“SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 119 of Title 68, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. Upon receipt of a written request from a member or employee of the Legislature, the Oklahoma Tax Commission shall provide:

1. A written estimate of the revenue gain or loss to the state as a result of an actual or proposed change to a state tax law; and

2. A written estimate of the impact such proposed change to a state tax law will have on each of the major agencies of the state which receive appropriated funds.

The Tax Commission shall provide such estimate and statement within two (2) weeks of the date the request was received unless the member or employee of the Legislature specifies an earlier date. If the Tax Commission determines that it is unable to provide such estimate and statement within the time period required by this section, it shall provide a written explanation and date by which the estimate and statement will be provided to the member or employee.

B. No measure which proposes a change to a state tax law shall be considered by any committee of the Senate or the House of Representatives or by the full Senate or the House of Representatives unless such measure has attached to it a copy of the written estimates required by subsection A of this section. If a measure which proposes a change in a state tax law is amended by either House of the Legislature or a committee of either House of the Legislature, the author of the Measure shall request the Oklahoma Tax Commission to prepare a new estimate as provided in subsection A of this section and the measure shall not be considered by any committee of the Senate or the House of Representatives or by the full Senate or the House of Representatives unless such new estimate has been attached to the amended measure.”, and by renumbering subsequent sections.
