The chair of a committee to which a bill or resolution subject to the provisions of this subsection is assigned may request the Majority Floor Leader to suspend the provisions of paragraph 4 or 6 of subsection A or paragraph 4 or 6 of subsection B of Rule 16-1; provided, any such suspension shall not suspend or affect any of the remaining dates set forth in Rule 16-1.

If a floor amendment or conference committee amendment is proposed which may be subject to the provisions of this subsection, the Majority Floor Leader shall inform the chair of the committee to which the bill or resolution was originally assigned and the chair shall request documentation of the fiscal impact of the amendment as provided in this subsection prior to consideration of the amendment by the Senate. If the bill or resolution was not originally assigned to a committee, the Majority Floor Leader may request such documentation or may request another member of the Senate to do so on his or her behalf.

B. No amendment, bill or resolution which creates a direct fiscal impact on state tax revenues shall be considered by the Senate or any committee thereof unless such amendment, bill or resolution is accompanied by documentation of the fiscal impact of such amendment, bill or resolution. The chair of the committee to which the bill or resolution is assigned shall request documentation of the fiscal impact of the bill or resolution prior to placing the bill or resolution on an agenda to be considered at a meeting of the committee. Unless otherwise requested by the chair, such documentation shall be prepared by the Oklahoma Tax Commission pursuant to the provisions of Section 118 of Title 68 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

If a floor amendment or conference committee amendment is proposed which may be subject to the provisions of this subsection, the Majority Floor Leader shall inform the chair of the committee to which the bill or resolution was originally assigned and the chair shall request documentation of the fiscal impact of the amendment as provided in this subsection prior to consideration of the amendment by the Senate. If the bill or resolution was not originally assigned to a committee, the Majority Floor Leader may request such documentation or may request another member of the Senate to do so on his or her behalf.

D. The President Pro Tempore and Majority Floor Leader shall each be ex officio and voting members of all Senate committees.

RULE 7-3. DUTIES OF THE RULES COMMITTEE. The Rules Committee shall prescribe a Code of Conduct and Standards for Members of the Senate and Staff and shall determine any other policies of the Senate submitted to it by the President Pro Tempore.

RULE 7-4. DUTIES OF LEGISLATION COMMITTEES. Each legislative committee shall be responsible for the formulation of legislative programs and determination of nonlegislative matters within the jurisdiction prescribed by the President Pro Tempore; shall inquire into the administration and execution of all laws within the same jurisdiction; shall consider such proposals as may be submitted to the committee by the President Pro Tempore; and shall be responsible for the continuing codification of all laws within the prescribed jurisdiction.

RULE 7-5. DUTIES OF SELECT COMMITTEES. Select committees shall be responsible for such duties as are prescribed at the time of their formation. No select committee shall be formed without its duties being expressly stated at the time of its formation. If a select committee is appointed for the purpose of conducting an investigation, the Senator requesting the investigation shall not serve as chair of the committee.

RULE 7-6. AUTHORITY OF COMMITTEES. Any Senate committee is authorized to issue process, compel attendance of witnesses, and to administer oaths to any person appearing before the committee. Any Senate committee which considers legislation is empowered to consolidate bills or resolutions, to develop committee substitutes for such bills or resolutions, to amend such bills or resolutions and to develop a committee bill or resolution irrespective of any other legislation.

RULE 7-7. PROCEDURES. The following procedures shall be observed by all legislation committees of the Senate:

A. Subject to such exceptions as are provided hereinafter, committees of the Senate shall comply with provisions of the Oklahoma Open Meeting Act. A copy of all notices required by said Act shall be provided to the Chief of Staff, who shall designate the appropriate place for such notices to be posted. The Chief of Staff shall cause to be posted one such notice on the bulletin board of the Senate located in a place in the Capitol accessible to the public and on the Senate web site and shall take such other actions as may be deemed appropriate to provide adequate notice to the public.

B. The chair of a committee shall schedule meetings of the committee. Meetings at a time other than the regularly scheduled meeting time of a committee shall not conflict with any regularly scheduled meeting of any other committee, except with the consent of the President Pro Tempore.

C. The agenda for any meeting of a committee shall be set by the chair and shall include the date, time and place of the meeting. A copy of the agenda shall be provided to members of the committee and to authors of legislation to be considered by the committee at least twenty-four (24) hours prior to the meeting unless otherwise approved by the President Pro Tempore. An agenda for a meeting scheduled to meet prior to or during the first three days of session may reflect a measure for which assignment to the committee is anticipated, and the committee may act upon the measure; provided, the report of the committee's action on any such measure shall not be filed prior to the assignment of the measure; further provided, if the measure is not assigned to the committee during the first three days of session, any committee action on the measure taken prior to or during those days shall be of no force or effect and shall not be reported.

D. A quorum shall be present when any committee votes on any matter. Any member of a committee may request a quorum call at any time the committee is meeting. A number equal to a majority of the appointed members of the committee shall constitute a quorum.

E. The chair, or in the chair's absence the vice-chair, of the committee, or a designee, shall preside at meetings of the committee.

3. The Senate author shall be given the opportunity to answer questions put by members of the committee or other persons recognized by the chair.

4. The chair shall provide opportunity for presentation of amendments to the legislation by the Senate author or by any member of the committee. Any amendment must be seconded to receive further consideration. Provided, the Senate author or any member of the committee offering a committee substitute must submit the proposed committee substitute in writing or electronically to the chair no later than noon on the legislative day before the meeting of the committee. A committee substitute shall be considered a public record from the time it is submitted to the chair. The chair may, at his or her discretion, waive the deadline set forth in this rule.

5. Amendments and motions may be adopted by a voice vote; provided, however, that the Senate author, or any member of the committee, may require a roll call vote.

6. Amendments shall be considered in the order they appear in the legislation, or in the order they are presented to the clerk of the committee; provided, an amendment to restore the title or enacting clause shall be considered after disposition of all other amendments. The chair shall resolve any conflict resulting from claimed priority of presentation.

7. The author of an amendment shall explain the amendment and be afforded the opportunity to answer questions about the amendment put by members of the committee, the author of the legislation, or other persons recognized by the chair.

8. The chair may recognize any person for debate or comment on the proposed legislation or amendments thereto. The chair may limit the amount of time for any such debate or comment.

9. The vote on a recommendation by the committee to the Senate concerning a legislative measure shall be by recorded roll call and shall require a majority vote of a quorum of the members of the committee for passage. The only permitted recommendations to the Senate on a legislative measure are "DO PASS" or "DO PASS, AS AMENDED". A tie vote in a committee on the motion of "DO PASS" or "DO PASS, AS AMENDED" shall result in failure of the motion. All committee votes reflecting the votes of each member present and voting on the motion of "DO PASS" or "DO PASS, AS AMENDED" shall be entered in the Journal.

G. Except for legislation containing appropriations, all legislation originating in the Senate which is recommended by a committee to the Senate shall contain an Enacting or Resolving Clause and both a Senate and a House author.

H. The chair may assign to any subcommittee any legislation, proposal or inquiry; provided, however, no subcommittee shall be permitted to report directly to the Senate, but rather shall report to the parent committee.

I. No person shall cause materials to be distributed at any committee meeting without first having obtained approval of the chair. The person causing the materials to be distributed shall be identified in writing on the face of such materials. Any document or other material distributed to all members of a committee of the Senate during a meeting which is open to the public shall be considered a public record from the time of such distribution.

J. 1. An amendment affecting a retirement system, as such term is defined in the Oklahoma Pension Legislation Actuarial Analysis Act, to a bill or resolution which has not been submitted to the legislative actuary as provided in the Act, shall be deemed to be out of order. If such a committee amendment is deemed to be out of order after its adoption, the committee or the full Senate may amend the bill or resolution to its form prior to the amendment. If such amendment is not made, the bill or resolution shall be returned to the committee from which it was reported.

2. An amendment which creates or expands a requirement for insurance coverage provided to state employees by a state agency which is not accompanied by written documentation of the fiscal impact thereof requested by the chair of the committee as required in subsection A of Rule 5-8, shall be deemed to be out of order. If such a committee amendment is deemed to be out of order after its adoption, the committee or the full Senate may amend the bill or resolution to its form prior to the amendment. If such amendment is not made, the bill or resolution shall be returned to the committee from which it was reported.

3. An amendment which creates a direct fiscal impact on state tax revenues which is not accompanied by written documentation of the fiscal impact thereof requested by the chair of the committee as required in subsection B of Rule 5-8, shall be deemed to be out of order. If such a committee amendment is deemed to be out of order after its adoption, the committee or the full Senate may amend the bill or resolution to its form prior to the amendment. If such amendment is not made, the bill or resolution shall be returned to the committee from which it was reported.

CHAPTER 8 COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

RULE 8-1. COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE. Without prior notice, the Senate may, by motion approved by a majority of the members of the Senate, declare itself a Committee of the Whole, at which time the President Pro Tempore or a member designated by the President Pro Tempore shall chair the Committee of the Whole. Rules applicable to other Senate committees shall be applied to the Committee of the Whole, except those rules relating to notice.

RULE 8-2. REPORTS. Once the Committee of the Whole has reported a bill or resolution "DO PASS" or "DO PASS, AS AMENDED", to the Senate, that bill or resolution shall be considered on Third Reading and shall be voted upon without consideration of amendments or debate.

appointment to the same position. If an executive nomination is not approved during the regular session in which it is submitted, it shall be deemed rejected. If an interim executive nomination is not approved during the first regular session following its submission it shall be deemed rejected. The President Pro Tempore shall notify the appointing authority of the rejection of an executive nomination by the Senate, and shall likewise notify the chief executive of the entity to which the nomination relates.

C. This rule shall not apply to an amendment offered by the author of a bill or resolution:

1. To strike the title or enacting or resolving clause; or
2. To make non-substantive changes or technical corrections, subject to the approval of the Majority Floor Leader.

D. 1. An amendment affecting a retirement system, as such term is defined in the Oklahoma Pension Legislation Actuarial Analysis Act, to a bill or resolution which has not been submitted to the legislative actuary as provided in the Act, shall be deemed to be out of order.

2. An amendment which creates or expands a requirement for insurance coverage provided to state employees by a state agency which is not accompanied by written documentation of the fiscal impact thereof requested by the chair of the committee to which the bill or resolution was assigned as required in subsection A of Rule 5-8, shall be deemed to be out of order.

3. An amendment which creates a direct fiscal impact on state tax revenues which is not accompanied by written documentation of the fiscal impact thereof requested by the chair of the committee to which the bill or resolution was assigned as required in subsection B of Rule 5-8, shall be deemed to be out of order.

RULE 12-5. CONSIDERATION OF MEASURES ON GENERAL ORDER.

A. On General Order, the following procedure shall be observed:

1. Explanation of the bill or resolution by the Senate author;
2. Questions;
3. Consideration of amendments; and
4. Advancement.

B. Amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are submitted unless otherwise directed by the Majority Floor Leader; provided, an amendment to restore a title or enacting or resolving clause shall be considered after disposition of all other amendments. Once an amendment is read, it shall be explained by its author, who shall then answer questions concerning the amendment. If the author of the amendment is not in attendance at the time an amendment is read, the amendment shall be considered withdrawn unless another member of the Senate has taken or immediately takes coauthorship of the amendment and provides an explanation. An amendment shall be considered a public record from the time it is placed upon the clerk's desk.

C. After the final vote on third reading of any bill or joint resolution, no amendment to the measure shall be considered, by unanimous consent or otherwise, unless the final vote and advancement of the measure are properly reconsidered according to the Senate Rules.

D. For any bill which has been recommended to the full Senate by a Senate committee with a stricken title or enacting clause, the title or enacting clause shall not be restored as part of an amendment proposing a floor substitute, but an amendment to restore the title or enacting clause may be considered separately.

RULE 12-6. ADVANCEMENT. Once a motion to advance has been adopted, the bill or resolution shall be considered engrossed and on Third Reading.

RULE 12-7. THIRD READING. Upon Third Reading of a bill or resolution, the Senate shall not consider amendments, but shall debate passage of the bill or resolution and then vote upon passage.

RULE 12-8. HOUSE AMENDMENTS. Upon receipt of House amendments to Senate bills or resolutions, the Senate author shall make a motion either to accept the amendments, in which case a successful vote on the motion shall automatically advance the bill to Fourth Reading and final passage, or to reject the amendments and request a conference with the House.

RULE 12-9. CONFERENCE COMMITTEES. The President Pro Tempore shall appoint members of the Senate to serve on conference committees with members of the House of Representatives at such times and in such numbers as the President Pro Tempore deems appropriate.

RULE 12-10. CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORTS.

A. Any Conference Committee Report shall be considered by the Senate only when a majority of the Senate conferees and a majority of the House conferees have signed the report and only when the report is limited to matters germane to the bill or resolution. Provided:

1. An amendment affecting a retirement system as such term is defined in the Oklahoma Pension Legislation Actuarial Analysis Act to a bill or resolution reported from a conference committee which has not been submitted to the legislative actuary as provided in the Act shall be deemed to be out of order and the bill or resolution shall be returned to the conference committee from which it was reported with instructions to remove the amendment;

2. An amendment which creates or expands a requirement for insurance coverage provided to state employees by a state agency to a bill or resolution reported from a conference committee which is not accompanied by written documentation of the fiscal impact thereof requested by the chair of the Senate standing committee to which the bill was originally assigned, as required in subsection A of Rule 5-8, shall be deemed to be out of order and the bill or resolution shall be returned to the conference committee from which it was reported with instructions to remove the amendment; and

3. An amendment which creates a direct fiscal impact on state tax revenues to a bill or resolution reported from a conference committee which is not accompanied by written documentation of the fiscal impact thereof requested by the chair of the Senate standing committee to which the bill was originally assigned, as required in subsection B of Rule 5-8, shall be deemed to be out of order and the bill or resolution shall be returned to the conference committee from which it was reported with instructions to remove the amendment.

If the Senate adopts a Conference Committee Report, the bill or resolution is before the Senate for Fourth Reading and final passage. If the Senate rejects a Conference Committee Report or a motion to adopt the report fails, the bill or resolution shall be returned to the conference committee. Upon a report by the Senate conferees that the conferees cannot agree, the bill or resolution reverts to its former status of consideration of House Amendments to Senate bills or resolutions.

B. The committee report proposed by the Senate author of a measure considered by the General Conference Committee on Appropriations may not be amended during the committee meeting at which the measure is considered.

RULE 12-11. FOURTH READING. Upon Fourth Reading of a bill or resolution, debate shall be in order on final passage of the bill or resolution, after which the vote shall occur on final passage. After final passage of a bill or resolution, it shall be signed by the Presiding Officer in open session.

RULE 12-12. COMMITTEE REPORTS ON EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS. Committee reports on Executive Nominations may be combined by the Majority Floor Leader for consideration by the Senate. At the request of any member, however, a nominee shall be separated from the combined report and considered individually by the Senate. A majority vote of the members of the Senate shall be required for adoption of a combined report.

RULE 12-13. OTHER COMMITTEE REPORTS. Committee reports on matters other than legislation or Executive Nominations shall be filed with the Secretary of the Senate and explained by the chair of the committee making the report, whereupon the Senate may consider any action called for in the report.

RULE 12-14. FIRST READING. A bill or resolution shall be considered introduced upon First Reading and shall automatically be advanced to Second Reading.

RULE 12-15. SECOND READING.

A. The Second Reading of a bill or resolution shall occur the next legislative day following the First Reading. Upon or after Second Reading of a bill or resolution, the same shall be assigned for committee consideration or assigned directly to the calendar. All bills carrying appropriations which are referred to any committee other than the Appropriations Committee shall, immediately upon a report by the committee to which referred, be referred to the Appropriations Committee.

B. All “shell bills”, except for appropriation bills as defined in Rule 5-6, and except for a bill which is exempt from Senate Rule 16-1, shall be assigned to the Rules Committee. For purposes of this rule a “shell bill” shall mean a measure which does not make a substantive change in the law.

C. After preparation of a committee substitute which proposes a substantive change in the law, a shell bill which has been assigned to the Rules Committee may be withdrawn from the Rules Committee and assigned to another committee. No shell bill, except for appropriation bills as defined in Rule 5-6, and except for a bill which is exempt from Senate Rule 16-1, shall be reported out of a committee until it has been amended to include a substantive change in the law.

RULE 12-16. DEBATE. When a question subject to debate is before the Senate, a motion to limit the time for debate shall be in order, even if debate already has begun. The motion shall fix the time limits to be allowed for and against the motion, provided that in no case shall the total debate allotted to each side be less than one-half hour. If such motion is successful, the Presiding Officer shall cause the time limits to be enforced and shall divide the time equally for each side of the question. If the motion is once rejected on a question being debated, it can only be adopted with the approval of two-thirds of those voting.

RULE 12-17. ADJOURNMENT. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order except when the motion shall have been the last voted on and no business is transacted thereafter.

RULE 12-18. AFTER ADOPTION OF MOTION TO ADJOURN. Once a motion to adjourn when the desk is clear has been adopted, no motion shall be considered from the floor of the Senate, whether by unanimous consent or otherwise.

RULE 12-19. SINE DIE ADJOURNMENT. The date and time of sine die adjournment of the Senate shall be fixed by motion or resolution; provided, that once the date and time of such sine die adjournment has arrived, no further business shall be conducted by the Senate, and the Presiding Officer shall declare the Senate adjourned sine die.

RULE 12-20. WITHDRAWAL FROM COMMITTEE. Any bill or resolution may be withdrawn from any committee of the Senate upon a two-thirds vote of the members of the Senate. Any bill or resolution so withdrawn shall be on General Order.

RULE 12-21. RECONSIDERATION. The final vote on Third Reading or Fourth Reading of any bill or joint resolution or on the emergency clause or special election feature or other special feature of any bill or joint resolution may be reconsidered only if a member of the Senate serves notice on the same day the vote to be reconsidered is taken. Once such notice is served, the following procedures shall be observed:

A. In anticipation of the closing days of a regular session or a deadline for third reading and final passage of a measure in the Senate, a majority of the members of the Senate may vote that all motions to reconsider made thereafter shall be disposed of on the same day such notice is served, or disposed of immediately on the last Friday in May, or an earlier day set for sine die adjournment pursuant to the provisions of Rule 12-19.

B. Except as heretofore provided, the member serving notice for reconsideration shall not be permitted to make the motion to reconsider on the day notice is served, but shall have the exclusive right to make such a motion on the next two succeeding legislative days; provided, that on the third succeeding legislative day, any member of the Senate shall have the right to make such a motion. If no such motion is made on the third succeeding legislative day, then no reconsideration shall be permitted.

C. If the Senate refuses to reconsider or if, upon reconsideration, affirms the first decision, no further consideration shall be in order.

D. For adoption, a motion to reconsider the final vote on a bill or resolution or on the emergency clause or special election feature or other special feature must be approved by a majority of the members of the Senate.

E. A motion to reconsider any other action by the Senate must be made by a Senator who voted on the prevailing side and shall be disposed of on the same day it is lodged. The motion to reconsider shall be decided by a majority of those voting on the question.

F. It shall not be in order for the Senate, by suspension of the Rules or by any other means, to reconsider in the Second Regular Session of a Legislature the vote by which any bill or joint resolution was defeated in the First Regular Session.

RULE 12-22. OVERRIDES OF VETOES. When a bill or resolution is returned to the Senate because of veto by the Governor, a motion to vote to override the veto shall be in order at any time.

RULE 12-23. CORRECTIONS TO LEGISLATION.

A. The Title of a bill or resolution shall be made to conform to the text, unless the same has been ordered stricken. A stricken title shall be shown in brackets. The ballot title of a bill or resolution proposing a state question shall be made to conform to the text. The Enacting Clause shall be a part of every bill unless the same shall have been ordered stricken. A stricken Enacting Clause shall be shown by striking through the words of the Enacting Clause.

B. The Senate Service Staff is authorized to correct misspelled words, incorrect citations, typographical errors, repeated words and other similar errors when engrossing or enrolling Senate bills or joint resolutions, or Senate amendments to engrossed House bills or joint resolutions and when preparing committee reports and floor versions of Senate bills or joint resolutions.

C. When engrossing or enrolling Senate bills or joint resolutions, or Senate amendments to engrossed House bills or joint resolutions and when preparing committee reports and floor versions of Senate bills or joint resolutions, the Senate Service Staff is authorized to:

1. Remove sections from a bill or joint resolution labeled as amendatory sections but which consist entirely of existing law and contain no amendments to the existing law;

2. Incorporate amendments to sections of law in the bill or joint resolution which are contained in measures enacted previously during the same legislative session and amending the same sections of law and repeal such previous versions of the section at issue if, in the opinion of the General Counsel, or a staff attorney designated by the Chief of Staff, the incorporation of such amendments and repeal of the previous version would clearly not conflict with the amendments contained in the measure at issue;

3. Modify sections of such measures which provide for a measure to become effective on July 1 or a date earlier than ninety days after the date of expected sine die adjournment to read to reflect an effective date of ninety days after the date of sine die adjournment, or to delete such sections, if the emergency clause has failed to receive the required number of votes for passage;

4. Delete sections of such measures which provide for a measure to become effective on a date prior to such engrossment or enrollment.

D. The Secretary of the Senate shall, at the direction of the President Pro Tempore and with the approval of the Senate author, have the authority to correct nonsubstantive errors in the language of any bill or resolution at the time the same is engrossed or enrolled. A detailed record of all such corrections shall be maintained by the Secretary and printed in the Journal.

The voting machine shall be under the control of the Presiding Officer and shall be operated by a clerk designated by the Presiding Officer.

B. During any roll call, every Senator present shall vote. During a roll call, the Presiding Officer shall request every Senator in the chamber who has not voted to vote. If any Senator so requested fails to vote, the Presiding Officer shall, upon declaring the roll, order that said Senator be shown as voting "NO" on the question. Said order shall be printed in the Journal directly following the printing of the results of the roll call as reflected by the voting machine, and said "NO" vote shall be included in the determination of the passage or failure of the question. In all other cases, a Senator who fails to vote shall be shown as "excused" in the Journal.

C. On any question for which a roll call vote is not required, a roll call vote shall be in order only if requested before the question is put. Once the question has been put and a voice vote taken, the Presiding Officer shall state the side that appears to the Presiding Officer to have prevailed, and any member then may request a division, but shall not be entitled to request a roll call vote. The declaration of the vote by the Presiding Officer shall be final.

D. No Senator shall be permitted to vote or change a vote after the result has been announced by the Presiding Officer.

E. If a member's voting machine is inoperative, the member shall rise and advise the Presiding Officer of the malfunction; and the Senator will be permitted to verbally vote on the question; and the vote will then be recorded by the clerk.

F. When a division is called for, those voting in the affirmative shall rise at their seats and remain standing until counted; then those voting in the negative shall rise and stand until they are counted, whereupon the Presiding Officer shall declare the result.

GOVERNOR BRAD HENRY

*State of the State Address
Governor Brad Henry
February 1, 2010*

Members of the House and Senate, Lt. Governor Askins, President Pro Tempore Coffee, Speaker Bengé, Honorable Justices of the Supreme Court, distinguished Cabinet and elected officials, honored guests and my fellow Oklahomans and friends:

Facing Crisis with Resolve

As I stand before you today to deliver my final State of the State address, I am honored and humbled to have worked with you – my respected colleagues and friends – to improve the lives of Oklahomans. We have accomplished much together.

Today, we start the monumental task of building on our successes while navigating our state through troubled times. Whatever difficulties lie ahead, I know the immensely talented and dedicated people in this chamber, and across our great state, are more than up to the challenge.

We have proven that, again, in recent days, with our state in the grip of a severe winter storm. It's simply the Oklahoma way: we worked together and looked out for one another; we responded quickly and effectively; and we did what we needed to do.

And that is exactly what each of us in this chamber must do as we turn to another urgent and important task.

The economic storm that has seized our nation has also battered Oklahoma. We face a budget shortfall of more than 1 billion dollars. State programs and agencies have already experienced substantial cuts. The state's lagging revenues reflect the fact that far too many Oklahomans and their families are struggling with lost jobs and lost wages.

But what we have not lost, and what will lift us through this challenge, is our steadfast resolve. Oklahomans are tough and resilient; it's all but encoded in our DNA – a fearlessness and unwavering faith, the ability to survey a vast, uncharted territory and see the seeds of opportunity. We are bold when others hesitate, and that grit and determination will see us past this crisis, just as it has so many times before.

Shortly after being elected seven years ago, I stood in this chamber amid grim fiscal uncertainty. At that time, we faced a historic budget shortfall of nearly 700 million dollars.

The pessimists wrung their hands and panicked. The naysayers braced for huge tax hikes and catastrophic cuts. The cynics predicted rank partisanship would rule the day.

But I challenged legislators to put aside partisan differences and work with me for the good of the state. And that's exactly what happened.

The challenges in 2003 were great, but so were the opportunities. We did not point fingers and assess blame. Instead, we assessed the situation, drafted a course of action, and brought Republicans and Democrats together for a historic budget agreement. We shielded education and healthcare from crippling cuts, and we balanced the budget without raising taxes.

Together, we made hard choices, weathered the storm and emerged even stronger.

A Rainy Day

For many in this chamber, today's fiscal crisis is uncharted territory. More than 70 percent of this session's House and Senate members were not here during our last revenue failure.

This budget crisis will test each of us, and it will demand our best. It will require listening to the needs of our people, not the noise of partisan rancor. It will demand cooperation and collaboration, not confrontation and political calculation. The decisions we make will affect millions of Oklahomans today and in the future. The stakes are that high.

But we are up to the task. It's been said that Oklahoma's strength has been shaped by adversity. That's partially true. But adversity not only builds character, it reveals character. And our character is our greatest asset.

Families across Oklahoma work hard to put food on the table and provide the best for their children. Almost all of them depend in one way or another on state programs and services, whether it's the local public schools that educate their children, state troopers who protect them from harm, or the road crews who keep highways and interstates safe and clear.

As we respond to this fiscal storm, we must keep the needs of these hardworking Oklahomans at the forefront. At no time is that more urgent than now, during economic distress, when people increasingly must turn to us for help.

We all will be asked to sacrifice. But we cannot balance the budget at the expense of the most vulnerable among us.

Certainly, more cuts are unavoidable. Agencies and programs, already hit hard by fiscal reality, will be asked to absorb further reductions. There will be an impact, and it will be painful.

That is why we must wield the budget knife carefully, with clinical precision.

Today, I present to you a balanced budget that does just that, making necessary cuts but still mindful of the real people behind the numbers. There will be disagreements – and that’s the noise of democracy – but, this session, in particular, critics must do more than cast blame; they must also be collaborators, offering ideas of their own and solutions for the people of Oklahoma.

As we proceed, I implore you to remember there are very real – and human – consequences to budget cuts. The men and women who make state government work are not numbers on a spreadsheet.

Government is the schoolteacher grading papers at night. It is the meat and poultry inspector ensuring a safe food supply. It’s the child welfare specialist investigating suspected child abuse. It’s the nursing home attendant caring for a loved one ... the speech pathologist working with special-needs children ... the corrections officer tasked with keeping dangerous criminals behind bars.

Slashing government spending can make for catchy campaign rhetoric, but rhetoric has ramifications – human ramifications – that demand to be considered.

Fortunately, Oklahoma is not without resources to meet this crisis.

When we faced our last revenue shortfall in 2003, the Rainy Day Fund was virtually depleted. We were caught in a downpour without so much as an umbrella.

In the years since, I worked with the Legislature to prudently restrict the use of the Rainy Day Fund. We beat back annual efforts to raid the fund and, today, for the first time in history, the Rainy Day Fund is full, preserved for its intended purpose: a rainy day.

And ladies and gentlemen, it is raining.

This budget crisis is precisely the kind of emergency that citizens envisioned 25 years ago when they voted to create the Rainy Day Fund. Now is the time to use our reserve dollars to preserve crucial services.

We must also ensure that our emergency fund is adequate to meet our future needs. This year, I ask for your support in raising the cap on Rainy Day Fund deposits from 10 percent to 15 percent of general revenue collections. We owe that to the people of this state.

Protecting Our Foundation

Working together for the good of all Oklahomans, I have confidence we will resolve this crisis responsibly and effectively.

I am confident of something else, too: This recession will end. The storm clouds will roll away, and the sun will shine again. We must not allow the crisis of the moment to erode all that we have built over the last decade.

Our deliberations today must account for the promise of tomorrow. The foundation we have constructed must be protected and nurtured so we are poised for the inevitable recovery.

Through the innovative Insure Oklahoma program, we created a partnership with small businesses and their employees to make health coverage affordable for tens of thousands of Oklahomans. This nationally recognized program is a model for states across the country, and it has enjoyed strong support from both sides of the aisle.

We cannot turn back the clock. Insure Oklahoma can provide coverage for many more Oklahomans – if we make the right choices today. We must provide adequate funding for this vital initiative so more Oklahomans can live longer, healthier lives.

Early in my administration, I asked leaders in the business community to collaborate and offer suggestions about what Oklahoma can and should do to diversify our economy and move forward in the 21st century.

Their top recommendation was the EDGE Research Endowment. Since its inception, EDGE has spawned ground-breaking research, created high-paying jobs to fuel the economy and planted seeds of opportunity for future generations.

The EDGE Endowment is our greatest tool for diversifying our economy and creating jobs for our children and grandchildren. Turning our backs on EDGE would send exactly the wrong message at the wrong time. I challenge you to think beyond the present and find a permanent funding source for this critical job-creating economic development tool.

Even in times of economic distress, the safety and security of Oklahomans is paramount.

As part of our efforts to be tough and smart on crime, we have invested in drug courts and mental health courts to put low-risk offenders on a more productive and cost-effective path. These programs are having dramatic results.

Mental health and substance abuse services impact the lives – in fact, they save the lives – of Oklahomans of all backgrounds. These vital programs keep families together. Just as important, they offer solutions to problems before they escalate to the costly criminal justice system.

I urge you to remain tough and smart on crime by investing in mental health and substance abuse services. We can save lives today and taxpayer dollars tomorrow.

A Strong Education

Nowhere has our work been more critical – or our accomplishments more resonant – than in the arena of education. We’ve made tremendous progress and achieved powerful results.

Through education, we are building a skilled and creative workforce, forging the strong and diverse economy of tomorrow. We are molding the leaders and citizens who will decide the fate of issues we cannot yet imagine, and we want those citizens to be discerning, thoughtful and well-informed.

Most of all, by giving every Oklahoma child a great education, we give that child a chance to pursue his or her dreams. There is nothing greater we can do for our children or our future.

To that end, we invested resources in the classroom. We equipped teachers with the tools of tomorrow so our children can compete for the jobs of tomorrow.

Through the Achieving Classroom Excellence initiative, we’ve raised academic standards and increased accountability in the classroom. End-of-instruction exams make a high school diploma more meaningful and ensure that students master core subjects. And, today, more students take a rigorous, college-bound curriculum, and fewer students start college with a need for remedial courses.

Because of ACE, Oklahoma now ranks among the top 10 states in the nation for standards and accountability. In fact, Education Week magazine recently gave our standards and accountability rating system a perfect score.

Building on our success with ACE, Oklahoma has applied for a Race to the Top grant. If awarded, these funds will enable further reforms, like performance pay for teachers and a comprehensive data system to track the success of our students, teachers and schools.

It was a massive undertaking, and I thank State Superintendent Sandy Garrett and Kathy Taylor for their diligent work.

We also recognized the hard work of our teachers by increasing their pay and, for the first time in history, covering the full cost of teachers’ health insurance. This helps Oklahoma attract and retain the quality teachers our students deserve, and it tells our teachers that we value their commitment and acknowledge their work to be vital to the future of our state.

Our responsibility to our students is sacred, and our progress in schools has been tremendous. I will not tolerate any effort to cut teacher pay or siphon resources from our classrooms, our students, or our future.

Our future also depends on college graduates. Because of our vision, high school students can earn free college credit through concurrent enrollment. In fact, some students have as many as 30 college credits before they graduate from high school, giving them an important head start on a college degree.

By providing a permanent funding source for our college scholarship program, we kept “Oklahoma’s Promise” to students and rewarded good grades and good behavior with a free college education.

Those efforts have propelled Oklahoma to 10th in the nation in the percentage of students enrolled in public higher education. In fact, Oklahoma is one of only 12 states to have increased the percentage of adults with bachelors’ degrees in this decade.

While improving access, we have also improved the quality of higher education in Oklahoma. We approved a 475-million dollar bond issue for transformative capital improvements on our college campuses – the largest single investment in higher education capital projects in our history.

We also began funding an endowed chairs program that doubles our money and attracts the best professors to Oklahoma. This session, we have an opportunity to endow more than 900 new professorships at 21 of our colleges and universities without any new appropriations. I urge you to enact this critical proposal quickly so our students can reap the benefits.

Through our commitment to colleges and universities, we have sown the seeds of our future success and prosperity. I will fight any effort to uproot that progress and diminish the promise of a brighter tomorrow.

Perhaps most important is the focus we have placed on our youngest students. Heeding the overwhelming evidence that most brain development occurs before age 6, we put enormous effort into early childhood education. That work resulted in full-day kindergarten and a voluntary pre-K program that is the model for states from coast to coast.

We will see dividends from that vision as those students enter higher grades and higher education, better prepared for the challenges that await them. We cannot undermine those efforts and jeopardize the future of our youngest Oklahomans.

My favorite proponent of early childhood education – and education at every level – is here with us today. A schoolteacher, a key education advisor and my best friend, please help me welcome my wife, First Lady Kim Henry. With her today are two of my three smart and beautiful daughters. Please welcome Laynie and Baylee.

Family, Coming Together

Like other Oklahomans, my family is my foundation. We have each chosen to serve in this building because of our love and commitment to the Oklahoma family.

Working together, we made landmark investments of nearly 4 billion dollars to build and improve roads and bridges across the state and keep Oklahoma families safe.

And through strategies like the Oklahoma Bioenergy Center, we combined our expertise in traditional energy development with cutting-edge research on alternative and renewable energies.

After decades of neglect and inaction at the Tar Creek Superfund site, we took action and moved families with young children out of harm's way. We implemented policies that reduced tobacco use among teenagers and replaced junk food in our schools with healthy options. And we are building world-class diabetes and cancer research centers to give Oklahomans better access to quality health care and longer, healthier lives.

We endured natural disasters together, sheltered our neighbors in their time of need, and rebuilt their shattered communities. We honored our friends and loved ones as they marched off to war, and we provided comfort for those they left behind with groundbreaking assistance programs like Operation Homefront.

With an eye on protecting our most vulnerable citizens, we expanded health coverage for children, implemented reforms in nursing homes and cracked down on cyber predators.

And we attacked the most insidious drug problem facing today's society – methamphetamine – declaring war on its manufacturers and dealers while targeting education campaigns at potential users.

Through these accomplishments and many more, we helped revise and revitalize the amazing story that is Oklahoma. We must not back down. We must not let the challenges of today destroy our dreams for tomorrow.

The Story of Oklahoma

As I address this body for the last time as governor, I cannot help but reflect on the many friends I've made in this chamber, or the progress we've achieved by working together.

But the greatest and most humbling honor has been to serve the wonderful people of Oklahoma, who have allowed each of us to play a small role in this state's continuing drive to excellence.

I entered this office determined to move our state forward. One of the things I thought was most critical for Oklahoma was to build, renew, and – in some cases – instill pride in this place we love.

Oklahomans, for all our enviable characteristics, are also quite modest. We are humble, perhaps to a fault. We sometimes whisper the story of Oklahoma when we should be shouting it from rooftops.

This is a unique and inspiring state. A literal and figurative crossroads of America, we are a fusion of seemingly contradictory traits. We dream big, but with feet planted firmly on the ground. We know self-reliance but revere charity and compassion. We are humble, but boast an unconquerable spirit. We honor our heritage but look to our future with pride.

Consider how far we have come. A mere 75 years ago, drought and the raging windstorms of the Dust Bowl had turned much of this state into a near wasteland, leaving psychological scars that took decades to heal.

One of the more poignant descriptions of that time came from Caroline Henderson, a farmer and writer whose eyewitness accounts deftly captured the magnitude of the plight. In June of 1935, Henderson wrote the following words:

“Dust to eat and dust to breathe and dust to drink. Dust in the beds and in the flour bin, on dishes and walls and windows, in hair and eyes and ears and teeth and throats, to say nothing of the heaped up accumulation on floors and window sills. ...

“Pastures have changed to barren wastes, and dooryards around humble little homes have become scenes of dusty desolation.”

That Oklahoma, thankfully, is a distant memory.

In my many travels across this state, I am struck time and again by how much Oklahoma is always changing, always evolving. It is a story as exciting and dynamic as it is unpredictable.

Biotech startups and nanotechnology are revolutionizing how we view ourselves and the world around us. Medical breakthroughs at institutions like the Oklahoma Medical Research Foundation are changing the face of medicine and saving lives. Information technology, aviation and aerospace are shrinking the planet and transforming our lives. Sensor technology and weather research are protecting our homes and families. Renewable energy promises a cleaner planet and new jobs in rural Oklahoma.

These new industries and others have joined Oklahoma's great economic drivers like energy and agriculture.

We are changing perceptions with new, innovative approaches and revolutionary ideas.

Our cities are growing, bustling with new businesses, entertainment and the arts. The BOK Center in Tulsa and the Ford Center in Oklahoma City are ranked among the top entertainment venues in the country. We have the NBA in Oklahoma City, and the WNBA in Tulsa. Top-flight museums, art galleries, restaurants and festivals – even a School of Rock – have cast a new and distinctive spotlight on our state.

Dust has given way to destiny. Oklahoma is emerging as one of the most dynamic stories of America in the 21st century. It is a tale of fortitude and fearlessness, of innovation and ingenuity, of family and unflagging faith.

I am proud of the contributions we have been able to make to this incredible state these past seven years. And I am heartened by the certainty that our best days lie ahead.

God bless you all, and God bless Oklahoma.

Upon motion of Representative Jones, the Joint Session was ordered dissolved at the hour of 1:30 p.m.
