have equal priority and shall be considered in the order made, or in the order placed on the clerk's desk.

RULE 13-6. WRITTEN MOTIONS. The Presiding Officer may require any motion to be in writing and placed upon the clerk's desk.

RULE 13-7. SUBSTITUTE MOTIONS. Only one substitute motion for a motion of equal priority shall be considered. If the substitute motion fails, the original motion shall be disposed of before another motion of the same priority can be considered.

RULE 13-8. VOTE REQUIRED. Unless otherwise provided, a motion shall be declared adopted if it is approved by a majority of the members present and voting thereon.

CHAPTER 14 VOTING

RULE 14-1. MANNER OF VOTING. All votes of the Senate shall be by voice vote, division or roll call vote subject to the following:

A. The voting machine shall be used to record the vote whenever a roll call vote is taken on any question. The machine shall also be used to determine the presence or absence of a quorum. In the event the machine is not operating properly, all roll call votes and determinations of quorums may be taken by calling the roll. The voting machine shall be under the control of the Presiding Officer and shall be operated by a clerk designated by the Presiding Officer.

B. During any roll call, every Senator present shall vote. During a roll call, the Presiding Officer shall request every Senator in the chamber who has not voted to vote. If any Senator so requested fails to vote, the Presiding Officer shall, upon declaring the roll, order that said Senator be shown as voting "NO" on the question. Said order shall be printed in the Journal directly following the printing of the results of the roll call as reflected by the voting machine, and said "NO" vote shall be included in the determination of the passage or failure of the question. In all other cases, a Senator who fails to vote shall be shown as "excused" in the Journal.

C. On any question for which a roll call vote is not required, a roll call vote shall be in order only if requested before the question is put. Once the question has been put and a voice vote taken, the Presiding Officer shall state the side that appears to the Presiding Officer to have prevailed, and any member then may request a division, but shall not be entitled to request a roll call vote. The declaration of the vote by the Presiding Officer shall be final.

D. No Senator shall be permitted to vote or change a vote after the result has been announced by the Presiding Officer.

E. If a member's voting machine is inoperative, the member shall rise and advise the Presiding Officer of the malfunction; and the Senator will be permitted to verbally vote on the question; and the vote will then be recorded by the clerk.

F. When a division is called for, those voting in the affirmative shall rise at their seats and remain standing until counted; then those voting in the negative shall rise and stand until they are counted, whereupon the Presiding Officer shall declare the result.

RULE 15-1. LOBBYISTS. All lobbying activities in the Senate shall be governed and regulated by law and by the Rules of the Senate.

B. Simple and concurrent resolutions pending in the Senate at the final adjournment of the First Regular Session of the 50th Legislature shall not carry over for consideration during the Second Regular Session.

CODE OF CONDUCT AND STANDARDS FOR MEMBERS OF THE SENATE AND STAFF

1. Coat and tie shall be worn by male members and appropriate attire shall be worn by female members in the chamber during sessions of the Senate.
2. Each Senator is personally responsible for his or her own staff. All other staff members of the Senate are under the authority of the Chief of Staff. Complaints pertaining to employees, either personal staff or Senate staff, should be made to the proper authority rather than to the individual. Under no circumstances should complaints pertaining to employees be made on the floor of the Senate, in committee meetings or in other public forums.
3. (a) On the floor during session and in committee, members should endeavor to be congenial and complimentary. Members should avoid personal attacks and dealing in personalities.
(b) During public occasions away from the Capitol, members should endeavor to keep personalities out of their discussions and deal with programs, not personalities.
4. The consumption of alcohol is forbidden in the chamber, and any member who is in the chamber in an intoxicated state will be removed by security personnel.
5. It is beneath the dignity of the Senate for members to consume food products such as sandwiches or ice cream bars in the chamber.
6. Members of the Senate should continually conduct themselves in accordance with the standards which will reflect credit upon themselves and the Senate. It is beneath the dignity of the Senate for a member to sit upon a desk, or to place his feet upon a desk in the chamber.

7. While a Senator is speaking, no Senator should enter into any disturbing private conversation or pass between the speaking Senator and the Presiding Officer. Profane, obscene, or indecent language is discouraged in the Senate and in all standing or special committees of the Senate.

8. A Senator shall address other members with the title "Senator" when addressing one another during formal Senate proceedings either on the floor of the Senate or in committee.

9. The Presiding Officer may direct a designated Senate employee to activate his roll call switch. No member shall be permitted to vote on any question unless said member is physically present in the chamber at the time the vote is taken.

10. The President Pro Tempore (or the Majority Floor Leader) shall designate those Senate employees who shall be granted privileges of the floor during any session of the Senate, said employees to be limited to those whose work requires their presence. Any member desiring to bring a guest to the floor of the Senate shall first notify the Majority Floor Leader. No such guest shall enter the chamber until privileges of the floor have been granted pursuant to Rule 10-10.

11. No person other than a member of the Senate shall cause materials to be distributed on each desk in the Senate chamber without first having obtained approval by the Majority Floor Leader. The sponsoring Senator will be identified. Any material so distributed shall be considered a public record from the time of such distribution.

12. The President Pro Tempore shall designate persons to act as Sergeants-at-Arms for the Senate, who shall have responsibility of serving legal processes and enforcing Rules and policies of the Senate.

13. Any member who feels that the standards of the Senate are being violated by either a member of the Senate or the staff should seek redress by submitting a complaint to the President Pro Tempore concerning the violation. The President Pro Tempore may refer any matter concerning exercise of the Senate's discretionary powers and duties under Section 30 of Article V of the Oklahoma Constitution to a standing committee or select committee as the President Pro Tempore deems appropriate.

State of the State Address
Governor Brad Henry
February 6, 2006

Members of the House and Senate, Lt. Governor Fallin, President Pro Tem Morgan, Speaker Hiett, Honorable Justices of the Supreme Court, distinguished Cabinet and elected officials, honored guests and my fellow Oklahomans and friends:

Headed in the Right Direction

As we approach our centennial celebration – our 100th year – we look ahead to our second century of statehood, brimming with enthusiasm. These are exciting times. Together we have accomplished so much, and, together, we look to our future with pride and anticipation. Oklahoma is headed in the right direction.

From Boise City to Idabel, Altus to Miami, Ponca City to Ardmore, and everywhere in between, our state is on the move; a state with unstoppable momentum. Oklahoma is moving forward to meet new challenges and enjoy new successes – a proud land marked by strength and opportunity, a place that honors heritage even as we look ahead with optimism and awe.

We are building a first-class education system that values our teachers and provides unlimited opportunities for our children. Education Week's recent "Quality Counts" report ranks our schools as 7th in the nation for teacher quality and 12th in the nation, and rising, for school accountability and standards.

We are creating good jobs at a record pace and giving our young people more reasons to stay in Oklahoma. In fact, according to the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis, our total personal income has increased by $8 billion since the first quarter of 2004. And it's still growing.

We are building the health care infrastructure to deliver quality, affordable health care to all Oklahomans. Already, we have implemented one of the nation's most promising health insurance programs. We are providing assistance to small businesses and working families through a partnership with the private sector.

We are conducting cutting-edge research in medicine, weather, and sensor technologies. We are building world-class universities.

And, without a doubt, we are producing some of the most talented young people in the world -- from our own Miss America, Jennifer Berry, to our own American Idol, Carrie Underwood, to the thousands of bright, creative, innovative students, who each day are pursuing the American dream.

We are moving swiftly toward a future where no one is held back and everyone can reach his or her full potential.

A state, it is said, is only as good as its people. And that is to our great advantage, because our people are the best.

Time and again, Oklahomans have demonstrated their courage and commitment and generosity, just as they have recently with the wildfires that have raged across our state.

I've met with many of the firefighters on the front lines, as well as Oklahoma families who have been directly impacted by the fires. And, without exception, these Oklahomans have proven themselves to be tough, tenacious and principled.

The courage and generosity of Oklahomans also transcends the borders of our state.

When Hurricane Katrina smashed through the Gulf Coast, Oklahomans answered the call for help. Our National Guard was the first organized unit to arrive in Louisiana.

Our response was so swift and decisive that federal officials called on our own Brigadier General Myles Deering to head an active-military task force of 15,000 troops stationed at ground zero in New Orleans. I am proud to have Gen. Deering with us in the gallery today.

Here at home, Oklahomans of all walks opened their hearts, their doors and their checkbooks for the waves of people left homeless. Churches, charities and faith-based organizations sprang into action. At Falls Creek, where I spent many enjoyable summers as a child, Oklahoma Baptists created a small city – literally overnight – to accommodate as many as 3,000 Katrina evacuees.

Kim and I had the opportunity to visit with many of the hurricane evacuees who were provided housing and comfort at Camp Gruber. To a person, they told us they had been treated better in Oklahoma than anywhere else. It was gratifying to hear, but not surprising. There is something special about Oklahomans.

Our state is the place where roads converge, both literally and figuratively. Race, religion, income level, even political affiliation – what separates us pales in comparison to the goals and dreams we share.

And the dreams we share, for a better quality of life for all, are motivated and fostered by our shared values: Our unwavering faith in God, our love of community, our commitment to the sanctuary of family.

My family is my comfort, my inspiration. I am blessed by their love and support, and I am grateful that my three wonderful daughters are here today to cheer on their dad: Leah, Laynie and Baylee. And with them, of course, is their mother, my wife, a truly remarkable woman and an amazing first lady, my partner and the love of my life, Kim Henry.

The Road to Now

As we gather today, at the threshold of our state's centennial celebration, it is appropriate that we briefly review what we've done for the Oklahoma family.

Over the past three years, we have laid the groundwork for lasting, long-term economic growth. We have created more than 50,000 new, good-paying jobs, and we've raised personal income by $8 billion. We are demanding excellence in education and expanding opportunities for our children. We are a healthier people. We are making families safe, and we are saving lives.

Many have already forgotten that, just three short years ago, Oklahoma was confronted with the worst fiscal emergency in our state's history, eclipsing even the oil bust of the 1980s. Schools and hospitals braced for severe cuts.

But casting aside partisanship, lawmakers of both parties joined me to work together and overcome that crisis. Despite a shortfall of nearly $700 million, we balanced the budget and shielded education and health care from potentially disastrous cuts, and we did so without raising taxes.

As stewards of good government, it is incumbent upon us to practice fiscal responsibility. Just consider the groundbreaking magnitude of what we accomplished last year. We placed the maximum amount in our Rainy Day Fund for the first time in our state's history, and still we ensured critical funding for education, health care, and public safety and provided tax relief for all Oklahomans.

Perhaps no issue is more critical to Oklahoma than providing the dollars for a first-rate education. A great education is the foundation of a great life, the nourishment to grow a sound future for our children.

Together we have worked to provide every child with a world-class education. We vowed to boost teacher pay to the regional average, and we are well on our way. We gave voters an opportunity, and they created the first new revenue streams for education in more than 15 years.

We provided every Oklahoma child the opportunity to attend full-day kindergarten. And, we launched the ACE initiative to tighten accountability, strengthen academic rigor and guarantee that each education dollar spent is a dollar well spent.

Such reforms are showing tremendous success. Education Week's prestigious rankings place our schools among the best in the nation for accountability and standards and for teacher quality.

Education experts across the nation continue to recognize Oklahoma's early childhood education as the very best. That success does not occur overnight. It involves the commitment and talent of many people, a dedicated group that includes my own wife, Kim.

The commitment we've made to higher education is also reaping dividends. Last year we approved the most comprehensive bond issue in our state's history to propel our colleges and universities to greatness.

Our work for Oklahoma hasn't been confined to the classroom, of course. A happy life means a healthy life, and here, too, we have focused our efforts.

We effectively cleared the air with sensible restrictions to make Oklahoma one of the first truly smoke-free environments in the country.

Responding to an epidemic of methamphetamine abuse, we implemented landmark restrictions that virtually wiped out meth labs and serve as a model for the nation. In fact, nearly every other state has followed our lead.

A year ago, Oklahomans approved a sweeping healthcare initiative. Together, we began funding a world-class cancer research center and helped secure our statewide trauma-care system. A state-of-the-art telemedicine complex in Tulsa will deliver high-quality healthcare to rural Oklahoma.

Through Insure Oklahoma, we are helping small businesses provide needed health insurance to thousands of previously uninsured working Oklahomans.

Together we rebounded from difficult times to build a vibrant economy. We permanently reduced the income tax, eliminated capital gains taxes, and even provided rebates to all Oklahoma taxpayers for the first time in history.

Together, we lowered taxes on our retirees and veterans, and we passed landmark workers' compensation reforms. Our policies have breathed new life into our economy. In fact, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reports that our growth in jobs and personal income now outpace the regional and national averages.

The Road to the Future

We have achieved truly remarkable things for our great state, and the successes we have created will lead to future triumphs. We are on the cusp of greatness -- a new dawning in Oklahoma -- a bold, proud, prosperous Oklahoma where the full potential of every child can be realized.

Oklahoma is on the right track, and now we must charge ahead on the momentum we've built. As Oklahoma's great Cherokee, Will Rogers, once noted: "Even if you're on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there."

Educating Our Children

I firmly believe that Oklahoma's greatest days are still ahead, but to see that dream realized, we must see that our children receive the best possible education.

Education transcends the boundaries of race, financial status and geography. It provides opportunity for all Oklahomans and makes Oklahoma competitive in today's global economy. Building a better Oklahoma for tomorrow means investing in education today.

Our investment starts with our teachers. Classroom excellence will never be achieved without excellent teachers.

We have begun an ambitious plan to raise teacher salaries to the regional average. We must not falter. We must fulfill this commitment to our teachers and keep the best in Oklahoma teaching our children.

And that's not our only commitment. With the Oklahoma Higher Learning Access Program, we told qualified students, if you take tough classes, make good grades and stay out of trouble, we will pay for your college education.

Thousands of students are taking advantage of this opportunity, and Oklahoma is producing more college graduates than ever. Those students kept their end of the bargain, and we must keep ours.

Many years ago, a friend of mine, Jim Hatch, a respected businessman and staunch republican, told me this: "Being fiscally conservative does not mean spending no money. It means spending money wisely." And what could be wiser than spending our money on education? To that end, I propose record investments at every level of education this year.

This wise investment will mean better pay for teachers and more classroom resources.

This wise investment ensures that CareerTech remains a world leader in vocational education.

This wise investment will hold down tuition at our colleges and universities, allowing more students to earn a college degree.

Most important, this wise investment continues building the economic and intellectual capital that ensures a brilliant future for Oklahoma's children and families.

Helping Our Families

Our commitment to Oklahoma families must be unshakable. Family values are core values in Oklahoma. We must work unfailingly to honor and strengthen our families.

Thousands of Oklahoma families have no health insurance or struggle to pay insurance premiums. Because of increasing costs, fewer and fewer employers are able to offer health coverage.

Among those thousands of Oklahomans who face this struggle is Stacie Bay, a mortgage officer from Shawnee. Stacie's two sons -- Brendan and Christian -- have severe asthma and allergies requiring that each take $1,000 worth of medication every month. With their pre-existing conditions, Stacie couldn't get health insurance for her sons even if her family could afford the expensive premiums.

But, as part of a group plan through our new Insure Oklahoma initiative, Stacie's family will finally get the health insurance they so desperately need. Stacie is with us in the gallery today. Let's assure Stacie, and thousands of other Oklahomans just like her, that we will build upon this innovative program to include more families and small businesses.

Prescription drugs are one of the chief drivers of increased medical costs. When needy Oklahomans must choose between food and medicine while drug companies spend more than $4 billion on advertising, something has gone terribly wrong. The status quo is unacceptable.

This session, I renew my call that we work together in a bipartisan manner to help Oklahomans safely re-import lower-cost prescription drugs from other industrialized nations. We know some pharmaceutical companies will again fight this every step of the way, but the people of Oklahoma elected us to represent their interests, and not special interests.

A healthier state is a better state, and so this year let's strengthen what will be a state-of-the-art cancer research center to ensure we meet the highest standards.

Twelve days ago, many of us lost a dear friend when Senator Robert M. Kerr passed away after a courageous battle with cancer. We celebrated his life this morning in the Senate Chamber. Now, let us honor his legacy – and the legacy of all Oklahomans who have fallen to cancer – with a center for cutting-edge research and treatment right here in Oklahoma.

I ask for your help in meeting another health crisis. Nearly 10 percent of Oklahomans have diabetes or will be diagnosed with it. Like many Oklahomans, I, too, lost a loved one, my mother, due to complications from this deadly disease. This silent killer has inflicted an especially lethal toll on our American Indian population.

OU President David Boren is certainly one of Oklahoma's bipartisan visionaries, and he also is among the thousands of Oklahomans diagnosed with Type 2 diabetes. President Boren is with us today, along with the leaders of three of our great tribal nations: Chickasaw Nation Governor Bill Anoatubby, Cherokee Nation Principal Chief Chad Smith, and Choctaw Nation Assistant Chief Mike Bailey.

This session, following the lead of these great Oklahomans, let's create a world-class national diabetes center, a dream we can make a reality through a partnership with our great Oklahoma tribes.

Together we rescued young children from the environmental hazards of Tar Creek. But challenges remain. Working with Sen. Jim Inhofe and the federal government, we will address continuing dangers to ensure the safety of other families in the area. The very lives of our fellow Oklahomans are at stake.

We can also help Oklahoma families through smart, targeted tax relief.

Expanding the retirement income tax exemption will give our seniors more purchasing power. Extending an estate tax exemption to collateral heirs will help keep family farms and small businesses as a vital part of our economy. And finally enacting a back-to-school sales tax holiday will keep Oklahoma dollars, and jobs, on this side of the Red River.

Protecting Our Families

Perhaps no one needs our help more than our most vulnerable citizens, our children. The Internet is an incredible learning tool, but it can also be used for evil. The Justice Department tells us that one in every five teenagers has been approached online by a sexual predator. This year, I urge you to approve our "Safe Net" legislation to crack down on those who would harm our children.

It is equally vital that we toughen Oklahoma's Sex Offender Registry by ensuring that all communities are promptly and properly informed about any sex offenders living in the area. We must do everything in our power to protect Oklahomans from these predators.

In recent months, Oklahomans have followed with horror and sadness the story of Kelsey Briggs, the 2-year-old girl whose life was cut short as the result of child abuse. Perhaps the most tragic aspect of Kelsey's story is that it is all too common.

In 2004, 51 children in our state died of abuse and neglect. Child abuse destroys lives and perpetuates a cycle of violence that can continue for generations. And it must not be tolerated.

I ask you to join me in committing funds to hire 112 additional child abuse investigators and pay them a decent salary.

The future of so many Oklahomans rests on the shoulders of our hardworking state employees. They are the backbone of our government and the lifeblood of vital state services. For their skill and dedication, we owe them an increase in pay this year.

And speaking of dedication, our corrections officers are stretched too thin and paid too little. Yet, day after day, they put their lives on the line, and it's time we act quickly to provide them with additional manpower and proper pay.

Our corrections officers will need the help as we turn up the heat on meth makers. Thankfully, we have virtually wiped out meth labs in Oklahoma, but now it's time to turn to the importation of methamphetamine from Mexico.

We must put more undercover drug agents on the streets, toughen penalties for meth importation, and redouble our efforts on prevention, education and treatment. For the sake of Oklahoma families, it is time to step up the war and stamp out this deadly poison.

I don't need to tell you of the havoc that wildfires have caused our state in recent months. Our firefighters have been true heroes throughout, placing themselves in harm's way to save lives and property, but they need our help.

“Operation Firewall” will provide immediate assistance to our firefighters on the front lines and better prepare for future disasters. We are fortunate to have with us today a number of our courageous firefighters. For all they’ve done to help us, it is time for us to help them.

Investing in the Future

So much of the business conducted in this building affects future generations, and yet too often we fail to consider the long-term impact of what we do. It is an awesome responsibility we have, not only to better the lives of Oklahomans today, but also to shape a future of promise and prosperity.

While the energy and agriculture industries will always be vital to Oklahoma and its economy, we must be prepared for the demands and innovations of the marketplace of the future.

This session I am sending you a comprehensive package to meet the challenges ahead. Our “Invest in the Future” initiative will build on the research endowment we created last year. We will fund cutting-edge research and projects that promise the greatest potential for economic opportunity and job creation.

Establishing an Opportunity Fund will help close the economic development gap, making Oklahoma more competitive and better able to attract and retain good jobs.

What we ultimately achieve will be limited only by our imagination and ambition.

Leveraged by a $180 million bond issue, we will stimulate cutting-edge research. We will invest in sensor technology at Oklahoma State University. We will invest in cancer and diabetes research at the University of Oklahoma. And, we will support private-sector research throughout the state. It is critical we equip ourselves with every tool needed to develop a research infrastructure that will fuel our long-term prosperity.

The way to a prosperous future also means that we build and maintain roads and bridges. Our “Road to Progress” initiative includes a $100 million emergency infusion to repair Oklahoma’s most dangerous bridges. Coupled with another $420 million and the bipartisan commitment we made last year, that means a landmark investment of nearly $2 billion for roads and bridges over the next 10 years.

Oklahomans also deserve the assurance that the taxes they pay at the gas pump will be earmarked for their roads and bridges. Let’s let Oklahomans vote on a constitutional “lockbox” to ensure that gas taxes will be used solely for transportation purposes.

Best Days Ahead

We stand on the eve of a historic anniversary for Oklahoma. This is a fitting time to reflect on what it means to be an Oklahoman. It's about a spirit and determination that has long distinguished our state's culture.

During World War II, that spirit and determination was chronicled by the celebrated war correspondent, Ernie Pyle. "The men of Oklahoma are drawling and soft-spoken," he wrote in a dispatch from August of 1943. "Something of the purity of the soil seems to be in them.... An Oklahoman is straight and direct. He is slow to criticize and hard to anger, but once he is convinced of the wrong of something, brother, watch out."

I think Ernie Pyle was on target, but, I might add this: Oklahomans are also a force to be reckoned with when we're convinced of the rightness of something.

If I have grown convinced of the rightness of anything, it is this: Only through working together in a bipartisan spirit will we achieve real, meaningful, lasting results.

It is with that spirit that we will tackle the challenges ahead, for the State of Oklahoma is strong. It is dynamic and visionary. It is creative and innovative. It is courageous and committed. And Oklahoma is definitely headed in the right direction.

So, let us do great things for the people of Oklahoma. As First Corinthians 10:24 tells us, "Let no man seek his own good, but the good of every other man."

Our convictions will serve as our compass. They will lead us in the direction of a better Oklahoma, an Oklahoma of greatness, an Oklahoma of unparalleled heights.

I recall the words of a great Oklahoman, who reminds us of our responsibility to stay headed in the right direction. Scott Momaday, the great Kiowa poet and Pulitzer Prize-winning novelist, in his poem entitled "Oklahoma 2003," told us how his people came to Oklahoma. Then, he said this:

*Others came
Others came upon the rolling plains
They bore books and learning
They bore the Word of God
They bore the machinery of nationhood*

*Now we come in our turn
Now we come to a new destiny
Now we come to a new consecration of this holy place
Now we come in our turn
To stand on this ground between our forebears and our children
To build understanding on what has been
To build greatness on what will be.*

God bless you and God bless Oklahoma.

Upon motion of Representative Cargill, the Joint Session was ordered dissolved at the hour of 1:35 p.m.
