A. There is hereby created the Joint Legislative Task Force on the Grand River Dam Authority, which shall be appointed in January of each year following a state general election, for the purpose of studying the functions, activities, policies, procedures and expenditures performed by the district and any related issues the task force deems appropriate. Members of the task force shall be appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives and may be made up of any number of Senate and House members; provided, each member’s legislative district shall include some portion of the Grand River Dam Authority district. The President Pro Tempore and Speaker shall each designate one of their members to be cochair of the task force. Meetings of the task force shall be called by the cochair. A majority of the appointed members shall constitute a quorum for any meeting of the task force. Staffing assistance shall be provided by the staff of the Senate and House of Representatives.

B. Each task force created herein shall remain in effect until a subsequent task force is appointed pursuant to the provisions of subsection A of this section. Each task force is authorized to adopt any recommendations or issue any report it deems necessary. Any recommendations or reports shall be approved by a majority of the appointed members. Copies of any recommendations or reports issued by the task force shall be distributed to the Governor, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the members of the Grand River Dam Authority Board of Directors and the General Manager of the Grand River Dam Authority.

C. Members serving on this task force shall be entitled to travel reimbursement as provided by Section 456 of Title 74 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

The Legislature finds that the unlawful use of firearms, rather than their lawful manufacture, distribution, or sale, is the proximate cause of any injury arising from their unlawful use.

SECTION 3. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 42 of Title 76, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

No firearm manufacturer, distributor, or seller who lawfully manufactures, distributes, or sells a firearm is liable to any person or entity, or to the estate, successors, or survivors of either, for any injury suffered, including wrongful death and property damage, because of use of such firearm by another.

SECTION 4. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 43 of Title 76, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

No association of person who hold licenses under Section 923 of Chapter 44 of Title 18, United States Code, as in effect on January 1, 1999, is liable to any person or entity, or to the estate, successors or survivors of either, for any injury suffered, including wrongful death and property damage, because of the use of a firearm sold or manufactured by any licensee who is a member such association.

SECTION 5. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 44 of Title 76, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

The provisions of Sections 41 through 44 of this Title, inclusive, do not apply to actions for deceit, breach of contract, or expressed or implied warranties, or for injuries resulting from failure of firearms to operate in a normal or usual manner due to defects or negligence in design or manufacture. The provisions of Sections 41 through 44 of this Title, inclusive, do not apply to actions arising from the unlawful sale or transfer of firearms, or to instances where the transferor knew, or should have known, that the recipient would engage in the unlawful sale or transfer of the firearm, or would use, or purposely allow the use of, the firearm in an unlawful, negligent, or improper fashion. For purposes of this section, the potential of a firearm to cause serious injury, damage, or death as a result of normal function does not constitute a defective condition of the product. A firearm may not be deemed defective on the basis of its potential to cause serious injury, damage, or death when discharged.”, and by renumbering subsequent section, which amendment was declared adopted.
