GENERAL ORDER

SB 51 by Paddock of the Senate and Thomsen of the House was called up for consideration.

Senator Gumm moved to amend SB 51, Page 3, Line 12 ½, by inserting a new Section 2 to read as follows:

“SECTION 2. AMENDATORY Section 12, Chapter 504, O.S.L. 2004, as last amended by Section 24, Chapter 311, O.S.L. 2006 (47 O.S. Supp. 2006, Section 1135.3), is amended to read as follows:

Section 1135.3.

A. The Oklahoma Tax Commission is hereby authorized to design and issue appropriate official special license plates to persons wishing to demonstrate support, interest, or membership to or for an organization, occupation, cause or other subject as provided by this section.

Special license plates shall not be transferred to any other person but shall be removed from the vehicle upon transfer of ownership and retained. The special license plate may then be used on another vehicle but only after such other vehicle has been registered for the current year.

Special license plates shall be renewed each year by the Tax Commission or a motor license agent. The Tax Commission shall annually notify by mail all persons issued special license plates. The notice shall contain all necessary information and shall contain instructions for the renewal procedure upon presentation to a motor license agent or the Tax Commission. The license plates shall be issued on a staggered system.

The Tax Commission is hereby directed to develop and implement a system whereby motor license agents are permitted to accept applications for special license plates authorized under this section. The motor license agent shall confirm the applicant's eligibility, if applicable, collect and deposit any amount specifically authorized by law, accept and process the necessary information directly into such system and generate a receipt accordingly. For performance of these duties, motor license agents shall retain the fee provided in Section 1141.1 of this title for registration of a motor vehicle. The motor license agent fees for acceptance of applications and renewals shall be paid out of the Oklahoma Tax Commission Reimbursement Fund.

If fewer than one hundred of any type of special license plates authorized prior to January 1, 2004, are issued prior to January 1, 2006, the Tax Commission shall discontinue issuance and renewal of that type of special license plate. Any such authorized special license plate registrant shall be allowed to display the license plate upon the designated vehicle until the registration expiration date. After such time the expired special license plate shall be removed from the vehicle.

For special license plates authorized on or after July 1, 2004, no special license plates shall be developed or issued by the Tax Commission until the Commission receives one hundred (100) prepaid applications therefor. The prepaid applications must be received by the Tax Commission within one hundred and eighty (180) days of the effective date of the authorization or the authority to issue shall be null and void. In the event one hundred

(100) prepaid applications are not received by the Tax Commission within such prescribed time period any payment so received shall be refunded accordingly.

GENERAL ORDER

SB 47 by Crain of the Senate and Tibbs of the House was called up for consideration.

Senator Anderson moved to amend SB 47, Page 1, Line 17 ½, by inserting a new Section 2 to read as follows:

“SECTION 2. AMENDATORY 63 O.S. 2001, Section 2-503, as amended by Section 2, Chapter 537, O.S.L. 2004 (63 O.S. Supp. 2006, Section 2-503), is amended to read as follows:

Section 2-503. A. The following shall be subject to forfeiture:

1. All controlled dangerous substances which have been manufactured, distributed, dispensed, acquired, concealed or possessed in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act;

2. All raw materials, products and equipment of any kind and all drug paraphernalia as defined by the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, which are used, or intended for use, in manufacturing, compounding, processing, delivering, importing or exporting, injecting, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing into the human body any controlled dangerous substance in violation of the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act;

3. All property which is used, or intended for use, as a container for property described in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this subsection;

4. All conveyances, including aircraft, vehicles, vessels, or farm implements which are used to transport, conceal, or cultivate for the purpose of distribution as defined in the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, or which are used in any manner to facilitate the transportation or cultivation for the purpose of sale or receipt of property described in paragraphs 1 or 2 of this subsection or when the property described in paragraphs 1 or 2 of this subsection is unlawfully possessed by an occupant thereof, except that:

- a. no conveyance used by a person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as a common carrier shall be forfeited under the provisions of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act unless it shall appear that the owner or other person in charge of such conveyance was a consenting party or privy to a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, and
- b. no conveyance shall be forfeited under the provisions of this section by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without the knowledge or consent of such owner, and if the act is committed by any person other than such owner, the owner shall establish further that the conveyance was unlawfully in the possession of a person other than the owner in violation of the criminal laws of the United States, or of any state;

5. All books, records and research, including formulas, microfilm, tapes and data which are used in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act;

6. All things of value furnished, or intended to be furnished, in exchange for a controlled dangerous substance in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act, all proceeds traceable to such an exchange, and all monies, negotiable instruments, and securities used, or intended to be used, to facilitate any violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act;

7. All moneys, coin and currency found in close proximity to any amount of forfeitable substances, to forfeitable drug manufacturing or distribution paraphernalia or to forfeitable records of the importation, manufacture or distribution of substances, which are rebuttably presumed to be forfeitable under the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act. The burden of proof is upon claimants of the property to rebut this presumption;

8. All real property, including any right, title, and interest in the whole of any lot or tract of land and any appurtenance or improvement thereto, which is used, or intended to be used, in any manner or part, to commit, or to facilitate the commission of, a violation of the

Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act which is punishable by imprisonment for more than one (1) year, except that no property right, title or interest shall be forfeited pursuant to this paragraph, by reason of any act or omission established by the owner thereof to have been committed or omitted without the knowledge or consent of that owner; ~~and~~

9. All weapons possessed, used or available for use in any manner to facilitate a violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act; ~~and~~

10. The Department of Public Safety, county sheriffs, and all other duly authorized peace officers of this state during the course of their normal duties to uphold and enforce the laws of the state may seize and take into custody any motor vehicle being operated on public streets and highways by a person who fails to show proof of compulsory liability insurance as required by Section 7-600 et seq. of Title 47 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

B. Any property or thing of value of a person is subject to forfeiture if it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that such property or thing of value was acquired by such person during the period of the violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act or within a reasonable time after such period and there was no likely source for such property or thing of value other than the violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act.

C. Any property or thing of value of a person is subject to forfeiture if it is established by a preponderance of the evidence that the person has not paid all or part of a fine imposed pursuant to the provisions of Section 2-415 of this title.

D. All items forfeited in this section shall be forfeited under the procedures established in Section 2-506 of this title. Whenever any item is forfeited pursuant to this section except for items confiscated by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Control, the Department of Public Safety, the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, the Alcoholic Beverage Laws Enforcement Commission, the Department of Corrections, or the Office of the Attorney General, the district court of the district shall order that such item, money, or monies derived from the sale of such item be deposited by the state, county or city law enforcement agency which seized the item in the revolving fund provided for in Section 2-506 of this title; provided, such item, money or monies derived from the sale of such item forfeited due to nonpayment of a fine imposed pursuant to the provisions of Section 2-415 of this title shall be apportioned as provided in Section 2-416 of this title. Items, money or monies seized pursuant to subsections A and B of this section shall not be applied or considered toward satisfaction of the fine imposed by Section 2-415 of this title. All raw materials used or intended to be used by persons to unlawfully manufacture or attempt to manufacture any controlled dangerous substance in violation of the Uniform Controlled Dangerous Substances Act shall be summarily forfeited pursuant to the provisions of Section 2-505 of this title.

E. All property taken or detained under this section by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Control, the Department of Public Safety, the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, the Alcoholic Beverage Laws Enforcement Commission, the Department of Corrections, or the Office of the Attorney General, shall not be repleviable, but shall remain in the custody of the Bureaus, Departments, Commission, or Office, respectively, subject only to the orders and decrees of a court of competent jurisdiction. The Director of the Oklahoma State Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Control, the Commissioner of Public Safety, the Director of the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, the Director of the Alcoholic Beverage Laws Enforcement Commission, the Director of the Department of Corrections, and the Attorney General shall follow the procedures outlined in Section 2-506 of this title dealing with notification of seizure, intent of forfeiture, final disposition procedures, and release to innocent claimants with regard to all property included in this section detained by the Department of Public Safety, the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, the Alcoholic Beverage Laws Enforcement Commission, the Department of Corrections, or the Office of the Attorney General. Property taken or detained by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Control, the Department of Public Safety, the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, the Alcoholic Beverage Laws Enforcement Commission, the Department of Corrections, or the Office of the Attorney General shall be disposed of or sold pursuant to the provisions of Section 2-508 of this title. Any money, coins, and currency, taken or detained pursuant to this section may be deposited in an interest bearing account by or at the direction of the State Treasurer if the seizing agency determines the currency is not to be held as evidence. All interest earned on such monies shall be returned to the claimant or forfeited with the money, coins, and currency which was taken or detained as provided by law.

F. The proceeds of any forfeiture of items seized by the Oklahoma State Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Control shall be distributed as follows:

1. To the bona fide or innocent purchaser, conditional sales vendor or mortgagee of the property, if any, up to the amount of his or her interest in the property, when the court declaring a forfeiture orders a distribution to such person; and

2. The balance to the Oklahoma State Bureau of ~~Narcotics~~ Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs Control's revolving fund or the Bureau's agency special account established pursuant to Section 7.2 of Title 62 of the Oklahoma Statutes, provided the Bureau may enter into agreements with municipal, county, state or federal law enforcement agencies, assisting in the forfeiture or underlying criminal investigation, to return to such an agency a percentage of said proceeds.

The Bureau may expend up to Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars ($900,000.00) of the forfeited funds within a fiscal year without prior approval of the Legislature. Documentation of such expenditures shall be forwarded to the Governor, Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate on a quarterly basis. Any additional expenditures of forfeited funds shall be pre-approved by the annual appropriations process or the Contingency Review Board.

G. Any agency that acquires seized or forfeited property or money shall maintain a true and accurate inventory and record of all such property seized pursuant to this section.”, and by renumbering subsequent section, which amendment was declared adopted upon roll call as follows:

“SECTION 11. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 2011.2 of Title 12, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

Any person who has information or believes that a frivolous lawsuit has been filed in any court in this state may report such lawsuit to the clerk of the Supreme Court. The clerk shall maintain a public record of all reports filed regarding frivolous lawsuits and shall provide to the Chief Justice of the Oklahoma Supreme Court, the Governor, the Lieutenant Governor, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives by February 1 of each year a report of the number of frivolous lawsuit complaints that have been reported to the clerk during the previous calendar year and shall identify the county and case number of the lawsuits that have been reported. The clerk of the Supreme Court shall develop a form that is to be used for reporting such claims, which shall be made available on the internet and shall only require the name of the county in which the alleged claim was filed and the case number of the case that is alleged to have been a frivolous complaint. There shall not be a requirement that the individual who makes the claim disclose his or her identity or that the parties of the lawsuit be identified. The filing of such a report shall not be the grounds for any claim of libel or slander against the individual who filed the report. This act shall not alter the duty of any attorney in this state to continue to comply with the code of professional conduct in regards to reporting the existence of frivolous lawsuits under Rule 8.3.”, which amendment was withdrawn upon request of Senator Anderson.
